§ 17.1 Appointments. A person whose appointment was authorized prior to March 16, 1942 and who passes a non-competitive examination acquires a classified civil service status six months from the date of his appointment, if there has been compliance with the provisions of Section 2.6 of this chapter, other than those provisions relating to recommendation and examination.

sesses the competence requisite for the professional grade generally rather than for any particular position within the,

Notwithstanding the foregoing provision a person employed in a position other than an attorney position may be approved for an attorney position in the same agency in a grade not higher than P-3 provided (1) that he meets the minimum requirements prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section; (2) that his assignment will be limited to work which calls primarily for knowledge of the particular agency; (3) that his experience in the agency especially qualifies him for the type of work for which he is pro-posed; and (4) that the examining committee is satisfied of his ability to perform competently the type of work to which he will be assigned. Persons thus approved for particular positions shall be eligible to acquire qualified Civil Service status as attorneys. Persons who acquire or who are approved for qualified Civil Service status as attorneys may not be reassigned to a different type of work or transferred to another agency without first passing such competitive or noncompetitive tests as the Board may prescribe. Promotion to any grade above P-3 shall per se be deemed reassignment for the purpose of this section.

(g) All appointments to attorney and law clerk-trainee positions shall be for the duration of the present war and for six months thereafter, unless otherwise specifically limited to a shorter period, and shall be made subject to the satisfactory completion of a trial period of one year. Such appointments shall be effected under Executive Order No. 9063 of February 16, 1942, (7 F.R. 1075), and persons thus appointed will not thereby acquire a classified Civil Service status. No person shall be appointed unless (1) he has qualified by passing an appropriate examination prescribed by the Board or, (2) in case of special emergency, the Board has authorized his appointment subject to subsequent examination. Such appointments shall in other respects be governed by the requirements and procedures prescribed by these Regulations. This paragraph shall become effective March 16, 1942.

§ 17.2 Position of law clerk trainee. Pursuant to the definite recommendation contained in Plan A of the Report of the President's Committee on Civil Service Improvement, the Board recommends the immediate establishment of a general position classification consisting of non-professional law clerk duties, preparatory in character for professional legal work. The position should have a designation indicating its training or preparatory character. Government departments and agencies having legal staffs should, wherever possible, include such positions in their legal organizations, as a means of recruiting able law school students. Since these appointments are to permit preparation for professional legal work, they shall be made with an expressly stipulated condition that the appointee prior to entrance upon duty shall have obtained a law degree and shall obtain membership in the bar of a State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, within a period of 18 months from his appointment. Failure to meet this condition should result in his separation, or assignment to other duties. Upon acquiring bar membership, the appointee should be immediately eligible for assignment as Junior Attorney.

§ 17.3 Promotion, transfer and reassignment. (a) A person who has civil service status as an attorney may be transferred or reassigned without examination to an attorney position within the grades in which he has such status. Subject to a non-competitive examination approved by the Board, he may be promoted, transferred, or reassigned to a position in a higher grade.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, the incumbent of any attorney position included within the Civil Service who has neither civil service status as an attorney nor eligibility for such status acquired through recommendation under the terms of an executive order or statute may not be promoted, transferred, or reassigned to any other position in the Civil Service. Such incumbents, if they have not failed a noncompetitive examination occasioned by a recommendation that they be granted civil service status, may receive war service appointments under § 17.1 (g) of this chapter to positions not covered by an existing attorney register and to posi-tions covered by such a register if it can be established by affirmative proof that failure to recommend them for civil service status when they were eligible to be so recommended was caused by lack of information or erroneous in-formation concerning civil service requirements.

(c) Subject to the provisions of these regulations, a person who receives a war service appointment under § 17.1 (g) of this chapter may be promoted, transferred, or assigned to other positions for the duration of his appointment.

(d) The minimum qualifications required for new appointments by § 17.1 (c) of this chapter shall apply to promotions and transfers with increase in grade, Provided, however, That with the prior approval of the Board of Legal Examiners the incumbent of an attorney position whose work is certified by the Chief Law Officer of the employing agency to be of unusually high quality may without reference to the foregoing limitations be advanced to a position in the same agency in the next higher grade.

§ 17.4 War service transfer. (a) On and after March 16, 1942 all transfers from one attorney position to another such position shall be governed by § 10.9 of this chapter, except that the determi-nations required thereunder shall be made by the Board of Legal Examiners.

(b) Incumbents of attorney positions who desire to transfer under the War Service Regulations shall file with the Board of Legal Examiners a statement to that effect, accompanied by Form 3821 ("Application for Attorney Positions") unless this form has previously been filed with the Board.

§ 17.5 Reinstatement. (a) A person who has civil service status as an attorney and who is separated from a civilian position in the Federal service after serving a probationary period in an attorney position may, upon passing a non-competitive examination when required by the Board, be reinstated to an attorney position provided request is made by an appointing officer within 1 year of separation if the period of cervice was less than 2 years, within 2 years if the period of service was 2 years or more but less than 3 years, within 3 years if the period of service was 3 years or more but less than 4 years, within 4 years if the period of service was 4 years or more but less than 5 years, or at any time if the period of service was 5 years or more or if the former employee is entitled to military preference in appointment or was retired upon annuity under the Civil Service Retirement Act because of total disability and is eligible for reinstatement by reason of recovery, or if the reinstatement is for war service tenure.

(b) A person separated from an attorney position during his probationary period may be reinstated subject to the other provisions of these regulations; but if the separation was by reason of voluntary resignation prior to the completion of six months of catisfactory service, he may be reinstated only in the same agency. Reinstatement under this section will be subject to the completion of the original probationary period if in the agency from which the employee was separated or if the separation occurred after six months of catisfactory service; in other cases it will be subject to the satisfactory completion of a new probationary period.

(c) Subject to non-competitive examination when required by the Board but without regard to any other provisions of this section, an attorney may be retransferred to an attorney position in which he was formerly employed or to any position to which transfer could be made therefrom, if since his transfer from the attorney position he has served continuously and catisfactorily (1) in the executive or judicial civil service of the United States or of its insular posesciona; (2) in the legislative service; (3) in the service of a state, county, municipality, or foreign government in a position in which he has acquired valuable training and experience; or (4) in a training course approved by the Board in an educational institution of recognized standing.

(d) Subject to non-competitive examination when required by the Board, a percon who receives a war service appointment to an attorney position under § 17.1 (g) of this chapter and who is ceparated therefrom, may be reinstated to an attorney position with war service

§ 17.6 Registers of eligibles. Registers of eligibles for attorney positions chall contain such numbers, be applicable to such positions, and be effective for such periods as the Board shall determine and announce. The publication of each register and of the supplements thereto shall constitute the certification of the eligibles included. The register, together with pertinent information concerning the eligibles which the Board will supply, shall be evailable in full to appointing officers, who may make selections for appointment from among those included, subject to the Board's stated minimum experience requirements for particular grades of positions and with the exception that the Board may from time to time suspend the certification of eligibles from particular States in order to give effect to the principle that appointments shall so far as practicable be distributed among the States in proportion to population. Except as to individuals of whom the Board is advised by appointing officers in advance of publication of the register, all appointments to the positions and for the period covered by any register shall be from the register. The selections from any register shall be communicated immediately by the appointing agencies to the Board. The Board, immediately upon entering its approval of proposed appointments, will remove the names of the appointees from the register. The Board may from time to time add to a register others who have qualified through examination, in substitution for those who have been found unavailable for appointment, and may at any time suspend or cancel the eligibility of an individual included upon register for cause arising either before or after his original certification. In case the life of a register is extended, the eligibles remaining upon it may as a condition of continued eligibility be required to furnish supplementary statements of qualifications and experience.

§ 17.7 Register applicants entering military service. Applicants for the Board's register who enter the military and related services or who are drafted into national service under the Selective Service Act shall enjoy the following rights, provided request is made within six months following their honorable discharge and return to civilian status:

(a) An applicant whose score upon a written examination confers eligibility for oral examination and who enters the service before his oral examination shall be entitled to take a qualifying oral examination or at the option of the Board to compete in a competitive oral examination in process at the time of his request and, if recommended by the examining committee, to be included for one year among the eligibles for positions in the grade or grades for which the original written examination was given.

(b) An applicant who enters the service after having qualified for a register but before the register is announced shall not be placed upon the register but shall be included for one year following action upon his request among the eligibles for positions in the grade or grades covered by the register for which he had qualified.

(c) An eligible upon a register who enters the service during the life of the register shall be included among the eligibles for positions in the same grade or grades for one year following action upon his request.

The foregoing rights shall accrue regardless of the tenure and status attaching to appointments during the periods within which eligibility is conferred pursuant to this section.

Chapter XI—Food Distribution Administration

PART 1405—FRUITS AND VEGETABLES
CITRUS FRUIT

Determination relative to oranges and lemons fit for human consumption or for processing into juice.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Food Distribution Order No. 6 (8 F.R. 511) issued by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States on January 12, 1943, under the authority of Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and in order to effectuate the purposes of such orders, It is hereby determined and ordered, As follows:

§ 1405.5 Oranges and lemons fit for human consumption or for processing into juice—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "mature" means oranges which have soluble solids, as determined by a Brix scale hydrometer, equal to or in excess of 8 parts to every part of acid contained in the juice, and the acidity of the juice is to be calculated as citric acid without water of crystallization. The sample selected for testing maturity shall be a composite sample of the lot of oranges except where it is evident that immature oranges are mixed throughout the entire lot, in which case a separate maturity test shall be made of the fruit having an immature appearance.

(2) The term. "damage by dryness" means oranges in which 20 percent or more of the exposed pulp on a transverse cut through the center shows dryness or desication.

(b) Oranges. Any lot of oranges produced in California or Arizona is fit for human consumption or for processing into juice if such oranges meet the following minimum grade specifications: The oranges are mature, free from decay, free from damage by dryness, and free from other defects making the juice unsatisfactory for canning. A tolerance shall be allowed, with respect to damage by dryness, of 15 percent; and an additional tolerance shall be allowed, of 10 percent, for other defects making the juice unsatisfactory for canning, but not over one-half of said tolerance of 10 percent shall be allowed for decay.

(c) Lemons. Any lot of lemons produced in California or Arizona is fit for human consumption or for processing into juice if such lemons (1) meet the minimum quality requirements specified in the Agricultural Code of California, as revised effective September 13, 1941; (2) are free from serious damage caused by bud mite; and (3) are colored to the extent that 75 percent or more of the surface of each lemon is of a full yellow color. A tolerance of 5 percent shall be allowed for serious damage caused by bud mite, but this tolerance shall be included in the tolerance for defects other than serious freezing damage as provided in the Agricultural Code of California, as revised effective September 13, 1941. An additional tolerance of 5 percent shall be allowed for lemons which do not meet the aforesaid color requirement, but such tolerance shall be in addition to the other tolerances permitted under the aforesaid Agricultural Code of California, as revised effective September 13, 1941.

(d) Effective date. The provisions hereof shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., P. w. t., April 22, 1943.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179; F.D.O. 6, 8 F.R. 511)

GENERAL

§ 81.201 Rescission of regulations. Army Regulations 5-140, May 22, 1940, as amended; Army Regulations 5-160, October 24, 1941, as amended; Army Regulations 5-240, February 11, 1936, as amended; and all other prior directives and instructions of whatsoever nature relating to negotiated purchases, open market purchases, procurement without advertising, and other purchasing methods are hereby rescinded.

§ 81.202 Compliance with Procurement Regulation No. 2. Unless otherwise specifically provided, compliance with any provision of Procurement Regulation No. 2° or of any amendment thereto which requires a change in contract procedure or in any contract provision shall not be mandatory until thirty days after the issuance of such regulation or amendment.

§ 81.203 Definitions. (a) The term "negotiation" as used in these procurement regulations includes any method of contracting or-purchasing, except the formal advertising and sealed bid procedure prescribed by section 3709, Revised Statutes,

(b) The term "negotiated purchases" includes all purchases made by negotiation as so defined. (See § 31.241).

§ 81.204 Contracting authority—(a) Basis. War Department contracting and purchasing are now based primarily on the authority contained in the Act of December 18, 1941 (Public No. 354, 77th Congress) referred to as the First War Powers Act, 1941, and Executive Order No. 9001, December 27, 1941. The earlier authority contained in sections 1 (a) and (b) of the Act of July 2, 1940 (Public No. 703, 76th Congress) has also been extended, however, by section 9 of the Act of June 30, 1941 (Public No. 139, 77th Congress) and by section 13 of the Act of June 5, 1942 (Public No. 500, 77th Congress). (See § 81.240).

(b) First War Powers Act. Title II of the First War Powers Act, 1941, reads as follows:

Sec. 201. The Precident may authorize any department or agency of the Government exercising functions in connection with the prosecution of the war effort, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the President for the protection of the interests of the Government, to enter into contracts and into amendments or medifications of contracts heretofore or hereafter made and to make cdvance, pregress and other payments thereon, without regard to the provisions of law relating to the making, performance, amendment, or modification of contracts whenever he deems such action would facilitate the presscution of the war: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the una of the cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost eyetem of contracting: Provided further, That nothing herein shall be construed to authorize any contracts in violation of existing law relating to limitation of profits: Provided fur-ther, That all acts under the authority of this section shall be made a matter of public record under regulations prescribed by the President and when deemed by him not to be incompatible with the public interest.

- . (c) Authority conferred. Title I of Executive Order No. 9001 confers authority on the War Department under The First War Powers Act, 1941, as follows:
- (1) Section 1 of the Executive Order authorizes the Secretary of War within the limits of the amounts appropriated therefor, to enter into contracts and into amendments or medifications of contracts heretofore or hereafter made, and to make advance, progress, and other payments thereon, without regard to the provisions of law relating to the making, performance, amendment, or medification of contracts.

and to delegate these powers with nuthority to redelegate them. With respect to such delegations, see § 81.107 and following of these procurement regulations, and especially § 81.107 (i).

2. The contracts hereby authorized to be made include agreements of all kinds (whether in the form of letters of intent, purchase orders, or otherwise) for all types and kinds of things and curvices necessary, appropriate or convenient for the process.

tion of war, or for the invention, development, or preduction of, or research concerning any cuch things, including but not limited to, aircraft, buildings, vessels, erms, armament, equipment, or cupples of any lind, or any portion thereof, including plans, eyare parts and equipment therefor, materials, supplies, facilities, utilities, machinery, machine tools, and any other equipment, without any rectriction of any kind, either each present leasing the form cither as to type, character, location or form.

3. The War Department, the Navy Department, and the United States Maritime Commission may by agreement medify or amond or cettle claims under contracts heretofere or hereafter made, may make advance, progress and other payments upon such contracts of any percantum of the contract price, and may enter into agreements with contractors and/or obligations of any cort, including accuract bligations of the War Department, the Navy Department, or the United States Maritime Commission respectively the presention of the war is thereby facilitated. Amendments and medifications of contracts may be with or without concideration and may be utilized to accomplish the came things as any original contract could have accomplished hereunder, irrespective of the time or circumstances of the making of or the form of the contract amended or medified, or of the amending or medifying contract, and irrespective of rights which may have accuract under the contract, or the amendments or medifications thereof.

d. Adverticing, competitive bidding, and bid, payment, performance, or other bands or other forms of country, need not be re-

(Sze §§ 81.401-81.427.)

(d) Restrictions on powers. (1) Title II of Executive Order No. 9001 prescribes the following regulations for the exercise of the authority thereby conferred.

1. Complete data shall be maintained by the War Department, the Navy Department, and the United States Haritime Commission to all contracts and purchases which they respectively make purcuant to the Act and this Executive Order. The Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Chairman of the United States Haritime Commission chall make available for public inspection, as they may respectively deem compatible with the public interest, so much of such data as does not cover restricted, confidential, or correct contracts or purchases.

As amended by E.O. 9296, January 30, 1943. See §§ 81.291–81.294.

2. Nothwithstanding anything in the Act or Executive Order, the War Department, the Novy Department, and the United States Meritime Commission shall not discriminate in any act performed thereunder against any person on the ground of race, creed, color or national origin, and all contracts chall be deemed to incorporate by reference a provision that the contractor and any subcontractors thereunder shall not so discriminate.

(See § 01.325.)

3. No claim against the United States arising under any purchase or contract made under the authority of the Act shall be assigned except in accordance with the Assignment of Claims Act, 1949 (Public No. 311, 75th Congress, approved October 9, 1940).

Procurement Regulation No. 2 includes §§ 81.201 to 81.294, inclusive.

(See § 81.3180.)

4. Advance payments shall be made hereunder only after careful scrutiny to determine that such payments will promote the national interest and under such regulations to that end as the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, or the United States Maritime Commission may prescribe.

(See § 81.321.)

- (2) Every contract entered into pursuant to the Act and Executive Order must contain the warranty by the contractor against payment of commissions and contingent fees set out in § 81.323 (see § 81.1107).
- (3) The cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost system of contracting shall not be used.
- (4) Provisions of law limiting profits under contracts or fixed-fees continue in effect and in no case shall the fixed fee under a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract exceed 7% of the estimated cost exclusive of the fee.
- (5) No contract or modification or amendment thereof shall be exempt from the provisions of the Walsh-Healey Act (49 Stat. 2036) because of being entered into without advertising or competitive bidding, and the provisions of that act, the Davis-Bacon Act, as amended (49 Stat. 1011), the Copeland Act, as amended (48 Stat. 948) and the Eight Hour Law, as amended by the Act of September 9, 1940 (Public No. 781, 76th Congress) if otherwise applicable apply to contracts made and performed under the authority of the Act and Executive Order. (See §§ 81.901-81.985.)
- (e) Extent of authority. By an opinion dated August 29, 1942, the Attorney General of the United States has construed the powers conferred by the First War Powers Act, 1941, and Executive Order No. 9001. This opinion ruled that a proposed delegation of authority from the Under Secretary of War to the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, substantially similar to the delegation contained in § 81.107 (e) was within the authority of the Act and Executive Order.
- § 81.205 Purpose of regulations. In conferring the powers under the First War Powers Act, Executive Order No. 9001 directed the war agencies to work with the War Production Board "to bring about the conversion of manufacturing industries to war production, including the surveying of the war potential of industries, plant by plant; the spreading of war orders; the conversion of facilities; the assurance of efficient and speedy production; the development and use of subcontracting to the fullest extent and conservation of strategic materials." The policies and procedures designed to carry out these procurement objectives are stated in this and the following regulations. This regulation discusses the basic principles underlying the policies and methods elaborated in the subsequent regulations, and the relation of these various policies to the procurement program as a whole.

CONTRACT PLACEMENT

- § 81.220 Scope. (a) Attainment of the essential procurement objectives with the minimum disruption of the nation's economic system, and effective use of available labor, materials and facilities, depend to a large extent on sound contract placement. This section states the policies to be followed and the factors to be considered in placing contracts, in selecting contractors, in scheduling deliveries and in revising delivery schedules.
- (b) Further policies governing placement of contracts for plant facilities expansion are treated in §§ 81.1001–81.1019. Policies governing purchasing through other services and other departments are discussed in §§ 81.601–81.613 and foreign purchases are treated in §§ 81.501–81.510.
- § 81.221 Purchase of used or secondhand materials—(a) Policy. In view of the prevalent shortages of raw materials, manufacturing facilities and labor, second-hand or used articles will be procured instead of new articles whenever (1) they are suitable in quality and design for the particular purpose involved, and (2) they can be obtained at reasonable cost with reasonable effort at the time required, unless any agency allocating such articles (such as the Machine Tool Section of the Resources and Production Division) orders otherwise.
- duction Division) orders otherwise.

  (b) Execution. The chief of each supply service will make adequate provision to insure that all procurement offices and agencies under his direction comply with the policy stated in paragraph (a) of this section, and will place responsibility upon a designated member of his staff for requiring compliance with that policy to the greatest extent practicable.
- (c) Obstacles. Whenever a statute, order or regulation prevents the effective procurement of suitable used articles or other articles already available instead of new articles, the chief of the supply service concerned will notify the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, of this fact so that appropriate action may be taken pursuant to the First War Powers Act, 1941 and Executive Order 9001, or otherwise, to remove any obstruction to such procurement.
- (d) Purchases through Procurement Division, Treasury Department. In connection with the use of used or second hand materials, it is of the utmost importance that all procurement offices and agencies avail themselves of the facilities of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department as more fully set forth in § 81.613. That division makes available to the War Department property which is surplus to the need of other Government agencies. Chiefs of supply services should see that all procurement offices and agencies under their direction obtain the catalog of available property referred to in § 81.613 (f), and that they keep in touch with the Regional Property Officers of the Procurement Division referred to in § 81.613 (e). In this way much used and second-hand material can be obtained.

§ 81.222 Time for placing contracts and scheduling deliveries—(a) Scheduling of deliveries. Proper scheduling of deliveries is essential for the most efficient use of available industrial capacity. If manufacturers are required to produce and deliver items long before they will actually be needed, they may be forced to increase the number of their employees abnormally or be unable to produce other items which will be needed sooner, and scarce materials may be tied up in inventory not currently needed. Thus the failure to schedule deliveries properly tends to disrupt the Army supply program and prevents industrial capacity from being used in the production of items as they are needed. Accordingly, subject to directives of the Director of Production Scheduling, future contracts will be scheduled so that supplies will be delivered only a short time before they are actually required, unless in a particular case efficient production requires otherwise. Existing contracts will also be reviewed with a view to rescheduling deliveries on the same basis.

(b) Time for placing contracts. The policy of deferring production and deliveries until supplies are needed does not mean that the placing of contracts for such items should be postponed. Frequently, prompt placing of contracts for supplies to be delivered in the future will assist the contractor to plan his entire production, to obtain necessary allocations of materials and to employ his labor in a more orderly, efficient and continuous manner. This insures the maximum use of facilities and avoids waste and delay. Under the Controlled Materials Plan it is particularly important for contractors to know well in advance the amounts of such materials which will be required for particular periods. Accordingly, contracts for future needs will be promptly placed wherever such early placement is feasible and will promote more efficient or orderly production.

§ 81.223 Factors governing placement of contracts. The selection of a contractor for a particular contract from among the available qualified producers depends on a number of factors. In making such selections effect must be given to various policies laid down by the War Production Board (see Directive No. 2, October 10, 1942, 7 F.R. 8179), by the War Manpower Commission in its directives, and by Congress, as in the Smaller War Plants Act. These policies, their relation and relative importance are discussed in the following paragraphs:

- (a) Ability to perform. Primary emphasis shall be placed upon securing performance or deliveries at the time, in the quantity, and of the quality required by the war program. In addition an effort should be made to have for each item of supply and equipment at least two producers so located as not to be subject to the same hazard.
- (b) New facilities. When two or more producers are able to perform the contract equally well, but will require substantially different amounts of additional new machinery, equipment, or facilities for the performance of the contract, it shall be placed with the concern which needs to acquire the least. When the Smaller War Plants Corporation decides to obtain machinery, equipment or facilities in order to qualify a smaller war plant, however, the amount of this equipment will be disregarded in applying this policy and the concern will be treated as if such equipment had been on hand.
- (c) Labor supply policy. (1) The War Manpower Commission has divided the country into twelve Regions and from time to time classifies localities in each Region according to their labor supply conditions and on this basis designates them as:

Group I: Areas of current acute labor shortage.

Group II: Areas of labor stringency and those anticipating a labor shortage within six months.

Group III: Areas in which a general labor shortage may be anticipated after six months. Group IV: Areas in which labor supply is and will continue to be adequate to meet all known labor requirements.

The Industrial Personnel Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, will advise the supply services monthly, or more often if conditions warrant, of the designations of the Commission.

- (2) When two or more contractors are able to perform a contract equally well, and are substantially on a par with respect to new equipment and facilities, the selection between them shall be based on the labor supply situation in the areas in which they are located, in accordance with paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section.
- (d) Labor shortage areas. In accordance with paragraph (c) of this section the following policies will be observed with respect to the placing of contracts in Groups I, II, or III labor areas:
- (1) Group I: It is the intent to avoid so far as possible the placement of contracts in Group I areas. The only contracts which may be placed there are those (i) for which established special facilities exist and for which labor has been specially trained; or (ii) on which the required speed of deliveries cannot otherwise be met; or (iii) which, in the considered judgment of the chief of the supply service concerned or of any person or persons to whom he may delegate his authority, it is impracticable to place

(2) Group II: In these areas there may be placed any contract for the continuation of the production of items of the same character as those already being produced by the contractor for any government department, if no labor is required in addition to that currently employed by such contractor. In addition, any contract may be placed in a Group II area which is of such character that it might properly be placed in a Group I area under the provisions of subparagraph (1).

(3) Group III: In these areas there may be placed any contract (whether representing new or continuation business) which can be completed within six months and which will not require the employment of labor in addition to that normally or currently employed by the contractor. In addition, any contract may be placed in a Group III area which is of such character that it might properly be placed in a Group I or II area under the provisions of subparagraphs (1) and (2).

(4) Exceptions. The restrictions stated in this paragraph do not apply to the placing of contracts-

(i) With firms which either normally or currently employ less than 100 wage earners and will not employ more than their normal number of wage earners or more than 100 wage earners (whichever is less) during the performance of the contract; or

(ii) With firms which are recommended as prime contractors or subcontractors by the Smaller War Plants Division, War Production Board; or (iii) With originating manufacturers for newly developed articles in accordance with § 81.224:

(e) Labor surplus arcas; Group IV labor areas. There are no restrictions from the standpoint of labor supply upon the placement of contracts in Group IV or unclassified areas. Furthermore, the policy of the War Department is to distribute its business so as to utilize as widely as practicable the facilities of concerns located in Group IV, unclassified and Group III areas.

(f) Spreading contracts. policies stated in paragraphs (a) to (e) of this section and § 81.224 have been met, contracts will be placed so as to spread production among as many firms as is reasonable and feasible. In carrying out this policy, consideration will be given in each instance to the following objectives:

(1) Small business. To give as large a proportion of the business as possible to qualified small plants in accordance with the procedure prescribed under

(2) Conserving special abilities. To conserve for the more difficult war production problems, the resources of concerns best able by reason of engineering, managerial and physical resources to handle them, by placing contracts for items which involve relatively simple production problems with concarns, normally the smaller ones, which are less able to handle the more difficult problemo.

(3) Efficiency. To use the minimum quantity of materials and minimum number of man-hours to make the supplics needed.

(4) Keeping needed concerns intact. To keep in operation concerns with experience and managerial or engineering stalls valuable to the war effort.

(5) Flexibility. To use concerns whose operations are most flexible so as to facilitate changes in specifications, quan-titics or rates of production.

(6) Transportation. To conserve transportation facilities by avoiding unnecessary cross hauling of raw, semifinished or finished material from the point of origin to the point of consumption and by avoiding long hauling when such materials are available at a shorter distance.

(1) The application of the (g) Price. principles stated in paragraphs (a)-(f) of this section, will frequently require contracts to be placed with a producer whose costs and prices are higher than those of the lowest bidder. The supply cervices are hereby authorized and directed to pay prices higher than would otherwice be required to the extent that such action is necessary to carry out the foregoing policies. In any case where . application of these policies will require award of the contract to a concern at a price so much higher than other available prices that the procurement officer is uncertain whether the award is justifled, he may request instructions from the chief of the supply service concerned.

(2) When the foregoing policies have been met and selection among available contractors is still possible, contracts will be so placed as to obtain the lowest price for the Government. Moreover, the policy of celecting among available con-tractors on bases other than price does not mean that the price of the contractor selected is unimportant or to be disregarded. On the contrary, as is more fully explained in § 31.231 (b), when the contractor has been selected according to the foregoing principles the supply service must carefully negotiate the contract to insure that the price is fair in the light of the costs and circumstances of the particular producer.

(h) Exceptions. Upon specific request the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, may grant authority to depart from the policies stated in §§ 81.220-81.227. Requests for such authority stating the reasons therefor will be forwarded to the Smaller War Plants Branch, Purchaces Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

§ 81.224 Contracts for newly developed articles. In placing contracts for new articles developed by a manufacturer for War Department use, the following principles will be observed:

(1) In general a substantial proportion of the initial orders for a new article should be placed with the manufacturer who developed it. Enough of the volume should be placed with other qualified producers, however, to develop at least one other experienced source; except in unusual cases this should be a going production order and not a limited quantity educational order.

(2) When the originating manufacturer demands a price for the item substantially higher than the price for which it can be secured elsewhere, or will require substantially more facilities or tools than some other producer in order to get into production, or is already heavily loaded with orders, and the article can readily be made by one or more other producers, the contracts for the article should be placed with such producers. In such cases the originating manufacturer should be fairly paid for his developmental work as such.

§ 81.225 Smaller war plants policy—
(a) Smaller War Plants Act. (1) Public Law 603 (77th Congress, approved Junc 11, 1942) creates the "Smaller War Plants Corporation", authorizes a Deputy Chairman of the War Production Board on Smaller War Plants and gives the Chairman of the War Production Board certain new powers incident to placement of Government contracts with smaller plants.

(2) Section 3 of the Act authorizes the Chairman of the War Production Board to certify small business concerns or groups of such concerns to the Secretary of War with respect to capacity and credit as to a specific Government procurement contract.. The War Department is directed to accept such certification as conclusive and is authorized to place the contract with the concern or group of concerns without requiring the meeting of any other requirements with respect to capacity and credit. The Act recognizes that small plants are frequently unable to produce at as low unit costs as larger plants and that, as a consequence, in order to mobilize the Nation's full productive capacity, it may be necessary for the Government to pay a higher unit price for articles when obtaining them from small plants than it pays to business concerns operating large plants.

(3) The Act also gives the Smaller War Plants Corporation power to enter into prime contracts with the War Department for articles, equipment, supplies or materials, or parts thereof, or work in connection therewith and to subcontract the production of these items to small business concerns. If the Chairman of the War Production Board certifies that the Smaller War Plants Corporation is competent to perform any specific government procurement contract, the contract must be let to it on such terms as the Chairman may specify. The Corporation is also given broad powers of financing.

(4) It is important to note that the Smaller War Plants Division of the War Production Board and the Smaller War Plants Corporation have separate and distinct functions. For convenience, the Smaller War Plants Division of the War Production Board will be referred to in this section simply as the War Production Board.

(b) General policy. (1) The established policy of the War Department is to place prime contracts and subcontracts with small business concerns or groups of such concerns without the necessity for certification by the War Production Board or for the making of contracts by the Smaller War Plants Corporation. To implement this policy, the procedure prescribed in the following paragraphs has been established in order to assist the smaller plants to participate to the greatest possible extent in the war effort.

(2) This procedure is briefly as follows: Under paragraph (c) of this section the Army supply program is reviewed to select products suitable for production by small plants. When actual procurements of suitable products are made, an agreed portion is allotted pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section for placement with small plants recommended by the War Production Board. Then the portion of the business so allotted to small firms is distributed by the contracting officers in accordance with paragraph (e) below. Finally, procedures to facilitate and encourage subcontracting to smaller firms under existing and future prime contracts are prescribed by paragraphs (f) and (g) below.

(3) To carry out this program the War Production Board has assigned a representative to each of the supply services and to each office originating procurement directives, and a Liaison Specialist to each contracting office. The chief of each supply service will also designate a liaison officer for his supply service for each office originating procurement directives, and a Smaller War Plants Contact Officer for each contracting office.

(4) The chief of each supply service will issue definite instructions to contracting officers at all levels in his service to do their utmost to see that all usable productive capacity is brought into the war effort whenever this will increase the volume or speed of production or will aid in clearing present or prospective shortages or bottlenecks.

(5) Unless the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, authorizes a variation therein, the procedure prescribed in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section will be followed with respect to each proposed procurement directive of a supply service, except:

(i) Where secret or confidential items are procured; or

(ii) Where, in the judgment of the chief of the supply service, the urgency resulting from military necessity does not allow time to receive plant recommendations from the War Production Board; but in such cases the War Production Board representative at the originating office will be promptly notified of the item and the circumstances; or

(iii) Where the items involved have been determined in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section to be unsuitable for manufacture by smaller plants.

(c) Selection of products suitable for manufacture by small plants. With the active assistance of the liaison officer designated for this purpose by the chief of the supply service, the War Production Board representative will:

(1) Review with the proper personnel of the supply service the related parts of the Army Supply Program and select from it products suitable for manufacture by plants recommended by the War Production Board.

(2) Ascertain the total quantities of these selected products to be purchased.

(3) Discuss with the proper personnel of the supply service existing plans for the procurement of the selected products.

- (d) Determination of portion of procurements allotted to recommended small plants. (1) With the active assistance of the liaison officer designated for this purpose by the chief of the supply service, the War Production Board representative on small war plants stationed at the office originating procurement directives will:
- (i) Review with the proper personnel of the supply service each proposed procurement directive (with the exceptions stated in paragraph (b) (5) of this section and determine whether the products covered are suitable for manufacture in small plants;
- (ii) Discuss with the proper personnel of the supply service existing plans for the procurement of such products as have been determined to be suitable for small plant manufacture, in order to ascertain whether, in the light of all the circumstances, existing plans provide for placement with small plants of a sufficient proportion of the procurement;

(iii) Reach agreement with the supply service, in cases determined to be appropriate under (i) (ii), on a definite portion of the products covered by the proposed directive, for placement as hereinafter provided with plants recommended by the War Production Board;

(iv) Reach agreement as to the latest date when War Production Board recommendations on geographical allocation of its portion of the proposed procurement will be received by and agreed upon with the supply service. If, however, the recommendation has not been made within the time agreed upon, and military necessity does not permit extension, the supply service may make the determination without the recommendation and issue procurement directives accordingly. (It has been agreed upon with the War Production Board that in making recommendations concerning this geographical distribution, consideration will be given to factors governing the plans of the supply service for the geographical distribution of the procurement as a whole, with a view to avoiding impracticable variations be-tween the geographical distribution of the War Production Board part of the procurement and the remainder. The time which can be reasonably allowed for this recommendation will vary with the urgency of the procurement, and may range from 24 hours to several

(v) Reach agreement as to the latest date when War Production Board plant recommendations will be received by the contracting office in the field. (The time to be allowed for this purpose will be made as long as is reasonable for each procurement, and will be set so that plants recommended by the War Production board will have substantially the same opportunity to bid or negotiate as other firms bidding or negotiating for the procurement.)

(2) Each procurement directive to a contracting office covering items agreed upon under subparagraph (1) will specify (i) the proportion of the total quantity allocated for placement by that office with plants recommended by the War Production Board, and (ii) the agreed date when War Production Board plant recommendations will be received.

(e) Selection of concerns to receive business allotted to small plants. (1) The War Production Board Liaison Specialist at each contracting office is its authorized representative at that office. One of his functions is to maintain contact with that office through its Smaller War Plants Contact Officer, whose duty is to assist the Liaison Specialist and to serve as a source of information for small plants. The War Production Board will advise its Liaison Specialist (i) of each procurement covering items agreed upon, (ii) of the amount set aside for the War Production Board at the contracting office, and (iii) of the agreed date when War Production Board plant recommendations are to be furnished by him to the contracting office.

(2) On receipt of these recommendations, the contracting office will review and discuss them with the Liaison Specialist and will determine which of the plants recommended are suitable, giving consideration to such engineering, financial or other assistance, as will be supplied by the War Production Board in the particular case, as authorized by Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress. If an insufficient number of suitable firms remain, the contracting office, if time permits, will receive further recommendations from the Liaison Specialist. If, however, these recommendations are not received by the agreed date or any extension thereof possible under the circumstances, or if the time does not permit the receipt of recommendations of additional firms, the contracting office

(if possible after consulting with and receiving recommendations from the Liaison Specialist as to any firm then under consideration by the contracting office) may place any remaining quantity of the procurement as it may determine. If urgent military necessity should require the shortening of the time originally agreed upon, the contracting office (upon such notice to and receipt of such recommendations from the Linison Spacialist as circumstances may in its judgment permit) may place any remaining quantity of the procurement as it may determine. The contracting office will be free at any time to make suggestions to the Liaison Specialist of additional suitable small plants for inclusion among the War Production Board plant recommendations.

(3) The contracting office will negotiate with those recommended firms which have been found suitable and will endeavor to place among an appropriate number of them, to be determined by it, the portion of the procurement set aside for the War Production Board. Negotiation and placement with these firms will be governed by the considerations stated in §§ 81.220-81.227 of the procurement regulations. The Liaison Specialist will be given opportunity to make representations to the contracting office in behalf of the recommended firms before decisions are reached on their bids, and will be promptly informed of such decisions when made.

(f) Encouraging subcontracting under existing prime contracts. In order to promote subcontracting to smaller plants under existing contracts, the following procedure will be used:

(1) Examination of existing prime contracts will be made by headquarters of the supply services in cooperation with representatives of the War Production Board to determine the possible extent of additional subcontracting thereunder of products suitable for placement with plants recommended by the War Production Board.

(2) All procurement agencies in the field, in cooperation with War Production Board Liaison Specialists, will ex-peditiously examine contracts with a view to the possibility of further subcontracting. All prime contractors will be advised of the necessity for cooperating in placing all work practicable under existing and proposed contracts with small plants on a subcontracting basis. Orders for new machine tools and equipment will be cancelled whenever the corresponding operations can be handled by subcontracting if production schedules can be maintained.

(3) As indicated by Public Law 603, 77th Congress, it will facilitate the procecution of the war to utilize the facilities of smaller plants by subcontracting work to them wherever practicable. Accordingly, when the chief of a supply service or his duly authorized representative determines that it will accomplish this purpose, he is authorized to enter into and approve supplemental agreements amending or modifying existing contracts to provide for the payment of an increased price to the prime contractor to cover increased costs resulting from additional subcontracting. Any such agreement will be made pursuant to the First War Powers Act, 1941, and may be made without consideration to the Government other than promotion of the policy stated by Public Law 603, 77th Congress, and in this paragraph.

(4) The procedure described in subparagraphs (1) to (3) above will also be applied to subcontracts where it appears to be practicable to get a subcontractor to spread his load among more subcontractors.

(5) The initial discussion with prime contractors and subcontractors relative to subparegraphs (1) to (4) above will be arranged through the War Department contracting agency in the field.

- (g) Encouraging subcontracting under future prime contracts. The chiefs of supply services will facilitate discus-sion with War Production Board reprecentatives as to subcontractors under future prime contracts. Such discussions can be undertaken either in the offices of the supply services in Washington or with the contracting officers in the field.
- (h) Limitations—(1) Standardization. While the War Production Board representatives will be afforded every assistance for the further spreading of work to smaller plants, consistent with the maintenance of required delivery schedules and quality of production, standardization programs on items where a flow of replacement parts is a factor will also be talien into account.
- (2) Preventing abuses. In carrying out the policy of spreading the work to smaller war plants, contracting officers and Liakon Specialists must take precautions to prevent abuse of the pre-ferred position of such plants: For instance, a smaller war plant contractor should not be allowed to subcontract substantially the entire work to a large plant at a lower price and thereby to operate virtually as a contract broker.
- (i) Method of handling disagreements. All matters of policy relating to increased subcontracting and to increased prime contracting with smaller plants will be dealt with for the War Production Board by the Deputy Chairman on Smaller War Plants, and for the War Department by the Smaller War Plants Branch, Pur-chases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. On such matters, con-tact will be between these offices. Any disagreement between representatives of the War Production Board and of the supply services on any of the matters deceribed in paragraphs (b) to (h) of this ecetion will be referred by both parties to these offices for discussion and settle-§ 81,226 Debarred bidders-(a) Persons disqualified. Contracts will not be placed with persons who are on any of the following lists of debarred bidders.

(1) List of bidders debarred from bidding on War Department contracts by reacon of violations of the Walsh-Healey Act (see § 81.916 et seq.).

(2) List of bidders debarred from bidding on War Dapartment contracts by reason of violations of the Davis-Bacon Act (see § 81.910 et seq.).

- (3) War Department confidential list of bidders to whom awards will not be made.
- (4) The proclaimed list of blocked nationals which the Secretary of State from time to time publishes listing persons and organizations deemed to be acting directly or indirectly for the benefit of the enemy (see § 81.1102).
- (b) Distribution of lists. The Adjutant General will distribute to the supply services lists of bidders debarred by the Comptroller General by reason of violations of the Walsh-Healey Act or the Davis-Bacon Act and copies of the War Department confidential list of debarred bidders. Copies of the proclaimed list of blocked nationals will also be made available to the chiefs of the supply services.
- (c) Procedures for placing bidders on confidential list—(1) Authority. The Adjutant General will place a bidder upon the confidential list of bidders to whom awards will not be made (i) where the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, determines that the bidder has been guilty of fraud or attempted fraud against the United States, or (ii) for the duration of the present war, in any instance where the Director, Purchases Division, determines that the best interests of the United States require that contracts be not awarded to the bidder. In recommending that a bidder's name be placed on the list, the chief of a supply service will submit to the Director, Purchases Division, a full report of the specific instances of the bidder's alleged dereliction together with any available evidence relating to the contract concerned and the complaint against the bidder.
- (2) Notice. If such action has not already been taken, the Director, Purchases Division, will send to the bidder by registered mail, a notice stating (i) that a recommendation has been made that the bidder's name be placed on the War Department's confidential list of bidders to whom awards will not be made, (ii) the specific contract, bid, or action of the bidder as to which complaint is made, and the specific nature of the complaint in reasonable detail, and (iii) that the bidder may make a statement in writing with respect to the complaint on or before a date fixed in the notice. The bidder will not be given access to any evidence in the hands of the War Department, except in the notice and statement required by this paragraph (2).
- (3) Direction. The Director may make such investigations and study of the complaint, either directly or through the Judge Advocate General or Inspector General, as he deems proper. If the Director determines that the bidder's name should be placed on the confidential list, he will transmit to the Adjutant General (i) the complete file, including any statement filed by the bidder, together with the direction to place the bidder's name on this list, and (ii) drafts of notices of the action taken to be sent by the Adjutant General to the bidder, the supply services and the Comptroller General.

- § 81.227 Factors governing revision of existing supply contracts. (a) In connection with adjustments of supply contracts growing out of changes in the Army Supply Program, in each instance consideration will be given to the factors comprehended by the broad headings below:
  - (1) Minimum use of material.
  - (2) Minimum man-hours.
  - (3) Status of facilities.(4) Labor supply area.
- (5) Flexibility for revisions—shift operations one form of flexibility.
  - (6) Extent of subcontracting.
  - (7) Strategic considerations.
  - (8) Comparative costs.
  - (9) Engineering background.
- (10) Horizontal adjustment.
- (11) Effect on manufacturer and subcontractors involved.
- (12) Use of facility for other war work.
  (13) Effect on transportation—minimum of cross-haul.
- (b) Where adjustments in any program are indicated, particular weight should be given to continuing in operation those facilities employing the minimum amount of material and the minimum number of man-hours to complete like components and like end-products. These considerations alone should not control; each of the other items enumerated should be taken into account, so that the final result reflects evaluation of all factors enumerated.
- (c) Where existing facilities are adequate to eare for the program projected, consideration should be given to immediate cancellation of incomplete facilities, including machine tools, jigs and fixtures. In individual cases it may be sound procedure to plan on completing specific facilities even though existing facilities are in balance with current estimates of requirements.
- (d) In cutting back facilities, with the background of changing requirements growing out of demands of war, and in the interest of flexibility, consideration should be given in each instance to the desirability of partial multiple shift operations in all or certain plants, in contrast with full shift operations in some plants, to avoid possible resultant abandonment of facilities which would not be otherwise used to good advantage in the war effort.
- (e) In cutting back facilities, firms which employ 100 wage-earners or less, or which were recommended as prime or subcontractors by the Smaller War Plants Division of the War Production Board, shall be given preferred consideration, if reasonably efficient in their operations.

CONTRACT PRICE POLICIES

- § $1.230 Basic objectives. Policies regarding contract prices have three main objectives: to maintain incentives for efficiency reductions in costs and maximum production; to obtain fair prices and prevent excessive profits; and to contribute to the control of inflation.
- (a) Incentives. Increasing shortages in materials and manpower imperatively require that all producers be encouraged to operate at their highest attainable efficiency with the minimum waste or misuse of materials and labor, if maximum production of war equipment is to be reached and maintained. Increased efficiency, improved methods, and lower costs mean better use of available resources and savings in labor, materials and facilities and can be encouraged by making profits depend on efficiency. This requires careful purchasing and contracting to keep prices close enough to costs so that producers must exercise careful management and ingenuity to increase production and decrease costs in order to earn a reasonable profit.

(b) Profit control. In spending public money the War Department has the duty to see that its purchases are made at fair prices. In addition, by section 403 of Public 528, approved April 28, 1943, and amended October 21, 1942, the War Department is directly charged with the responsibility for preventing and eliminating excessive profits on its contracts and on subcontracts thereunder. In many cases, skillful and careful negotiation of contracts will prevent excessive profits from accruing and make their re-negotiation unnecessary.

(c) Inflation. For many types of military commodities ordinary methods of price control by maximum price regulations, formulas and cellings become extremely complex and difficult to administer, and divide procurement responsibilty. At the request of the War and Navy Departments the Office of Price Administration has agreed to refrain from further extending its price control over strictly military items, and in return the War and Navy Departments have undertaken the responsibility for maintaining control of prices in this limited exempted area. (See § 81.1131 (c).)

§ 81.231 General policy—(a) Sound pricing. The three objectives stated in § 81.230 are all closely related and must be handled accordingly. In order to promote efficiency and prevent inflation, it is vitally necessary to obtain sound contract prices reasonably close to costs, since recapture of profits for past periods on renegotiation will not operate to control costs or inflationary tendencies. This requires effective purchasing and price supervision to obtain well-negotiated original contracts. The chief of each supply service will see that this policy is implemented and followed in his service. This will require the use of appropriate contracts and contract provisions (discussed in §§ 81.230-81.238), adequate methods of negotiation (discussed in §§ 81.240-81.248) and effective price supervisión (discussed in §§ 81.250-81.256)

(b) Relation to contract placement policies. This basic policy of emphasizing the price element in negotiating contracts, stated in the preceding paragraph, is not inconsistent with the relatively minor importance of price in selecting contractors, stated in § 81.223 (g). The selection of a contractor for a particular contract from among the qualified producers is based primarily on policies regarding speed and quality in performance and efficient use of manpower, materials and facilities. (See § 81,223 (a)-(g)). In making this choice among producers the price of a particular producer as compared to other available producers is considered as less important than these other policies. When these other policies are satisfied by several producers, however, choice is based on comparative price. Moreover, the price to be fixed in the contract with the producer selected on these bases is vitally important. The fact that the war program requires that contractors be selected on bases other than comparative prices, makes it especially necessary to have sound methods of negotiation and price supervision to ensure that the contract prices agreed upon with such contractors will be close enough to their costs to encourage efficient operations, to prevent excessive profits and to restrain inflationary influences.

§ 81.232 Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts—(a) Disadvantages. Fixed-fee contracts have the following disadvantages:

(1) The fixed-fee contract does not encourage efficiency to the same extent as the well-negotiated fixed price contract. While the fixed-fee contractor is obligated to perform in an efficient manner, he does not have the same direct financial inducement to economize in the use of materials, machinery or manpower, or to keep down material and labor costs, or to use ingenuity and inventiveness in finding substitutes and improvements.

(2) Such contracts require uneconomical use of executive, auditing and administrative personnel, both by the Government and the contractor, in checking and rechecking vouchers, in auditing and allocating costs and in adjusting accounting questions.

(3) The financial pressures which restrain a fixed price contractor in competing for labor and accumulating inventories do not apply to the same extent to the fixed-fee contractor.

(b) Use discouraged. For the foregoing reasons supply contracts will be made on a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis only if no practicable alternative exists. Difficulties in estimating costs with reasonable accuracy because of possible future fluctuations in material or labor costs should not be regarded as an adequate reason for using this type of contract. Even the unfamiliarity of the contractor with the manufacturing process involved, as in the case of new, experimental or developmental articles, does not necessarily justify the use of the fixed-fee contract. For instance, the experience of other manufacturers may often provide sufficient basis for estimating costs and fixing the price, or a fixed price contract may be used with provision for redetermination or for upward or downward price revision, as soon as costs become known and reasonably stable.

(c) Conditions on use. In the exceptional cases where the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee form is used for a supply contract the following conditions will be met:

 When the contractor is to be reimbursed for substantially all its costs, the fixed fee represents essentially profit without risk. It should be determined not by the amount of the estimated cost, but by the extent and nature of the work supervised or the services to be performed by the contractor. Thus in fixing the fee consideration should be given, among other things, to whether the work or production involved is complicated or simple, the turnover slow or rapid, how much or little of the work will be subcontracted, and how extensive or difficult the duties of the prime contractor will be in supervising the subcontracted work.

(2) Whenever feasible, the contract will include a provision for conversion of the contract as soon as practicable to a fixed price basis related to the costs during the early part of the contract. (See § 81.1225.)

(3) If conversion to a fixed price basis is not feasible, consideration will be given to inclusion of a provision for upward or downward adjustments in the fce based on efficiency after a test period. (See § 81,1226.)

(4) The article for statutory renegotiation of the fixed-fee will be included in accordance with § 31.1203 (b).

(5) In no case will the fixed-fee exceed the statutory maximum of 7% for supply contracts.

(d) Construction contracts. Whenever feasible, construction contracts will be made on a fixed price rather than a fixed-fee basis.

(e) Existing contracts. Whenever feasible, existing fixed-fee contracts will be amended to convert them or provide for converting them to a fixed price basis as soon as practicable.

§ 81.233 Fixed price contracts—(a) Advantages. The ordinary fixed price contract without provisions for adjustment gives a contractor maximum incentives for efficiency if the original price is well negotiated. It is generally cultable for contracts of reasonable duration for standard articles made by an experienced producer. It should be used wherever conditions permit.

(b) Limitations. Under war conditions, however, the ordinary fixed price contract is not practicable for certain types of cases:

(1) When the articles required are new, experimental or developmental, or unfamiliar to the contractor, the lack of cost experience may prevent the setting of a fair price when the contract is made.

(2) Even where cost experience exists, shortages of materials, priorities and allocations and changes in the quantities and rates of delivery may seriously affect the costs during performance of the contract.

(c) Adaptation to war conditions. To meet these and other situations and to facilitate the used of the fixed price contract, various provisions and policies have been developed including the following:

(1) Termination articles.

(2) Financing provisions.

(3) Price adjustment based on production experience.

(4) Provisions to assume specific risks and for short-term pricing.

(5) Periodic adjustment of price and exemption from rengotiation.

(6) Adjustments and relief, without contract providens, under the First War Powers Act.

These provisions and policies are intended to adapt the fixed price contract to war conditions, to minimize the risks of the contractor from unpredictable contingencies, and to facilitate obtaining contract prices close to costs. To the extent that the risks of unpredictable contingencies are reduced, the contractor does not need reserves or allowances against them in his price.

§ 81.234 Termination article. The risk of loss from termination of the contract, either for a change in the procurement program or upon cessation of hostilities, would deter contractors from making fixed price contracts or would require large allowances in the price to protect against this risk. The termination article is designed to remove this rish of loss by guaranteeing the contractor payment for all proper expenditures and costs in connection with the contract and an appropriate allowance for profit on the unfinished work in process, and by providing for expeditious settlement and payment of the amounts due. (See § 01.324.) These provisions reduce to the minimum any hardships on contractors resulting from necessary adjustments and reductions in the supply program.

§ 81.235 Financing provisions. Lack of working capital or difficulties of financing would discourage contractors from undertaking fixed price contracts and necessitate the use of cost-plus-afixed-fce contracts. To overcome this, the War Department has arranged various methods of assisting contractors and subcontractors in financing war buciness. Three of these are (a) partial payments, (b) advance payments, and (c) guaranteed loans. The principles and purposes governing the use of these financing methods are discussed in §§ 01.319-01.321, 81.330, and 81.331. Other arrangements have been provided to assist with the financing and construction of plant facilities expansion. These are discussed in §§ 81.1001-81.1019. Finally, the right to assign government contracts as security for financing is dealt with in § 81.3183.

§ 81.236 Price adjustment provisions-(a) Price adjustment based on production experience. To adapt the fixed price contract to cases where the lack of experience with production of a new or unfamiliar article makes dependable estimates of costs and prices impracticable, ceveral types of clauses have been developed to permit the fixing of a tentative price with provision for adjusting or fixing the price after part performance has supplied the necessary cost data. These clauses, discussed in §§ 01.1220-81.1226 make the use of the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract unnecessary in such situations. For cases where the fixed-fee contract cannot be avoided. clauses are provided for converting it to a fixed price basis after part performance or for relating the fee to efficiency in production in order to minimize the disadvantages of this form of contract. (See §§ 81.1220-81.1226.)

(b) Provisions against specific risks. Normally contractors attempt to protect themselves against risks which will increase the cost of performance by allowances in their prices. Under war conditions, certain risks affecting the costs of performing war contracts, especially those of long duration, are particularly difficult to predict. If contingency allowances to cover them were permitted, it would make prices unreasonably high and reduce the incentives for efficient operation. Accordingly, it is the policy of the War Department to reduce the necessity for such contingency allowances in fixed price contracts as much as possible by contract provisions assuming certain unpredictable risks not subject to the contractor's con-Various contract articles of this type are discussed in §§ 81.1230-81.1236. In return for the benefits of these provisions, the contractor will be required to eliminate from his price the allowances or reserves which would otherwise be needed to protect against these risks.

(c) Short-term pricing. These uncertainties as to future conditions can also be minimized by fixing prices for limited periods only. For commodities which do not involve a long period of production or planning, this can be done merely by making short-term contracts. Where longer contracts are necessary for production or other reasons, similar benefits can be obtained by providing for revising the price for future deliveries after a reasonable period. Such articles are discussed in §§ 81.1230-81.1236.

(d) Periodic adjustment of price and exemption from renegotiation. The accumulation of more experience and data covering production and costs has made feasible a new type of contract combining (1) periodic adjustment of price at regular intervals during the life of the contract (compare paragraph (c) above) with (2) provision for exemption from renegotiation if the adjusted price is sufficiently low. It is designed to unite maximum incentives for efficient production with adequate control of profits and prices, by giving the contractor firm prices without commitments of too long duration. This type of contract is discussed in §§ 81.1240-81.1247.

§ 81.237 Adjustments without contract provisions. Paralleling the contract provisions for price revision discussed under § 81.236, and necessary to complete the price program, are thel policies regarding price adjustments and other relief under Title II of the First War Powers Act and Executive Order No. 9001 in the absence of contract provisions. Thus where a contractor, who has kept down the contingency allowances in his price, suffers some unexpected risk or event, it may often be equitable and in the interests of the Government for it to adjust the contract price or other terms by supplemental agreement so as to assume some or all of any resulting increases in costs. By granting such relief to contractors in appropriate cases, either with or without consideration, the Government will reduce the necessity for large allowances in prices and encourage greater cooperation by contractors. The application of these policies is discussed in §§ 81.1250–81.1252.

§ 81.238 Policies on certain special items of cost—(a) Amortization. Under section 124 of the Internal Revenue Code, contractors who construct or acquire facilities necessary for the war effort are allowed under certain conditions to amortize the cost of them for tax purposes over a period of sixty months instead of the longer period of normal depreciation. This special tax credit was provided by Congress in order to encourage contractors to provide such facilities from their own funds rather than at Government expense. In view of this purpose, it is essential that in negotiating contracts involving the use of such facilities, the expense of such facilities be not passed on to the Government and that the price be fixed on the basis of only normal depreciation on the facilities and not at the accelerated rate of amortization permitted for tax purposes by section 124. In other words, the contractor may not treat the amortization at the accelerated rate as a cost against war contracts, but must provide for the excess over normal depreciation from his normal profit; this the tax credit greatly facilitates by leaving a larger net profit after taxes available for this purpose. Where the contractor desires the contract price to provide for a larger amount of the cost of such facilities, the Government is in effect paying for the facilities to the extent of the additional amount included in the contract. In such cases the contract must state the amount so included in the price and must contain suitable provisions to protect the interests of the Government in the facilities in accordance with § 81.1007 and following.

(b) Reconversion and storage. (1) In appropriate cases, the cost of converting plants to war production, including the removal of existing equipment and incidental building alterations, may be included in cost and therefore in the contract price and the contract may provide for payment, on termination of production for the Government, of the costs of removing Government-financed machinery and equipment, and of preparing it for storage and shipment.

(2) The Government will not bear either directly or indirectly, however, any part of the cost of reconverting the contractor's plant to commercial production (including installation of privatelyowned machinery and equipment) or the cost of storing such machinery and equipment during the period between conversion and reconversion. policy applies to all types of contracts, whether facilities contracts, cost-plus-afixed-fee contracts or fixed price contracts. It does not, however, prevent giving a contractor, in exceptional cases where fairness so requires, special protection against loss through early termination of the contract in accordance with § 81.324 (e).

§ 81.240 Method of contracting—(a) By negotiation. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, all contracts and purchases made by the War Department will be made by negotiation under authority of the First War Powers Act, 1941, and Executive Order No. 9001, and in accordance with these procurement regulations. While this Act and Executive Order are construed to embody all the authority conferred by sections 1 (a) and (b) of the Act of July 2, 1940 (Public Law No. 703, 76th Congress), as extended, the earlier Act may also be cited as authority for contracting in appropriate cases if desired (see § 81.204 (a)).

(b) By formal advertising. When authorized by the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, contracts may be placed by formal advertising instead of by negotiations if deemed necessary in the interests of the Government,

(c) Aids to negotiation. Sound purchase control requires that the original contract be well negotiated on the basis of reliable cost experience and close estimates. To do this, all available information and aids to negotiation must be used as effectively as possible. This section deals with some of the methods and data which will assist such sound negotiation of contracts.

§ 81.241 Methods of negotiation—(a) General rule. Subject to specific provisions of these regulations, the chief of each supply service may determine the methods of negotiation to be followed by his service. Any method which, in the judgment of the chief of the supply service concerned, will result in the most efficient award of contracts and will protect the interests of the Government, is hereby authorized. Such methods may include not only face to face dealing but also informal written bids or telephone quotations, but the request for any such bids or quotations will clearly indicate that it is made under the authority of the First War Powers Act, 1941.

(b) Decentralization. The chiefs of the supply services will decentralize to their field agencies the actual work of negotiating contracts to the greatest extent consistent with efficiency and proper safeguarding of the public interest.

§ 81.242 Use of informal bids. Where consistent with the required speed of war procurement, notification of the proposed procurement will be given to a reasonable number of qualified producers and suppliers, and quotations secured from them.

§ 81.243 Standard proposal forms—
(a) Use. Where the article is to be specially manufactured according to specifications it is useful to have a standard form for the contractor to use in submitting his proposal. Such standard proposal forms assist in obtaining all of the necessary information from the contractor at the same time and facilitate the comparison and evaluation of proposals from several producers, by insuring a uniform basis of statement.

(b) Contents. Such standard proposal forms should ordinarily require the following types of information—

(1) Separate quotations for the basic (or major) item, essential extra parts and assemblies, initial and extra equipment, and the costs of additional facilities required by the contractor.

(2) Proposed delivery schedule.

- (3) Summary of the approximate number, amount and extent of completion of other outstanding Government contracts.
- (4) Itemized estimate of cost of production with adequate explanation of the basis used for allocating overhead, etc.
- (5) Statement showing the cost experience for the same or similar items under other recent contracts.
- (6) Statement as to labor needs and supply, contemplated hours of work and number of shifts.
- (7) Contemplated method of financing the contract.
- (8) Statement of material to be furnished by the Government and disposition of scrap therefrom.
- (9) Summary of types and extent of subcontracting.
- (10) Requirements for additional equipment and facilities.
- (11) Statement of any optional clauses desired in the contract.
- (12) Statement in detail of taxes included in the price and their estimated amount, and of any taxes to be excluded from the price for which contractor will claim reimbursement or a tax exemption certificate.

To avoid unnecessary duplication of paper work, a contractor should generally not be required to supply information required by subparagraphs (3), (5) and (9) where he has recently submitted the same information or it is otherwise available to the procurement office or its preparation will involve undue difficulty in view of the size of the contract.

(c) Value. The information obtained from the proposal forms will permit the selection of the appropriate contractor in accordance with section II of this regulation and will provide a basis for negotiations with that contractor in accordance with this section.

§ 81.244 Purchase analysis—(a) Price comparison. Comparative prices for similar items compiled in accordance with § 81.251 will be made available to contracting officers for use in negotiating new contracts. The prices offered for new contracts should be carefully compared with previous prices for similar items, making allowance for improved methods, rates of production, type of facilities and other factors. Where proposals are obtained from several producers they should be similarly compared with each other.

(b) Renegotiation information. The chief of each supply service will insure that contracting officers make regular use of studies and other information compiled by the price adjustment and cost analysis sections and useful in negotiating with contractors, such as data on volume of business, the policies regarding overhead and reserves, rates of profit and other material. (See § 81.252.)

(c) Cost analysis. When the prices or

(c) Cost analysis. When the prices or cost estimates submitted by a producer are out of line with previous experience or other proposals and use of his facilities is necessary or desirable in accordance with the policies stated in §§ 01.220–81.227 of this Regulation, an analysis of the contractor's costs should ordinarily be made in order to find the causes of the higher costs or prices. Likewise where prices or cost estimates of a producer for an unfamiliar item are so low as to indicate mistakes in the estimates, a similar study should be made. Such study and analysis should be limited to the minimum necessary to obtain the required information and should be made with the least possible inconvenience to the producer. (See § 81.253.)

(d) Check lists. Orderly and speedy negotiations are facilitated by the use of standard negotiation check lists. Such forms should be designed to indicate the information to be obtained from the contractor and from other sources and the methods to be used in evaluating this material and in arriving at the final contract terms.

§ 81.245 Special clauses. The contracting officer should consider in each case whether use of any of the various articles for price adjustment discussed in §§ 81.230–81.238 and in §§ 81.1200–81.1291 is desirable. When such articles are used, the contracting officer will satisfy himself that the original price is sufficiently reduced, by eliminating or reducing contingency reserves and by lower profit margins, to justify the Government in agreeing to such adjustment provisions in favor of the contractor.

§ 81.246 Compulsory purchases. Where a fair contract cannot be obtained by voluntary negotiation, it may be necessary to resort to compulsory methods.

(a) Mandatory orders. Under section 9 of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 a mandatory order may be placed with any producer to require him to supply any item of the nature and kind usually produced or readily capable of being produced by him, for a fair and just compensation. While the general use of such orders is not favored, they should be resorted to where necessary after patient negotiations have failed. Thus where a qualified producer refuses to make a contract upon terms which in the opinion of the contracting officer are fair, the chief of the supply service may request the issuance of a mandatory order to the producer. Such requests will be forwarded to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, and will state the reason for the request.

(b) Requisitioning. When needed articles are already in existence, but cannot be bought after reasonable negotiations, they may be obtained by requisition in accordance with §§ 81.1401—81.1428.

§ 81,247 Assistance by Headquarters, Army Service Forces. The Purchases Pricing Methods Branch, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, will assist any service in preparing standard forms for proposals by contractors, evaluation sheets or check lists and other aids to effective negotiation.

§ 81.248 Purchasing by prime contractors—(a) Purchasing methods of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors. Costplus-a-fixed-fee contractors should ordinarily make their subcontracts and purchases by negotiation rather than by formal advertising. In connection with such negotiations, they will obtain informal quotations from qualified suppliers whenever feasible, but evidence of formal competition will not be required in connection with such agreements unless the contracting officer directs otherwise.

PRICE SUPERVISION

§ 81.250 General policy. For the reasons stated in § 81.230, the War Department is responsible for supervising and controlling the prices of all supplies and equipment procured and of the various items and services entering into the costs of these supplies and equipment to insure that such prices are reasonable and not excessive. Sections 31.250-81.256 deal with the parformance of this responsibility by the services.

§ 81.251 Price analysis—(a) Functions. The chief of each supply service will maintain within his service appropriate agencies to perform the following price analysis functions:

(1) To assemble, analyze, interpret and diszeminate price data for all important items procured by the supply cervices and for important component items entering into the costs of such items:

(2) To prepare special price analysis reports for procurement officers; and

(3) To compile and maintain comparative price records and indices for such items and their important components.

(b) Sources of data. In performing their functions, price analysis agencies will make use of the following types of information:

(1) Contract prices for similar items, which will be compiled on a comparable basis with respect to the basic (or major) item, essential extra parts and assemblies, initial and extra equipment, Government furnished equipment and scrap salvage.

(2) Cost estimates and other relevant data from proposals submitted by contractors.

(3) Analyses of the effect of major production and engineering problems on prices and costs.

(4) Prices paid for important subcontracted items. (See § 81.254.)

(5) Breakdowns of costs of subcontractors and sub-subcontractors based on production experience.

(6) Balance sheets and operating statements and similar data for contractors and subcontractors from price adjustment sections and financial services.

(7) Information from other Government agencies such as the Office of Price Administration. (§§ 81.1130–81.1135.)

(8) Where necessary, audits of costs of contractors and subcontractors made by the cost analysis sections.

(c) Use of price data. (1) The price analysis agencies will prepare full analyces and reports on the comparative prices paid for important items and their components, making proper allowance for differences in the size of the contract, in design, local wage scales, type of facilities, contract terms and other factors. These reports will be in a form usable by procurement officers and price adjustment sections and will contain any recommendations for necessary or desirable action by them.

(2) In making or revising contracts, procurement officers will consult with the appropriate price analysis section and make use of all pertinent price analyses and reports then available.

(3) The price analysis agency will cooperate closely with the price adjustment sections and will make available to them price analyses and reports for use in renegotiation. When renegotiation reveals excessive profits the price analysis agency should immediately make studies of the prices of such contractors.

(4) Price records on items procured by the supply service and important components will be kept in such manner as to be readily available for reporting to higher authority or to the Office of Price

Administration as requested.

- (d) Corrective action. When price analysis reveals that the prices of comparable items are out of lien, the procurement officer directly concerned will immediately initiate measures to discover the reasons. The appropriate measures will depend upon the particular situation. The contractor or his important subcontractors may be required to furnish a breakdown of actual costs based on production experience. When these are inadequate, cost audits or spot checks may be undertaken through the cost analysis section, and studies of purchasing methods may be made in accordance with § 81.254. Unless the facts disclose that differences in price are justified by higher costs and by the policies stated in §§ 81.220-81.227 negotiations will be initiated for appropriate adjustments in contract or subcontract prices.
- § 81.252 Profit analysis. The studies, by the price adjustment sections of each supply service, of the overall costs, profits and financial position of contractors and subcontractors provide valuable data to assist contract negotiation, such as information regarding overhead, reserves, profit margins, volume of business and similar matters. The chief of each supply service will make arrangements to insure that such information is made readily available in useful form for procurement officers in conducting negotiations with such contractors and for price analysis agencies in performing their functions.
- § 81.253 Cost analysis—(a) Organization. Each supply service will maintain appropriate agencies to perform cost-analysis functions and to act as fact inding units with respect to costs and profits on its contracts and subcontracts for use in negotiations by contracting officers as well as in renegotiation by price adjustment sections. The chief of each supply service may assign the cost analysis functions to such place in the organization of the service as seems most appropriate to him to permit their effective performance; they need not be placed in the fiscal section of the supply service unless the chief of the service so decides.

- (b) Functions. When a cost analysis study of any contractor is made to prepare reports for the price adjustment section, there will also be made such study as seems appropriate in each case to aid procurement officers in future contract negotiations with the contractor. In addition, whenever price analysis indicates that prices or costs of a particular contractor or subcontractor are out of line and the procurement officer so requests, the cost analysis agency will make necessary studies of any contractor or subcontractor. Such studies will be limited to the extent necessary to obtain the desired information.
- § 81.254 Supervision of subcontracts and purchases—(a) Policy. The Government is vitally interested in the prices of component parts and materials of the items which it procures. The prices for such component articles are reflected in prices under fixed price prime contracts and are directly reimbursed under fixed-fee contracts. If excessive, such prices encourage inefficiency, inflationary expenditures and excessive profits in the same manner as excessive prime contracts prices. Accordingly, the War Department and supply services must also supervise these prices. Because the Government could not attempt to inspect or approve individual purchases under all fixed price and fixed-fee contracts, they must be supervised by more selective methods adapted to varying circumstances.
- (b) Methods of supervising purchases under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. While the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractor is responsible for efficient buying, the lack of direct financial incentives for economy makes it essential to supervise its purchasing with respect to prices, quantities and capacity of suppliers. Experience has shown that detailed prior approval of all purchase orders and subcontracts under fixed-fee supply contracts is less efficient for this purpose than more selective methods. Accordingly the following procedure for supervision will be adopted in the case of supply contracts.
- (1) The purchasing policies and methods of the cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractor should be carefully analyzed to determine their adequacy for sound purchasing. This analysis should ascertain (i) whether prices paid are reasonable; (ii) whether quantities purchased are proper; (iii) whether suppliers and subcontractors are reasonably qualified; (iv) whether the purchasing personnel are well-qualified; and (v) whether purchasing procedures are sound and adequate.
- (2) If the purchasing policies and methods are adequate with respect to prices, quantities and suppliers and are consistently followed, prior approval of subcontracts and purchase orders by the representatives of the contracting officer need not be required, or may be limited to those of substantial amounts, if regular selective checking is maintained instead.

(3) If the purchasing methods are inadequate in any respect, steps should be taken immediately to require the contractor to correct the deficiency, and if necessary, prior approval of subcontracts and purchase orders by the representative of the contracting officer to check on the propriety of the prices and other terms should be required until the deficiency is corrected.

(4) Periodically a report should be prepared with respect to each important contractor, stating the results of the inspection of the purchases and examination during the preceding period tion during the preceding period.

(5) If at any time the chief of a supply service finds that the selective method of supervision is inadequate, he may require such further supervision, including prior approval of purchase orders and subcontracts, as he deems necessary.

- (c) Methods of supervising purchasing by fixed price contractors. (1) In the case of fixed price contracts, the contractor ordinarily has strong incentives to purchase at low prices in order to enhance the profit, but with high excess profits taxes and renegotiation, this incentive can be fully maintained only by keeping the prices under prime contracts close to minimum costs. For this purpose procurement officers must have adequate information on what component parts and materials should cost if well purchased and must know whether the contractor is equipped to obtain the best prices available.
- (2) Price analyses in accordance with § 81.251 will supply necessary information. In that connection, the purchasing policies and methods of important fixed price contractors should be analyzed in the manner described in paragraph (b) of this section. When such analysis or the study of the prices paid by different contractors for important component parts and materials reveals deficiencies, they should be called to the attention of the contractor with recommendations for their correction.
- (d) Personnel. A selective method of control requires the use of well trained and experienced personnel with a knowledge of purchasing methods and industrial costs and prices. Each service should obtain an adequate number of qualified officers or employees to perform these functions.
- § 81.255 Sanctions. Whenever study or analysis reveals that the prices of a contractor or subcontractor are excessive, and he refuses to make appropriate adjustments, the facts should be reported through the chief of the supply service to the Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. In appropriate cases the Director may then authorize action to correct the situation by the use of compulsory orders, renegotiation, or other means.
- § 81.256 Coordination. Each supply service may determine the form of organization necessary to perform the foregoing functions within its service and to obtain their essential coordination and their integration with procurement. Thus, in its discretion, a supply service may combine these functions in a single agency or assign them to several separate agencies. Because these various price functions are so closely related, however, it is recommended that even where they are performed by several agencies in any service, all of them should be coordinated and integrated under a single head. Such an agency should supervise within the service all functions relating to contract clearance, negotiation aids, price analysis and supervision, liaison with the Office of Price Administration, renegotiation and price adjustment, and price research. This policy has been followed in Headquarters, Army Service Forces, by the creation within the Purchases Division of an Assistant Director for Price responsible for supervising all of these functions. Creation of a similar agency in each service will facilitate coordination and cooperation between Headquarters and the services.

PURCHASE ACTION REPORTS

§ 81.291 General—(a) Statistics and Progress Branch. Under General Orders No. 14, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, dated June 12, 1942, the Statistics and Progress Branch, Control Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, was established. This branch is responsible for supervision, preparation and submission of all purchase reports required by law to be submitted by the War Department to The Congress, as well as to other Federal agencies, authorized to receive such reports. Effective July 1, 1942, it will be the responsibility of every station to make reports of purchase actions as dutlined in the succeeding paragraphs. The reports will cover all negotiated purchase actions in excess of $10,000 for all types and kinds of things and services, supply contracts (including purchase actions for engineering or architectural services, maintenance of real estate and procurement of abstracts of titles) and purchase actions for the acquisition and leasing of real estate; also purchase actions for construction services, contracts with Defense Plant Corporation and purchase actions for utilities.

(b) Reports required to be filed. The reports required to be filed are those specified in §§ 81.293 and 81.294. As indicated in paragraph (e) (3) of this section, reports submitted by stations under the jurisdiction of the Special Services, Army Service Forces and the Administrative Services, Army Service Forces, are required to be transmitted to the Statistics and Progress Branch. In the case of reports submitted by stations under the jurisdiction of the chiefs of the supply services and the commanding generals of the service commands (including the Commanding General of the Military District of Washington), such reports are not, as indicated by paragraph (e) (4) of this section, required to be transmitted to the Statistics and Progress Branch. Instead, recapitulations of such reports are required to be filed with that Branch (see § 81.292). In any case where supplementary information is required for operating purposes of a service, the chief of that service may direct supplementary data to be submitted to

- (c) Service required to prepare origi-nal reports. When reallocation or sub-allotment of funds is involved, the post, camp or station to which funds are assigned is responsible for making the reports required to be filed under §§ 81.293 and 81.294.
- (d) Signing of reports. Reports will be signed by the Officer in Charge. At procurement stations on the exempted list, it will be the Commanding Officer; at posts, camps, or stations on the nonexempted list, it will be the supply officer in charge of procurement covered by the report.
- (e) Procedure for forwarding reports—(1) Time. The reports will be forwarded by each station to the chief of its respective service. The reports required to be filed under § 81,293 should be forwarded so as to be received by the fifth calendar day following the purchase action; those required to be filed under § 81.294, should be forwarded so as to be received by the fifth calendar day following the close of the month.
- (2) Number of copies. Two copies will be prepared by the station originating the purchase. The original signed copy will be forwarded as indicated in subparagraphs (3) and (4) below. The carbon copy will be retained for reference by the station preparing the report as indicated in subparagraph (6) of § 81.293 (a). This subparagraph will become effective May 1, 1943.
- (3) Reports by exempted and non-exempted stations. Reports (both individual action reports and monthly summary reports) will be submitted to the chiefs of the various supply services (including the Commanding General, Materiel Command, Army Air Forces) and to the Commanding Generals of the Service Commands (including the Commanding General, Military District of Washington). Copies of these reports will be submitted to one of these locations. Only those relating to contracts which have been numbered as service command contracts in accordance with § 81.318b (e) will be submitted to the Commanding Generals of the service commands; and those numbered as supply serivce contracts in accordance with § 81.309 (b) will be forwarded to the chiefs of the supply service concerned. This will apply to all types of installations whether Class I, II, III or IV. Separate summary reports will be submitted to the Commanding General of the service command and to each of the supply services concerned.
- (4) Transmission of reports by Special Services and Administrative Services. In the case of reports submitted by stations under the jurisdiction of the Special Services, Army Service Forces and the Administrative Services, Army Service Forces, one copy of each report forwarded will be retained by the office of the chief of the service involved and the original will be forwarded from said office to the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, attention, Statistics and Progress Branch, Control Division. The reports required to be filed under § 31.233 should be forwarded so as to be received by the fifth calendar day following the purchase action; the reports required to be filed pursuant to § 81.294 should be forwarded so as to be received by the eighth calendar day following the close of the month. The chiefs of Special Services and Administrative Services will be responsible for complete, accurate and proper submission of reports from stations under their respective jurisdiction.

(f) Reports not to be duplicated. When a "final type" contract is executed covering a previously reported purchase action, no additional Purchase Action Report will be filed. Likewise, a purchase order is to be reported only when it is the original purchase action on the item in question; and a purchase order is not to be reported when it is an order placed against an existing transaction previously reported as a purchase action.

(g) Matters not to be reported. Pay of individuals' shipping and traveling expenses, etc., are not to be included in the reports required to be filed under $\ 81.293 and 81.294. The items involved in this category are stated in War Department Circular No. 206, 1942. This paragraph refers only to individuals on a War Department payroll.

(h) Definitions—(1) Purchase action. A purchase action is any transaction (including all types of awards) obligating government funds. A transaction, in this case, includes transactions with any individual, firm, corporation, or covernmental agency outside of the jurisdiction of the War Department. The execution of a preliminary contractual agreement is to be regarded as a purchase action unless the undertaking contained therein is conditioned upon funds becoming available, and hence does not obligate government funds (see for example, the letter of intent which was the subject of the decision of the Comptroller General issued under date of December 22, 1941; G-21673).

(2) Service. Notwithstanding the pro-visions of § 81.108 (d), the term "service" as used in §§ 81.291-81.294 including all supply services, Army Service Forces; the Materiel Command, Army Air Forces; all service commands, Army Service Forces (including the Military Forces; the Materiel Command, Army District of Washington); Special Services, Army Service Forces; and Administrative Services, Army Service Forces, with the exception of the Army Exchange Service.

(3) Preliminary contractual agreements. The term "preliminary contractual agreements" as used in §§ 81.291-81.294 refers to all written agreements which do not obligate War Department funds to the full amount which it is anticipated will finally be obligated (see W. D. Contract Form No. 7, § 81.1307, as one type of such agreement). Such agreement becomes final when the total estimated amount has been fully obligated or a final definitive contract has been executed.

§ 81.292 Responsibility of the chiefs of the supply services and the commanding generals of the service commands. The chiefs of the supply services (including the Commanding General, Matériel Command, Army Air Forces) and the commanding generals of the service commands (including the Commanding General, Military District of Washington) are charged with the following responsibilities:

(a) Responsibility for assuring that all reports required by this Procurement Regulation No. 2, are prepared by the stations under their jurisdiction and are forwarded to them in accordance with § 81.291 (e). This responsibility includes

(1) Responsibility for ascertaining that purchase action reports are received for all actions entered into, as controlled by the serial number system;

(2) Responsibility for checking by contract number to assure that duplicate reports are not received including the checking of notices and cancellations;

(3) Responsibility for reconciling individual purchase action reports submitted by each station with the monthly reports submitted by such station.

(b) Responsibility for the preparation, typing, checking, and distribution of the daily report on procurement (daily log). The Statistics and Progress Branch, Control Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, will advise as to the form and distribution of this report.

(c) Responsibility for the preparation of individual strips for all purchase actions in excess of $150,000. From these strips arranged in alphabetical order, pages will be made up for a quarterly report. These pages will be submitted to the Statistics and Progress Branch for reproduction and final compilation of the report required to be filed with Congress pursuant to Public Law 528, 77th Congress. That Branch will advise as to the form and time schedule of these strips.

(d) Responsibility for submitting to the Statistics and Progress Branch, Control Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, recapitulations of the monthly summaries submitted by the stations under their jurisdiction as well as recapitulations of the individual purchase action reports submitted by such stations. The Statistics and Progress Branch will advise as to the time schedule and form of these recapitulations.

(e) Responsibility for obtaining detailed information on specific transactions when the same is deemed necessary.

(f) Responsibility for the reproduction of the original signed purchase action report and for forwarding four copies to the Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., attention Wages and Hours Division. The transmittal of such copies will relieve the contracting officers of filing the present Department of Labor Form P. C. 1. This will become effective with reports received May 1, 1943, and thereafter. As many additional copies may be reproduced as directed by the chief, of the service concerned.

(g) The Statistics and Progress Branch, Control Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, retains, despite the decentralization of some of the operating functions, full authority pertaining to the purchase action reporting requirements of these regulations.

§ 81.293 Reports of purchase actions exceeding $10,000. A report of every original purchase action which exceeds $10,000 (actual or estimated) in amount will be made on an 8" x 101/2" sheet and forwarded through the offices of the chiefs of the various services in accordance with the time schedule (the fifth calendar day following the purchase action) and procedure stated in § 81.291 (e). Reports should be made on the form set forth below:

(a) Explanation of report form for purchase actions exceeding $10,000. The following notes apply to the report form set forth in above. It will be noted that the report form contains cross references to these notes.

(1) Each station will begin with serial No. 1 for the new fiscal year and continue in exact sequence (based on the date of award as established in subparagraph (6) of this paragraph) to the end of the fiscal year. Purchase action reports made in the new fiscal year for awards made in the previous fiscal year should have a serial number in the series of the previous fiscal year.

(2) This note has been deleted.

(3) Include name of station, location and station number.

(4) Name and address of contractor. If more than one, list each one as a split award on separate purchase action reports.

(5) Name and location of establishment or plant or location where work will be performed. If more than one, list each one. If this is same as contractor, so indicate.

(6) Under the headings "Station", "Supply Service" and "Number" indicate the contract (purchase action) number in accordance with the system specified in § 81.309 (b) or § 81.318 (e) of these procurement regulations. When purprocurement regulations. chase orders are required to be reported (see § 81.291 (f), the number thereof will be shown under this item of the form. The date shown will be the date shown on the original agreement as established by the transmission of the document from the contracting officer to the contractor. It will be the date of the award of the agreement and not necessarily the date of the acceptance. In the event that a preliminary agreement (as defined in subparagraph (3) of § 81.291 (h) is first executed and is subsequently superseded by a definitive agreement, tho date shown will be the date of the preliminary agreement and not the date of the definitive agreement. If a purchase order is the original purchase action (see § 81.291 (f)), use the Symbol P. O. and its serial number rather than the contract number. If the purchase order was issued by a service command, the service command symbol indication will be shown following the serial number in parenthesis.

(7) Indicate whether lump sum, unit price, cost-plus-a-fixed-fee, etc. If the transaction being reported is evidenced by a preliminary agreement (as defined in subparagraph (3) of § 81.291 (h)) indicate also by word "preliminary".

(8) For construction, this means work to begin, etc. For real estate, this means date of possession. The starting date may be the same as the completion date; and the starting date or both the starting date and completion date may be the same as the date of award. Where dates are dependent upon receipt of material estimated dates are permissible but will be so indicated.

(9) Complete description of product, service, facilities, project or property. Long lists of items attached to Purchase Action Reports are not required for centralized reporting unless specifically directed by the chief of the service responsible for procurement of the item involved. Where assorted items of like nature are reported, indicate group headings such as: various engine parts, various knit clothing, etc. If item or service is classified state description but so label whole report, and transmit according to regulations, covering classified information. If the purchase transaction being reported is the execution of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract, indicate the full estimated cost (not including the fixed-fee) in the description column. If the purchase transaction being reported is evidenced by a preliminary agreement under which the Government only obligates itself for a percentage of the anticipated total contract price, the anticipated full contract price should be shown under the heading "Description of Item".

(10) For the preference rating, the WPB priority rating (AAA, AA-1, A-1-a, AA-2x, etc.) will be shown. It is anticipated that sometime in the future, the use of the Federal Standard Stock Catalog number will be required as the identification symbol.

(11) Number of units, unit cost and total cost. If cost is estimated, write "estimated" after amount. For purchase actions involving architect-engineer or similar services, only indicate as the total cost, the amount payable to the individual contractor and chargeable against a War Department appropriation. This applies primarily to cost-plusa-fixed-fee contracts. If on such a contract the contractor has, besides the architect-engineer, management, or similar fee, a portion or all of the work to perform, each fee will be separately shown from the other items. The total obligated amount will also be shown for this purchase action. In cases where land acquisition, plant expansion, tool expansion and supply items are involved on a single purchase action, a distribution by these groups and a total cost will be shown. If the purchase action is a preliminary contractual agreement, (see subparagraph (3) of § 81.291 (h)), the amount for which the War Department is obligated will be shown as the total cost. In cases where a varied group of items are shown in the description section of the report and not detailed, indicate various unit prices in the same manner. Indicate this assortment either as a price range, i. e., $4.37 to $4.69 ea., or show the word "various" for a wide range of unit prices such as on tools. In all cases a total cost (actual or estimated) will be shown. This includes purchase actions for utilities or other "open-end" contracts.

(12) State when an escalator clause is included in the contract and whether such clause is for labor, materials or

(13) Reporting provisions of the Walsh-Healey Act (Act of June 30, 1936; 41 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. 35-45) will, after May 1, 1943, be fulfilled by the submission of the report called for under § 81.293. If any provision of that Act is applicable to the purchase action, the box should be checked as indicated. If the purchase action comes under any provision of the Act, the industry involved should be indicated on the second line of this item. On the third line there should be indicated the date on which the poster (P.C. 13) was sent to the contractor and to the plant locations.

(14) Where total value of purchase action is in excess of $150,000.00 additional data is required as shown on form (§ 81.293).

(b) Reports of increased purchase actions not originally reported. When a purchase action, which originally was not reported because it involved a total cost of not more than $10,000 is increased to an amount in excess of $10,000, a Purchase Action Report will be made on the form set forth in § 81.293 showing the new net value of the purchase action and the date on which the agreement exceeded $10,000. See § 81.294 (a) for method of treating such purchase actions in monthly summary reports.

(c) Cancellation and supplemental reports. (1) A purchase action report form will be used to report cancellation and supplemental actions as stated below. This form will be identical with the form shown in § 81.293, except that the words "Net Change" will be substituted for "Total Cost", and will be prepared on blue stock. Such report will be submitted for each change within the time schedule (5 calendar days after the action) and in accordance with the procedure stated in § 81.291 (e). This report will contain the same serial number as the original purchase action report followed by a letter of the alphabet in parentheses; the first such change using the letter (a); the second (b); etc.

(2) If a purchase action report has been submitted under § 81.293 and § 81.293 (b) and subsequently canceled, completely canceling the value of the purchase action, the action will be re-

(3) In case a previously reported individual purchase action has been decreased so that the net value is below $10,000, a blue report will be submitted showing a net change figure equal to the previously reported figures, not merely the amount of the decrease. For this regulation, changes of this type will be considered as a cancellation because only purchase actions having a net value in excess of $10,000 are reportable. Cancellations that do not reduce the contract price to $10,000 or less will not be reported as cancellations even though the quantity may have been reduced to zero.

(4) Changes (increase or decrease) of a previously reported purchase action will be reported as above when the change is in excess of $1,000. Changes resulting from renegotiation will be included. The report will be on the basis of the net increase or decrease (state which) and not the revised total cost of the purchase action.

(5) Changes (increase or decrease) of $1,000 or less on purchase actions previously reported, which had a value in excess of $10,000, will not be reported in the above manner. A summary of such smaller changes (including changes resulting from renegotiation) will be included in report required under $81,294. The net change figure reported for cancellations, as stated above, will include any of these smaller changes applying to the purchase action being canceled.

(6) In the case of an "open end contract", the original purchase action report will have indicated the estimated quantity and value as of the award date. Any changes during the life of the award will be submitted as indicated above. As of the termination date, an additional report will be submitted adjusting any unreported quantity and value (whether it be an increase or decrease).

§ 81.294 Monthly summary of pur-chase actions. A summary of all purchase actions will be rendered for each calendar month as of the last day thereof and submitted on an 8" x 101/2" sheet through the offices of the chiefs of the various services in accordance with the time schedule (5 calendar days after close of the month) and procedure stated in § 81.291 (e) (on the basis of net obligations undertaken during the month and not appropriations authorized). The form set forth below will be used for all reports submitted following the submission of the reports covering the month of April 1943. Accordingly the reports submitted in June covering purchase actions in May and any unreported activity for previous months will be on the new form. (1) Station ____ (2) Date of

CONTRACTS

GENERAL

Subparagraphs (3) and (4) of § 81.302 (c) are amended as follows:

§ 81.302 Definitions. * *

(c) Contracting officer. * * *

(3) Representatives may be designated as follows:

(i) The chief of a supply service may designate any officer or civilian official to act as representative of the contracting officer or his duly appointed successor;

(ii) A commanding officer may designate any contracting officer assigned to his command or station to act as representative of any other contracting officer assigned to the same command or station, or of a contracting officer's duly appointed successor so assigned;

(iii) A contracting officer, his duly appointed successor, and any representative designated pursuant to (i) or (ii) of this subparagraph (3), may respectively designate any officers or civilian officials to act as their representatives.

(4) A designation authorized by subparagraph (3) may be made by instructions relating to particular contractual instruments or classes of instruments, and may, to the extent not specifically prohibited by the terms of the contractual instrument involved, empower the representative to take any or all action thereunder which could lawfully be taken by the contracting officer. In no event, however, shall a representative who is not a contracting officer, as defined in subparagraph (1), be empowered to execute any contract or supplemental agreement (as distinguished from change order).

Section 81.303 is amended as follows:

§ 81.303 General requirements for contracts. Every purchase transaction except those where payment is made coincidentally with receipt of supplies will be evidenced by a written contract.

(a) Types of contracts. Contracts may be either formal or informal.

(b) Formal contracts; when required. A formal contract is one which is contained in one instrument executed by both parties. Formal contracts may be used for any purchase transaction and will be used for all purchase transactions other than those for which informal contracts are authorized by paragraph (c) below.

(c) Informal contracts; when permitted. Informal contracts are of two types:

(1) An informal contract consisting of a written instrument signed by the contracting officer on behalf of the United States, and not by the contractor. This type of informal contract may be used for any of the following purchase transactions:

(i) Any transaction the contract price of which does not exceed $5,000.

(ii) Any transaction the contract price of which exceeds $5,000 but does not exceed $100,000: Provided, That not more than one payment is involved: And provided That the time of performance does not exceed 180 days.

(iii) Any transaction made at public auction at a produce exchange or under similar conditions.

(2) An informal contract embodied in more than one instrument. At least one instrument is signed by the contracting officer on behalf of the United States and at least one other instrument is signed by or on behalf of the contractor. This type of informal contract may be used for any of the following purchase transactions:

(i) Any transaction the contract price of which does not exceed $5,000.

(ii) Any transaction the contract price of which exceeds $5,000 but does not exceed $500,000, provided that the time of performance does not exceed 180 days.

Section 81.305 is amended as follows:

§ 81.305 Making and approval of awards of contracts, supplemental agreements and change orders.

(b) Awards requiring the approval of Director, Purchases Division. (1) The award of all contracts, supplemental agreements and change orders other than those specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) of this section must be submitted for approval to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

(2) If it is desired to execute a preliminary contract, as defined below, with a particular contractor, and the choice of contractor presents no real alternative, it shall not be necessary to obtain any approval pursuant to subparagraph (1) above. Such approval will, however, be obtained prior to the execution of the final definitive agreement, if required by subparagraph (1). The term 'preliminary contract", as used in this subparagraph (2), refers to any type of tentative agreement (as, for example, a letter purchase order of the type set forth in § 81.1307) which, it is contemplated, will be subsequently superseded by a final definitive agreement which will obligate War Department funds in an estimated amount at least twice the amount obligated by the tentative agree-

Section 81.308b is amended as follows:

§ 81.308b Correction of mistakes. Effecting amendment of contracts with the least possible delay to correct misunderstanding, mistakes, errors, and ambiguities will facilitate the prosecution of the war by expediting the procurement program and by giving contractors proper assurance that mistakes unavoidable in a war program as large and extensive as that now ir progress, will be corrected expeditiously and fairly. Accordingly, mistakes may be corrected by supplemental agreement pursuant to Title II of the First War Powers Act, 1941, and Executive Order No. 9001, as follows:

(a) Each chief of a supply service may, within the time prescribed by § 81.308f, enter into supplemental agreements correcting mistakes found by the chief of the supply service to be of the following types: (1) misunderstandings, mistakes, errors of the parties to a written agreement, or ambiguities therein, which consist solely of a failure to express in the written agreement the true agreement between them in accordance with the negotiations between them, or of a mutual mistake as to a material fact: (2) mistakes and errors of a contractor, even if unilateral which consist solely of the failure of the contractor, in good faith, to set forth in a bid or in a written agreement what he intended to include therein: Provided, That notice of the mistake is given by the contractor to the contracting officer at any time before completion of performance or termination of the contract: Provided further, That both as to such mutual mistakes and such unilateral mistakes, the effect of any change by such supplemental agreement to correct any such mistakes does not make an adjustment of $50,000 or more: And provided further, That where such contract was placed as a result of a formal or informal invitation to bid such change shall not result in the payment to the contractor of a sum in excess of the amount of any bid submitted by any other bidder upon sub-stantially the same terms and conditions, except that if the contract was not originally placed on a basis of competition as to price but primarily on the basis of other considerations the imitationcontained in this proviso shall not be

(b) In any other case where the chief of a supply service determines that it will facilitate the prosecution of the war to execute a supplemental agreement to correct a mistake, he will first obtain approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service

(c) Approval of the Director, Purchases Division, will not be required in the case of any supplemental agreement correcting a mistake, under which the Government receives adequate new legal consideration, regardless of whether the supplemental agreement involves an adjustment amounting to $50,000 or more, and regardless of the time of execution of such supplemental agreement.

Requests for approval by the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, of supplemental agreements to correct misunderstandings, mistakes, errors and ambiguities in contracts in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph will be accompanied by a full statement of the circumstances including all relevant papers or copies thereof. The evidence submitted shall show that an error or mistake was made or that a misunderstanding or ambiguity exists, in what it consists, and how it occurred, the true intent of the parties, and the effect of the mistake, if not corrected, upon the financial condition of the contractor. When this paragraph does not require that the approval of the Director. Purchases Division, be obtained, the chief of the supply service approving or executing such agreement will see that a similar statement is prepared with respect to each such supplemental agreement and that such statement and all relevant papers and evidences are carefully preserved. Attention is directed to the provisions of § 81.303g.

Sections 81.308e to 81.308g, inclusive, are added as follows:

§ 81.308e Extension of time for performance. The chief of each supply service may authorize contracting officers designated by him to extend by supplemental agreement within the time prescribed by § 81.308f, the time fixed for performance in any contract and to waive accrued liquidated damages. Each such supplemental agreement shall be entered into pursuant to the First War Powers Act and Executive Order No. 9001. If the contractor shall be in default by reason of delay at the date thereof, such supplemental agreement shall be subject to the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, unless the contracting officer shall find that such delay caused no substantial damage to the Government (as distinguished from the accrual of liquidated damages under the contract). For the purposes of this paragraph, the contractor shall not in any case be considéred in default by reason of delay if such delay is excusable within the meaning of the contract. Attention is directed to the provisions of § 81.308g.

§ 81.308f Amendment of contracts after final administrative determination of amount due. The authority granted to the chiefs of the supply services pursuant to §§ 81.308b, 81.308e, 81.379, and 81.380 will not be exercised after the contracting officer has administratively determined the final amount due under the contract by communicating his determination to the contractor or by the approval of a final voucher therefor, except that if the contracting officer's determination is, by the terms of the contract, subject to review by the Secretary of War, or his duly authorized representative, such authority may be exercised at any time prior to final action on such review if the contractor perfects his right to such review. Attention is directed to the provisions of § 81.308g.

§ 81.308g Supplements and change orders dealing with or directly affecting matters pending before the General Accounting Office in respect of the amended contract. Chiefs of supply services may not approve or authorize the execution of any supplemental agreement or change order which deals with or directly affects the claim under the contract amended thereby which has been transmitted to the General Accounting Office, or any dispute under the contract which has been referred to the General Accounting Office. This limitation of authority is applicable to action taken pursuant to §§ 81.306 (c) and (d), 81.303a, 81.308b, 81.308e, 81.379, and 81.380 notwithstanding any authority granted to the chiefs of the supply services by those paragraphs respectively. In requesting any approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, required by these regulations, the chiefs of the several supply services will call attention to any matters pending before the General Accounting Office with respect to the contract in question, or any closely related contract which may be affected or dealt with by the supplementary agreement, change order, or action. approval of which is requested, and will state fully the circumstances in any such pending matter.

FORMALITIES IN CONNECTION WITH ERECU-TION OF CONTRACTS AND MODIFICATIONS THEREOF

Paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 81.303 are amended as follows:

§ 81.309 Numbering contracts. * * *

(b) System. Contract numbers will be placed in the upper right-hand corner and will consist of the following in the order named:

(1) The capital letter "W", representing the War Department.

(2) Station number representing the station or office as published in Finance Circulars.

(3) The letter or letters representing the supply service. The Chief of Finance will be promptly notified of any change in the letter symbol or of the adoption of a new symbol.

(4) A serial number, separated from the above by a hyphen, commencing with the number 1 and continuing in succession indefinitely, without regard to the fiscal year. When the serial number reaches the limit of five digits (99,999), a new series will be used beginning with the serial number 1 and followed by the capital letter "A". Should additional series become necessary, they will be distinguished by the capital letters "B", "C", "D", etc., as may be required.

Norn: The foregoing applies only to the numbering of supply service contracts and not to the numbering of service command contracto. As to the latter, see § 81 3185 (e).

(c) Examples. Based upon paragraph (b) above, the following is the number of the first numbered contract executed by the Philadelphia Quartermaster Depot:

Section 81.313 (b) is amended as fol-

§ 81.313 Form of supplemental agreements and change orders. * * *

(b) Change orders. (1) Change orders will be in the form of letters addressed to the contractor, and will specify the number of the contract concerned, the changes to be made, the increase or decrease in price and time for performance, and such other terms as may be necessary. Change orders will bear the same identification as the contract which is thereby modified or amended and will be lettered or numbered, whichever method is authorized by the chief of the supply service concerned, in the order in which the modifications or amendments to the contract are issued. One continuous series of lettering or numbering as the case may be will be used for each contract, even though it is modified or amended both by supplemental agreements and by change orders.

(2) In order to avoid the work involved in duplicating change orders, the following procedure may, in the discretion of the chief of the supply service, be adopted with respect to any or all contracts:

(i) Change orders will be classified as primary change orders and secondary change orders.

(ii) Primary change orders are those which specify an increase or decrease in price or make any other material change in the terms of the contract.

(iii) All other change orders (including those in which an increase or decrease in price will be necessitated, but the amount of which is not known at the time of the change order) are secondary change orders.

(iv) Primary change orders will be numbered in accordance with subpara-

(v) Secondary change orders will be given only such identification as the chief of the supply service shall prescribe.

(vi) Secondary change orders will not be included in the continuous series of lettering or numbering referred to in the last sentence of subparagraph (1).

(vii) If a secondary change order is executed and it subsequently becomes apparent that the change made thereby will result in an increase or decrease in price, a supplemental agreement will be executed to evidence such increase or decrease.

DISTRIBUTION OF CONTRACTS AND ORDERS THEREUNDER

Paragraph (b) is added to § 81.317a as § 81.317a Supplemental agreements and change orders. (a) Signed numbers and copies of supplemental agreements and change orders will be distributed in the same manner as is prescribed for the contracts to which they pertain and the contracting officer will note on his retained copy of the supplemental agreement or change order the date on which the contractor's number was delivered or mailed to him. When, pursuant to § 81.313 (a) (2), a single supplemental agreement is executed to modify more than one contract, the following procedure will be followed:

(1) The original signed number will be forwarded to the General Accounting Office.

(2) The duplicate signed number will the contracting officer who supervised the execution thereof or with the chief of the supply service concerned and correct copies of the supplemental agreement will be furnished to the contracting officers under all of the contractors affected by the supplemental agree-

(3) The triplicate signed number will be forwarded to the contractor.

(4) An authenticated copy will be forwarded to the disbursing officer under each contract affected by the supplemental agreement.

(b) If the alternative procedure of numbering change orders provided for in § 81.313 (b) (2) is adopted, only primary change orders will be distributed in accordance with subparagraph (1)above. Secondary change orders will be given only such distribution as the chief of the supply service concerned may prescribe.

CONTRACT PROCEDURE WITHIN THE SERVICE COMMANDS

Sections 81.318a and 81.318b have been redesignated § 81.390 and §81.391, respectively, and new §§ 81.318a and 81.318b are added as follows:

§ 81.318a Organization of service commands—(a) Functions of the servservice ice commands. The Commanding Generals of the service commands are the direct subordinates of the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, and are his field representatives for the performance of the administrative, housing, house-keeping, hospitalization, and supply functions assigned to them. (See § 403.01 of the Services of Supply Organization Manual.)

(b) Relationship between the service commands and the supply services. The former offices of the special staff (including the quartermaster, engineer, ordnance officer, and signal officer) are under the complete jurisdiction of the Commanding General of each service command, and are an integral part of his headquarters; such offices are not to be considered field offices or agencies of the supply services. The supply services act as staff agencies of the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, for the functions assigned to them in directing and supervising those functions in the service commands. Accordingly, they may issue instructions to the Commanding Generals of the service commands in their own names or under the authority of the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, but they may not exercise direct command of the subordinates in the headquarters of a Commanding General of a service command (including the quartermaster, engineer, ordnance officer, and signal officer). (See § 403.02 of the Services of Supply Organization Manual.)

§ 81.318b Contract procedure — (a) Appointment of contracting officers. Commanding Generals of service commands are authorized to appoint contracting officers. Contracting officers so appointed may execute service command contracts as that term is defined in paragraph (b) below, as well as supply service contracts executed on behalf of a supply service as set forth in paragraph (c) below.

(b) Service command contracts. All contracts which are executed within a service command and which are to be paid for with funds made available to the Commanding Generals of the service commands by the Commanding General. Army Service Forces, are to be regarded as service command contracts and not the contracts of any supply service. There appears to be considerable confusion in this matter when contracts are executed by the quartermaster or the signal officer on the staff of a Commanding General of a service command. The tendency seems to exist to regard such contracts as Quartermaster Corps or Signal Corps contracts, as the case may be. As pointed out in § 81.318a (b) the quartermaster and the signal officer at a post, camp, or station within a service command are under jurisdiction of the Commanding General of the service command and are not to be regarded as subordinates of the chief of any supply service. Contracts executed under the complete supervision of the service commanders and which are not financed with funds furnished directly by the supply services are also to be regarded as service command contracts. An illustration is contracts for the employment of contract surgeons (see paragraph 1, section II, Circular No. 206, War Department 1942).

(c) Supply service contracts executed by service commands. Frequently contracting officers within the service commands are requested to execute contracts on behalf of a supply service, and it is understood that such contracts are to be paid for out of supply service funds. Likewise, when a given item is not available at a depot, a representative of a service command may be given sufficient funds by the supply service to enable the service command to purchase the item in question. All such contracts, being financed with supply service funds and not with the funds made available to the service command by the Commanding General, Army Service Forces are to be regarded as supply service contracts and the contracting officer of the service command, in executing such contracts. is merely acting as agent for the supply service on whose behalf the contract is executed. As indicated in paragraph (a) of this section above, however, the authority of the contracting officer of the service command includes authority to execute such a supply service contract.

(d) Distribution of service command contracts. The provisions of §§ 81.315-81.318 are applicable to service command contracts. It is to be noted, however, that whenever any paragraph of that section requires a contract to be filed with the "chief of the supply service concerned" the intention is that it be filed with the Commanding General of the service command (See § 81.108 (e).) It is important that no service command contract (as that term is defined in paragraph (b) of this section) be forwarded to the Headquarters of the various supply services for filing.

(e) Numbering of service command contracts. (1) Contract numbers will be placed in the upper right-hand corner of service command contracts and will consist of the following in the order named:

(i) The capital letter "W", representing the War Department.

(ii) The station number, that is, the station or office as published in Finance circulars.

(iii) A symbol in parentheses to indicate the service command. This symbol will consist of the capital letters (S. C.) followed by a hyphen and a Roman numeral indicating in which service command the contract was executed. It is important that capital letters followed by periods and by the Roman numeral be used in order that no confusion will arise with Signal Corps contracts which bear the symbol "sc".

(iv) A serial number separated from the above by a hyphen, commencing with the number "1" and continuing in succession indefinitely without regard to the fiscal year.

(2) It is to be emphasized that the numbering procedure set forth in this paragraph is applicable only to service command contracts (as the term is defined in paragraph (b) of this section). When supply service contracts are executed within a service command (see paragraph (c) of this section), such contracts should be numbered as supply service contracts in accordance with the provisions of § 81.309 (b).

(3) It is desirable that a separate series be commenced for service command contracts (as defined in paragraph (b) of this section). This should be done not later than April 20, 1943. Supply service contracts executed by service commands will be continued in the old series.

(f) Example. Based upon paragraph (e) above, the following is the number of the first numbered contract executed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina: W-159 (S. C.-IV)-1. The foregoing is on the assumption that the contract is to be paid with funds allotted to the Fourth Service Command by the Commanding General, Army Service Forces.

GUARANTEES, LOANS AND COMMITMENTS, AND ADVANCE PAYLIENTS

In § 81.321 (n) subparagraph (1) is rescinded and subparagraphs (2), (3), and (4) are redesignated (1), (2), and (3), respectively, as follows:

§ 81.321 Advance payments.

(n) Reports. In connection with advance payments, the supply services will make the following reports:

(1) Individual advance payment report.

(2) Quarterly report. * * (3) Interim reports. * *

MANDATORY AND OPTIONAL CONTRACT PROVISIONS

Section 81.338 is amended as follows:

§ 81.338 Plant protection clauses. In those cases where the Contracting Officer deems it necessary to retain some control as to the plant protective devices in a particular plant, the contract will contain a clause substantially similar to one of those set forth below. Such a clause will not normally be necessary in construction contracts.

Section 81.340 is amended as follows:

§ 81.340 Clauses for rental of gas cylinders. Every contract for the rental of gas cylinders will contain a clause substantially similar to one of the following:

Section 81.341 is amended as follows:

§ 81.341 Price adjustment based on production experience. The following articles provide for redetermination of price by formula (paragraph (a) of this section), price revision by negotiation (paragraph (b)), conversion of fixed-fee contract to fixed price basis (paragraph (c)), and incentive provisions in fixedfee contracts (paragraph (d)). They may be used in accordance with the instructions in §§ 81.1220-81.1226.

(a) Redetermination of price by formula. .

Article * * * Redetermination of price by formula—(a) Agreement to redetermine price. The Government and the Contractor recognize that the costs of performing this contract cannot be accurately estimated at the time of its execution, and that the price fixed in Article * * may therefore be too high. They therefore agree that the contract price fixed in Article * * * shall be redetermined in Article * * * shall be redetermined in Article * * * * be redetermined in accordance with this Article on the basis of the actual experience of the Contractor in performing part of the contract. They agree that the cost of producing the first _____% of the items called for hereunder (hereinafter called the "preliminary run") will not necessarily be typical for the remainder of the contract. The cost of producing the next _____ % (hereinafter called the "test run") shall therefore be used as the general basis for the redetermination of

(b) Estimate of costs. The Contractor represents that the contract price fixed in

(ii) Estimates of the cost of producing the items to be delivered during the remainder of the contract based upon the previous cost experience of the Contractor and upon all other relevant factors; and

(iii) Proposed revised prices under the contract.

(2) The Contractor will maintain books, records and accounts to as to reflect accurately and segregate clearly the costs of performing this contract during the "preliminary run" and "test run." For this purpose the Contractor may follow the cost accounting system regularly used by it, if the Contracting Officer finds it is adequate and in accordance with sound accounting practice.

In the event that no such determination has been made, it is suggested that a statement to that effect should be inserted in the contract.

(d) Incorporation by reference of Walsh-Healey Act stipulations. By Circular Letter No. 12–42, dated January 4, 1943, the Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the Department of Labor permitted the incorporation of the Walsh-Healey Act representations and stipulations by reference. Accordingly, notwithstanding the provisions of that portion of this section which precedes paragraph (a), such representations and stipulations may be incorporated by reference. The following language is suggested.

The representations and stipulations required by section 1 of the Act of June 30, 1936 (Walsh-Healey Act, Public No. 846, 74th Con-gress) to be included in all contracts therein specified are hereby incorporated and made a part of this contract with the same force and effect as if fully set forth in the contract.

If desired, the following sentence may be added:

Such representations and stipulations shall be subject to all applicable regulations, determinations, and exemptions of the Secretary of Labor now or hereafter in effect. (Compare § 353.1).

The provisions of paragraph (c) of this section are applicable whether the representations and stipulations are set forth in full or are incorporated by reference.

In § 81.357 paragraphs (b) and (e) are amended as follows:

§ 81.357 Tax articles in fixed price (lump sum) contracts. * * *

(b) Short form tax article. In purchase orders and contracts where the estimated time of the performance of the purchase order or contract does not exceed 60 days the following short form of tax article may be employed or a tax article may be omitted. Attention is again directed to the necessity of including in each contract (see § 81.358) suitable provisions to specify any taxes to be excluded from or included in the contract price otherwise than as provided in such tax article.

(e) Appropriate tax articles. Chief of any Supply Service may authorize the omission of the tax articles set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section from any contract where they are plainly inapplicable or inappropriate. In any class or classes of contracts for services where a major part of the cost of performance consists of payroll expense, e. g., stevedoring contracts, the Chief of any Supply Service may authorize the inclusion of a provision for price adjustment in the event of changes in payroll taxes with respect to such services. The form of any such provision in general should be similar to the provision found in paragraph (b) of the tax article set out in paragraph (a) of this section but should not be made applicable to taxes other than those paid with respect to the wages of the employees of the particular contractor.

Section 81.359 is amended as follows:

§ 81.359 Telephone messages. Every cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract will contain a clause substantially as follows:

Telephone messages (including teletype and facsimile, when authorized by the Contracting Officer to be installed) cent by the Contractor or its representatives, in connection with this contract, shall be paid by the Contractor tax free. Such payments by the Contractor shall be accompanied by a tax exemption certificate.

§ 81.360 Periodic adjustment of price and exemption from renegotiation. The following articles for periodic adjustment of price will be used in accordance with §§ 81.1240-81.1247. °

Section 81.361 is rescinded, the regulations contained therein having been included in § 81.351 (c) and new § 81.361 is added as follows:

§ 81.361 Short term pricing. The following article for revision, after part parformance, of the contract price for the remainder of the contract may be used in accordance with §§ 81.1230-81.1236.

(a) Revision of future prices by negotiation.

Article * * * Recision of future prices by negotiation—(a) Agreement to revice price. The Government and the Contractor agree that after the delivery of —— 3 of the articles hereunder (herein called the "initial period") the contract price fixed in Article * * shall be reviced upward or downward for deliveries after the initial period (called herein the "remainder of the contract") in accordance with this Article.

(b) Cost statements. (1) Within days before the completion of the initial period, the Contractor shall cubmit to tho Contracting Officer the following data:

(i) Itemized statements chowing costs of production during the preceding part of the initial period.

(ii) Estimates of the cost of producing the items to be delivered during the remainder of the contract based upon the provious cost experience of the Contractor and upon all other relevant factors.

(iii) Proposed reviced prices for the remainder of the contract.

(2) The Contractor will maintain books, records and accounts to as to reflect accu-rately and segregate clearly the costs of par-forming this contract. For this purpose the Contractor may follow the cost accounting system regularly used by it, if the Contracting Officer finds it is adequate and in accordance with sound accounting practice. The Statements showing costs experienced by the Contractor under this contract chall be based upon such books, records and accounts and shall be certified as correct by two officers of the Contractor or by an independent public accountant. The Contractor shall submit his books, records and accounts to such examination and audit as the Contracting Officer may request.

(e) Regulation for revision. (1) Upon the filing of the data required by section (b) hercof, the Contractor and Contracting Officer chall negotiate in good faith to egree upon reviced prices for the remainder of this contract. The reviced price may be different for different periods of the contract and may be in excess of or less than the price stated in Article hereof. The agreement reached shall be evidenced by a supplemental agreement of this contract stating the revised price for the remainder of the contract.

(2) If the Contracting Officer and Contractor fall to agree on revised prices for the re-mainder of the contract within thirty (30) days after the date for filing of the data by the Contractor under section (b) hereof, or such further period as may be fixed by agreement, the Contractor, if not in default, or the Government may terminate the contract hercunder by written notice delivered within ten days after the expiration of said thirty day period or extension. Upon such termina-tion by either party, the rights and obliga-tions of the parties chall be governed by the provisions of Article hereof ("Termination for the Convenience of the Government"), except that the Contractor shall be allowed no profit for any uncompleted por-tion of the contract. If revised prices are not egreed upon and the contract is not so terminated, the Government shall pay to the Contractor the price fixed in Article for the remainder of the contract.

(d) Payments. Until the contract price is revised hereunder, the Government shall pay revised hereunder, the Government shall pay to the Contractor the price set forth in Article • • • for all articles delivered after the initial period. If the contract price for the remainder of the contract is revised upward hereunder, the Government shall pay to the Contractor the difference between the price paid on all items delivered after the initial period and the reviced price for such items. If the contract price for the remain-der of the contract is revised downward hereunder an amount equal to the difference be-tween the price paid on all items delivered after the initial period and the revised price for such items, shall be applied as a credit against payments for subsequent deliveries or chall be applied in such other manner or repaid to the Government at the Contracting Officer may direct. For all items delivered after any price revision hereunder, the Government shall pay the Contractor the revised price, minus any such credit.

(f) Renegotiation. Any revision of the contract price made under this Article is without prejudice to the determination of any executive profits of the Contractor upon subsequent renegotiation under Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental Hational Defense Appropriation Act, 1942, as amended, or the contract article inserted herein pursuant to Section 81.363 is redesignated § 81.364 and a new § 81.363 is added as follows:

§ 81.363 Disposition of Governmentowned property by contractors. There may be inserted in any contract a clause substantially as follows:

It is recognized that during the course of the performance of this contract, certain machine tool coulyment, processing equipment, manufacturing aids, ray materials, manu-factured materials or other materials or facilities which are owned by the Government will be in the custedy of the Contractor; and that it may become decirable to have such items transferred to other contractors having items transferred to other contractors having war contracts. Accordingly, whenever the Contracting Officer chall so direct, the Contractor chall, and is hereby authorized on behalf of the Government to, call, transfer or otherwise dispuse of any such machine tool equipment, processing equipment, manufacturing aids, raw materials, manufactured materials or other materials or facilities to any individual or corporation upon such terms and conditions as the Contracting Officer shall specify.

TERMINATION OF FIXED PRICE (LUMP SUM)
CONTRACTS—TERMINATION UPON DEFAULT OF CONTRACTOR

Section 81.379 is amended as follows:

§ 81.379 Steps to be taken in event of default. (a) The rigid enforcement of contract provisions imposing liquidated damages on contractors for failure to perform within specified periods, or authorizing termination of contracts for default, has been found in many instances to impede the prosecution of the war. The exercise by the several chiefs of supply services of discretion to take such action as may seem to them fair and equitable under all the circumstances will expedite the procurement of necessary war materiel and facilitate the prosecution of the war. For the foregoing reasons, authority is delegated to and confirmed in the chief of each supply service to authorize contracting officers under his command, subject to such limitations as the chief of the supply service may establish, to take any of the following courses in the event of default of the Contractor:

(1) Permit the contractor to proceed and to charge the contractor with the actual damages resulting from the default. If the contract provides for liquidated damages, such damages and not actual damages must be charged.

(2) Enter into a supplemental agreement with the Contractor's surety-providing for the completion of performance of the contract and for payment therefor. Such supplemental agreement should clearly state that all rights against the Contractor are reserved so far as the surety does not undertake to cure the effect of the defaults by the Contractor.

(3) Terminate the contract:

(i) Under any provision of the contract permitting termination in the event of default, in which case the provisions of § 81.380 shall be applicable. In exercising the authority to terminate for default due regard should be given to the preservation of rights against any surety on any performance bond.

(ii) Under any contract article providing for termination for the convenience of the Government, when the defaults of the Contractor have not been gross or wilful, and have not caused substantial injury to the Government, if the Contracting Officer shall find that the use of that termination article will facilitate the prosecution of the war and be equitable under all the circumstances.

(4) Extend by supplemental agreement the time fixed in the contract for performance in the manner provided in § 81.308e, and within the time prescribed by § 81.308f, if the default consists of failure to perform within the time specified by the contract. In general, it is not the policy of the Government to terminate contracts for default under the stringent provisions of a delaysdamages article, in a manner to bring about a forfeiture or a severe loss on the part of the Contractor, merely because, at a time when the Government desires to terminate its contract for reasons not based upon the defaults of the Contractor, the Contractor happens to be in technical default under the contract. Attention is directed as to the provisions of § 81.308g.

Section 81.380 is amended as follows:

§ 81.380 Steps to be taken in event of termination because of default. (a) If termination is effected pursuant to a contract provision substantially similar to that set forth in § 81.352 or Article 9 of the contract form contained in § 81.1362, the chief of a supply service may, but it is not required to, pursue the remedies provided for in such contract provision or available by law. In lieu of making use of such remedies he may within the time prescribed by § 81.308f, if he finds that to do so will facilitate the prosecution of the war, make a supplemental agreement with the Contractor and relieve the Contractor of liability which would result from the enforcement of such remedies. Such an agreement may be entered into only with the prior approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces (obtained in the manner provided in § 81.308a) except where the chief of a supply service shall find any one of the following facts:

(1) That the Government no longer has need for the supplies, services, or construction called for by the contract;

(2) That the supplies or services, undelivered because of the contractor's default, can be obtained from some source other than the Contractor on a basis as favorable as that set forth in the contract or that the construction provided for in the contract can be accomplished on terms substantially as favorable to the Government as though performed under the original contract;

(3) That for reasons of policy the supply service wishes to buy supplies of the type covered by the contract on terms more expensive or less favorable to the Government than those set forth in the terminated contract. (For example, the supply service may desire to buy from particular producers or in particular geographical areas in order to distribute war work more widely despite any extra expense involved. The excess expense in such a case should not equitably be charged to the Contractor);

(4) That any excess cost charged to the Contractor would be nominal;(5) That the Contractor currently em-

(5) That the Contractor currently employs less than 100 employees or was recommended as a prime contractor by the Smaller War Plants Division, War Production Board, has other war contracts existing or prospective, and that enforcement of the remedies provided in the contract would materially impair his ability to perform such contracts.

- Section 81.318b is redesignated § 81.391 and amended as follows:

§ 81.391 Charges for telegraph, cable, and radio messages in cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. Pursuant to the provisions of Public Law, 78th Congress, cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors and subcontractors are no longer entitled to send telegraph, cable or radio messages at government rates.

Section 81.392 is added as follows:

§ 81.392 Handling defaults and threatened defaults by suppliers and subcontractors under cost - plus - a - fixed - fee prime contracts. (a) The following procedures are established to assure to the Government the maximum amount of protection and salvage in cases where suppliers or subcontractors of cost-plusa-fixed-fee prime contractors fall or refuse to perform their obligations under purchase orders or subcontracts, or threaten to do so:

(1) In general, it is the responsibility of the prime contractor to administer and police his purchase orders and subcontracts; and nothing herein contained shall be construed to remove, lessen or impair such responsibility. In case of a threatened breach of contract by a supplier or subcontractor, it is the duty of the prime contractor to use all lawful means employed by businessmen in the trade to obtain performance. This will normally include the sending of a reminder to the supplier or subcontractor that compliance with contract terms is expected and that the supplier or subcontractor will be held to strict accountability for breach; personal interviews where feasible; and similar steps. It is also the duty of the prime contractor to take all steps reasonably necessary to assure that he will not lose contract rights through waiver or estoppel.

(2) Where default is threatened by a supplier or subcontractor because of bona fide misunderstandings or differences between him and the prime contractor which appear to be capable of fair settlement, the prime contractor will attempt, through negotiation, to obtain such settlement. But no settlement involving any change in the terms of a purchase order or subcontract previously approved by the Contracting Officer shall be made without the written approval of the Contracting Officer.

(3) The prime contractor will notify the Contracting Officer promptly of any situation which may require the issuance of a purchase order or subcontract to another supplier or subcontractor for supplies or services covered by a purchase order or subcontract as to which default is in prospect or has occurred. Such additional purchase order or subcontract may be issued when the successful and speedy completion of the prime contractor's work is imperilled by default of a supplier or subcontractor. The prime cotnractor will maintain full and accurate records of cost under such additional purchase order or subcontract for the purpose, among others, of establishing a claim for damages against the defaulting supplier or subcontractor. He will also prepare and keep careful notes of all other information pertinent to the case which may be of assistance in the event of a lawsuit.

(4) Where a supplier or subcontractor has defaulted, and a claim arises in favor of the prime contractor, the latter will attempt to negotiate and settle the claim on reasonable terms whenever it appears that a fair settlement may be preferable to litigation. The prime contractor will keep the Contracting Officer informed of the progress of such settlement negotiations. The Contracting Officer shall have authority to approve a settlement and no settitment agreement will be made without his written approval.

(5) When, in the opinion of the prime contractor, further efforts at settlement will be ineffectual, he will so notify the Contracting Officer. If the Contracting Officer concurs in this opinion, he will direct the prime contractor to assemble all the papers pertinent to the claim, and to make or obtain any affidavits or other records of the transaction, and to prepare any necessary report on the claim. The Contracting Officer will forward this record, together with his own report and recommendation, to the Litigation Division. Office of The Judge Advocate General, through the chief of the supply service concerned.

(6) The Judge Advocate General may from time to time in the further handling of the claim request cooperation and assistance from the prime contractor, the Contracting Officer, and the chief of the supply service concerned, and will in some cases require the Contracting Officer to obtain assignment, from the prime contractor to the United States, of the defaulted purchase order or subcontract. No such assignment will be obtained without the approval of The Judge Advocate General.

(7) If the matter is to be forwarded to the General Accounting Office by The Judge Advocate General it will be forwarded through the Fiscal Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

§ 81.904 Basic law. The Act requires that, in every contract to which it is applicable, a provision must be inserted that no laborer or mechanic doing any part of the work contemplated by the contract in the employ of a contractor or any subcontractor, shall be required or permitted to work more than 8 hours in any one calendar day upon such work unless such mechanic or laborer is compensated for all hours worked in excess of 8 hours in any one calendar day at not less than 11/2 times the basic rate of pay. Act of June 19, 1912 (37 Stat. 137), as amended by section 5 (b) Act of June 23. 1940 (64 Stat. 679) and section 303 Act of September 9, 1940 (54 Stat. 884), 40 U. S. C. 324, 325, 325-A; M. - (b) Exceptions; miscellaneous contracts. Where the same class of work is not, as a general rule, being performed by the Government, contracts for any of the following classes of work are not covered by the Act.

COPELAND ("ANTI-KICKBACK") ACT

§ 81.906 Basic law. The Act provides that whoever shall induce any person employed in work subject to the Act to give up any part of the compensation to which he is entitled under his contract of employment by force, intimidation, threat of procuring dismissal from such employment or any other manner whatsoever, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both. Act of June 13, 1934, (48 Stat. 948) 40 U.S.C.A. secs. 276 (b) and (c) as amended by Reorganization Plan No. IV, effective June 30, 1940, (54 Stat. 1236) in accordance with sec. 4 of H. J. Res. 551 (Pub. Res. 75) approved June 4, 1940, sec. 4, (54 Stat. 231)—5 U.S.C. 133u.

(a) Form of provision. The form of the provision required by regulation in contracts to which the Act applies is set out in § 81.344. (Title 29-A, Department of Labor Regulations 2.6.)

§ 81.907 Applicability of anti-rebate law—(a) Character of contracts. Generally the Act applies to contracts and subcontracts for the construction, prosecution, completion or repair of any public building, public work, or building or work financed in whole or in part by loans or grants from the United States.

(b) Cost plus contracts. The Act applies to contracts for such work entered into upon a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis or otherwise, with or without advertising for proposals, as well as to contracts entered into upon a lump sum basis.

(c) Exceptions. The Act does not apply to supply contracts, such contracts ordinarily being subject to the Walsh-Healey Act where the amount is in excess of $10,000 (see §§ 81.916-81.961a); nor does it apply ordinarily to installation or maintenance work done for the account of the Government in connection with and as an incident to supply contracts.

(d) Determination of applicability. Since the primary factor for determining whether or not the Act applies is the nature of the work contemplated in the contract and since this same factor is involved in determining whether or not the Davis-Bacon Act applies, reference is here made to § 81.911 which is equally applicable to this section.

§ 81.908 Procedure. Pursuant to the provisions of the Act, the Secretary of Labor has prescribed certain regulations made effective April 30, 1942 which govern the procedure to be followed in connection with contracts that are subject to the Act, and the Davis-Bacon Act (§ 81.910 et seq.); also with regard to certain types of authorized deductions and the method of securing approval thereof. The substance of the pertinent regulations follows:

(a) Weekly affidavit with respect to payment of wages. Each contractor or subcontractor engaged in work subject to the Act is required to furnish each week a sworn affidavit with respect to the wages paid each of its employees (which shall not be deemed to apply to persons in classifications higher than that of laborer and mechanic and those who are the immediate supervisors of such employees) engaged on the work covered by the Act during the preceding weekly payroll period. The affidavit shall be executed and sworn to by the contractor or subcontractor who supervises the payment of wages and shall be in the following form:

County of _____, ss:

tractor) from the full weekly wages earned as set out on the attached pay-roll; and that no deductions, other than the permissible deductions (as defined in the Regulations under the "Kickback" Act (48 Stat. 948)) described in the following paragraph of this affidavit, have been made or will be made, directly or indirectly, from the full weekly wages earned as set out on the attached pay-roll.

(Paragraph describing deductions, if any)

(Signature and title)
Sworn to before me this____day of ______, 194__, (Title 29-A Dept. of Labor Regulations, 2.3 (b)).

(b) Exemptions with respect to weekly affidavits. Upon a written finding by the Secretary of War, the Secretary of Labor may provide reasonable limitations, variations, tolerances and exemptions from the requirements set forth in paragraph (a) above, subject to such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may specify. Request for such finding shall be submitted through the chief of the supply service to the Industrial Personnel Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, for submission through channels to the Secretary of Labor. (Title 29-A, Dept. of Labor Regulations, 2.3 (c)).

(c) Submission of weekly affidavits and subcontractors summaries. Each weekly affidavit shall be delivered by the contractor or subcontractor within seven days after the regular payment date of the payroll period to the contracting officer or such other officer as may be designated for such purpose by the chief of the supply service. After such examination and check as may be made, such affidavit or a copy thereof, together with a report of any violation shall be transmitted by the contracting officer or other designated officer directly to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor, Washington, D. C. (Title 29-A Dept. of Labor Regulations 2.4 (a).)

(d) Submission of subcontractor summaries. Each contractor or subcontractor shall within seven days after the making of any subcontract with another person concerning work subject to the Act deliver to the contracting officer or such other officer as may be designated for such purpose by the chief of the supply service, an affidavit setting forth the name and address of his subcontractor and a summary description of the precise work subcontracted. After such examination and check as may be made, such affidavit or a copy thereof shall be transmitted by the contracting officer or other designated officer directly to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D. C. (Title 29-A Dept. of Labor Regulations 2.4 (b)).

(e) Authorized pay-roll deductions.
(1) Deductions for the following payments are permissible:

(i) Where required by Federal, State, or local statutes or ordinances to be made by the employer from the wages earned by the employee;

(ii) Bona fide prepayment of wages without discount or interest;

(iii) Deductions required by court process provided that the contractor or subcontractor will not be permitted to make such a deduction in favor of the contractor, subcontractor, or any affiliated person or where collusion or collaboration exists. (Title 29-A Department of Labor Regulations 2.5 (a).)

(2) Any deduction is also permissible which in fact meets the following standards and with respect to which the contractor or subcontractor shall have made written application by registered mail to the Secretary of Labor, a copy of which application shall be sent to the contracting agency by the contractor or subcontractor setting forth all the pertinent facts, indicating that such deductions will meet the following standards:

(i) That such deduction is not prohibited by other law; and

(ii) That such deduction is (a) voluntarily consented to by the employee in writing and in advance of the period in which the work was done, and that consent to the deduction is not a condition either for the obtaining of or for the continuance of employment; or (b) that such deduction is for the benefit of the employees or their labor organization through which they are represented and is provided for in a bona fide collective bargaining agreement; and

(iii) That from such deduction no payment is made to, nor profit or benefit is obtained directly or indirectly by the contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person, and that no portion of the funds, whether in the form of a commission or otherwise, will be returned to the contractor or subcontractor or to any affiliated person; and

(iv) That the convenience and interest of the employees are served thereby, and that such or similar deductions have been customary in this or comparable situations. (Title 29-A Dept. of Labor Regulations 2.5 (b)).

- (3) After application in good faith, the deduction may be made in accordance with the foregoing standards: Provided, however, That if the Secretary of Labor, on his own motion, or on the application of any person or agency affected by the granting of the application, shall conclude at any time, after written notice to the applicant and an opportunity for him to present his views in support of the deduction, that the deduction has not met the foregoing standards, such deductions shall cease to be "permissible" seven days after the applicant and the Federal agency concerned have been notified of the Secretary's decision. (Title 29-A Department of Labor Regulations 2.5 (c)).
- (4) Upon application to and prior written permission from the Secretary of Labor, and subject to the standards set forth in paragraph-(e) (2) of this section, deductions may be made by a contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person, for membership fees in group benefit or retirement associations; for board and lodging; or for other purposes where the Secretary of Labor concludes the deduction is required by compelling circumstances: Provided, however, The contractor, subcontractor, or any affiliated person does not make a profit or benefit directly or indirectly from the deduction. A copy of the Secretary's decision shall be sent to the applicant and the Federal agency concerned. (Title 29-A Department of Labor Regulations 2.5 (d)).
- (5) In accordance with and subject to the standards set forth in paragraph (e) (2) of this section, general permission is hereby granted to make payroll deductions for:
- (i) The payment of the purchase price of United States Defense Stamps and Bonds and United States Tax Savings Notes:
- (ii) The repayment of loans to or the purchase of shares in credit unions organized in accordance with District of Columbia, Federal, or State credit union statutes:
- (iiî) Contributions to a Federal governmental or quasi-governmental agency.

(Title 29-A Department of Labor Regulations 2.5 (e)).

(f) Restricted payments prohibited. In any case in which the employee does not have full and actual freedom of disposition of his wage payment, whether made in cash or by check, any restricted payment made to the employee is considered a deduction under the regulations in this part. (Title 29-A Department of Labor Regulations 2.5 (h)).

(g) Lack of knowledge no defense. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit any deduction which the contractor or subcontractor knew, or in the exercise of good faith should have known, did not meet the foregoing standards. In order to insure compliance with this section, the Secretary of Labor may notify the contractor or subcontractor that the deduction will be permitted only if certain conditions with respect thereto are observed. The contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person shall also comply with such general rules and regulations concerning the deductions as the Secretary of Labor shall make from time to time, notice of which shall have been given to the contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person making the deduction and to the Federal agency concerned either directly or through publication in the Federal Rugister. (Title 29-A Dept. of Labor Regulations 2.5 (g)).

(h) Request for advisory opinions. The Secretary of Labor will furnish an opinion regarding the coverage of any specific project or with respect to the application of any provisions of the regulations in this part at the request of any Federal or State agency. Request for any such opinion shall be submitted through the chief of the supply service to the Industrial Personnel Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, for submission through channels to the Secretary of Labor. (Title 29-A Department of Labor Regulations 2.7).

§ 81.909 Alternative procedures for railway carriers. By letters of October 5, 1942 and January 22, 1943 from the Secretary of Labor to the Secretary of War, a partial exemption regarding the submission of weekly reports above described in paragraph (a) of this section was granted to railway carriers and an alternative method for obtaining permission of the Secretary of Labor to make certain types of deductions was approved. Copies of these letters may be obtained from the office of the Labor Relations Section, Industrial Personnel Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

DAVIS-BACON ACT

§ 81.910 Basic law. The Act as amended requires as to every contract to which it applies:

That a scale of minimum wages for every class of mechanics or laborers employed shall be set out in the specifications (in cases where specifications are advertised for bids).

That a minimum wage scale must be included in the contract together with a stipulation that the same will be observed whether contracts are let on bids or not.

The inclusion of certain additional provisions referred to hereinafter for the administration and enforcement of the required stipulations.

(Act of March 3, 1931 (46 Stat. 1494), as amended by Act of August 30, 1935 (49 Stat. 1011), Act of June 15, 1940, (54 Stat. 399), and Act of March 23, 1941, (55 Stat. 53, 40 U.S.C. 276a, a-1 to a-7), M.L. 1939 and Sup. I, sec. 746)

(a) Form of provisions required. The form of provisions required by regulation in contracts to which the Act applies is set out in § 81.343. (Title 29-A, Department of Labor Regulations 2.6).

§ 81.911 Applicability of Davis-Bacon law: Character of contracts covered. The Act as amended applies to all contracts in excess of $2,000 to be performed in any of the States of the United States, the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii or the District of Columbia, for construction, alteration or repair including painting or decorating of public buildings or public works where the same require or involve the employment of mechanics or laborers.

(a) Definition of "building" and "work" by regulation. The Secretary of Labor has, by regulation, defined the words "building" and "work" as including, generally, construction activity as distinguished from manufacturing, furnishing of materials, or servicing and maintenance work.

(b) Definition of "construction", or "repair". The Secretary of Labor has defined the above terms as used in the Act and in the Copeland Act covered in 5§ 81.506-81.909 above as, in substance including all types of work done under a construction contract such as altering, remodeling, painting and decorating, the transporting of materials and supplies to or from the building or work by the employees of the construction contractor or construction subcontractor and the manufacturing or furnishing of materials, articles, supplies, or equipment on the site of the building or work by persons employed at the site by the contractor or subcontractor. (Title 29-A Department of Labor Regulations Regulations 2.2 (b)).

- (c) Cost plus contracts. The Act applies to contracts entered into upon a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis or otherwise with or without advertising for bids, as well as to contracts entered into upon a lump sum basis.
- (d) Exceptions. The Act does not apply to:
- (1) Contracts for the construction, alteration or repair of vessels or other movable personal property where the place of performance of the contract is not known or cannot be reasonably ascertained at the time the contract is negotiated.
- (2) Contracts with railroad carriers or subcontractors let to railroad carriers for the construction, alteration, or repair of railroads insofar as such contracts involve wage rates payable to employees of railroad carriers operating under collective bargaining agreements with the railroad carriers, made agreeable to the provisions of the Railway Labor Act (Letter March 14, 1942 from the Secretary of Labor to the Secretary of War).

(3) Contracts for servicing and maintenance work generally. (Title 29-A, Department of Labor Regulations 2.2 (a))

(4) Contracts for manufacturing and furnishing materials or supplies (see Title 29-A, Department of Labor Regulations 2.2 (a)) and servicing and maintenance work incident thereto.

(e) "Servicing and maintenance work" defined. The terms "servicing and maintenance work" as used in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of paragraph (d) above, include:

(1) Movement of machinery into or out of or from one part to another part of a building or plant completed or substantially completed.

(2) Installation of machinery, machine tools or other equipment in a plant or building completed or substantially completed.

(3) Plant rearrangement and production facilities adjustment or alterations incident to (1) or (2) above.

Note: This definition in connection with subparagraphs (3) and (4) of paragraph (d) does not relate to servicing and maintenance prosecuted by a construction contractor as a part of construction work.

- (f) Determination by chief of supply service. The Act contemplates an administrative determination of the application of the law to particular contracts and the War Department is authorized to make such determination. The chief of the supply service involved will determine within his own office whether the foregoing regulations require the inclusion of Davis-Bacon (and Copeland) Act provisions in any particular contract. In cases of doubt the question, accompanied by full statement of the facts, shall be referred to the Industrial Personnel Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, for determination.
- § 81.912 Regulations, forms and procedures—(a) Regulations; applicability. The regulations of the Secretary of Labor described in § 81.908, where pertinent, are applicable to all contracts subject to the Act.
- (b) Regulations; prevailing rates of wages. Regulation No. 503 issued by the Secretary of Labor September 30, 1935, as amended April 30, 1942, prescribes the procedures to be followed in predetermining prevailing rates of wages. Whenever a request for wage rate predeterminations is made by the contracting officer and referred to the Secretary of Labor in accordance with the procedures hereinafter described, the necessary steps to obtain evidence upon which the Secretary may make the requisite predeterminations are to be taken by the Solicitor of Labor in accordance with the provisions of Regulation No. 503.
- (c) Forms. Wage rate predeterminations are to be requested on Forms DB-11, accompanied by Forms DB-15, issued by the Department of Labor (see paragraphs (e) and (f) below). Reports of violations are to be made on standard Form No. 1093 (see paragraph (g) below).

(d) How obtained. Copies of pertinent regulations and forms will be obtained by the chief of the supply service directly from the Department of Labor for distribution to those concerned. The chiefs of the supply services are responsible for the supplying of the necessary regulations and forms to their contracting officers.

(e) Procedures; request for wage rate predeterminations. Prior to entering into negotiations for awarding a contract to which the basic law is applicable, the contracting officer will request the Secretary of Labor, through the chief of the supply service concerned, to predetermine the wage rates to be contained in the contract. This request will be made on Department of Labor Form DB-11, and the instructions on that form will be followed. Since the Department of Labor has stated that the basic law does not apply to the following positions, no predetermination of wages is necessary in their cases:

Assistant engineer on dredges or floating plant in supervisory positions.

Assistant foreman. Camp assistant. Checker.

Chief mate.
Civil engineer.
Clerk.

Cook.
Cook's helper.
Foreman.
Junior deck officer.

Mess boy. Messenger. Office manager.

Quartermaster or steersman. Steward.

Storekeeper. Superintendent. Timekeeper.

Waiter. Watchman.

(f) Procedures; prevailing rate information. Each request submitted as indicated in paragraph (d) above will be accompanied by one or more copies of Department of Labor Form DB-15, executed in accordance with the instructions on that form, which require a separate form for each occupation. In filling out this form, the contracting officer will consult the following and consider the information obtained therefrom in forming the opinion which he is required to state on the form:

(1) The Building Trades Council (or some other local federation or council of the various craft unions).

(2) Independent labor organizations not allied with the local Building Trades Council.

(3) Municipal Officials (the commissioner of public works, the city clerk or other officials in charge of municipal construction who have data on the wage rates paid on city projects),

(4) The employers' organizations (such as Master Builders, the Master Painters, or other contractors' associations, the local chamber of commerce, etc.).

(5) Individual contractors and architects in the locality,

(6) The State Labor Department or its equivalent,

(7) The contracting officer and supervising superintendent, and

(8) The local office of the United States Employment Service or affiliated agency.

(g) Reports of violations. Where a contracting officer finds that any laborer or mechanic employed by a contractor or subcontractor on work subject to the Act has been or is being paid wages less than the wages required by the contract to be paid, the contracting officer will make a report on standard Form No. 1003 (schedule of deductions from payment to contractors) executed as completely as possible from his records to the disbursing officer. The latter will complete the execution of the form from his records and transmit it to the office indicated on the form. (Circular letter A-34106, February 28, 1936 of the Comptroller General).

WAGE AND SALARY STABILIZATION

Paragraph (b) is added to § 81.980p as follows:

§ 81.980p General Order No. 16. • • • (b) General Order No. 30. In accordance with the provisions of section 4 of Title II of Executive Order 9250, increases in wage or salary rates which do not bring such rates above 40¢ per hour may be made without the approval of the National War Labor Board, provided that such increases shall not furnish a basis either to increase price cellings of the commodity or service involved or to resist otherwise justified reductions in such price cellings.

FORTY-EIGHT HOUR WORKWEEK

Paragraph (d) is added to § 81.985 as follows:

§ 81.985 Forty-eight hour workweek.

(d) Statement re adoption of fortyeight hour week. Under date of March 11, 1943, the National War Labor Board defined the extent of its jurisdiction in the matter of overtime pay in the light of Executive Order No. 9301, as follows:

In order to answer the many inquiries received as to the effect of Executive Order 9250 on wages and salaries in the light of the Executive Order of February 9, establishing the minimum wartime work-week of 48 hours, the National War Labor Board today issued the following statement:

1. Effect of the order on employer's obligation to pay over-time. Any employer who adopts a 48 hour week in compliance with Executive Order 9301 of February 9, 1943 and the regulations of the War Manpower Commission issued thereunder is under the same obligation with respect to over-time pay as if he had adopted a 48 hour week before the order was issued. That is, his obligation to pay or not to pay over-time rates is in no way affected by the order.

This interpretation is based on the following provision of section 5 of the order:

Nothing in this order shall be construed as superseding or in conflict with * * * the provisions of any individual or collective bargaining agreement with respect to rates of pay for hours worked in excess of the agreed or customary work-week, nor shall this Order be construed as suspending or modifying any provision of the Fair Labor Standards Act or any other Federal, State or local law relating to the payment of wages

2. Necessity to secure War Labor Board approval for the payment of overtime. Approval of the War Labor Board is not required for payment of overtime rates to wage and salary employees for hours worked in excess of 40 made in accordance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act or any other similar Federal, State or local law or by the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement or by the employer's past custom and practice.

If none of these applies, then payment for the hours worked in excess of 40 at other than straight time rates would be a wage increase and would therefore require approval by the War Labor Board.

3. Salaried employees. Salaried employees within the jurisdiction of the War Labor Board, whose overtime pay is not covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act or any other similar Federal, State or local law, or by a collective bargaining agreement or their employer's past practice, may not, without the prior approval of the War Labor Board, he paid at more than straight time rates proportionate to the additional hours worked.

tionate to the additional hours worked.

4. Application for approval of the increases referred to above may, of course, be made, in accordance with the National War Labor Board's regular procedure, at any local office of the Wage and Hour Division of the U.S.

Department of Labor.

Such application shall be submitted to and approved by Resources and Production Division. Approval of the War Production Board of such application is not required regardless of the amount, but Resources and Production Division shall notify War Production Board of the amount approved.

- Approval of such application shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:
- (i) Such expenditures shall be limited to items normally classified as capital charges and shall not be used for items which may properly be charged to maintenance, repairs, or operations;

(ii) Such expenditures shall be only for construction, alterations, extensions, machinery, equipment or other facilities required to round-out or improve operating efficiency, balance production, or otherwise develop maximum utilization of the existing project;

(iii) Such expenditures shall not be used for any new structure, the estimated cost of which exceeds $25,000, nor for camouflage or any administration buildings or cafeterias but may be used for alterations or extensions of existing facilities of this character;

(iv) Prior to the end of each such quarter-year the supply service shall approve a supplemental schedule setting forth the facilities and estimated costs thereof required for the ensuing quarter-year and no expenditure for the second, third, or fourth quarter shall be made except for items included in such supplemental schedule approved by the supply service for such quarter-year.

The supply services will provide either in the contract specifications or by instructions to contracting officers for the marking by contractors of containers in conformance with the principles set forth in the preceding paragraphs. (i) Cylinders originally made for other agencies

(5) If such cylinders are required for export and it is not practicable in the time available to stamp the added marks, any or all of the procedure specified in the foregoing subparagraphs may be omitted.

The Secretary of War or the Under Secretary of War upon request will make further delegations. In the event the chief of any supply service desires that the authority referred to in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (h) be delegated to other officers, such chief shall forward to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, a memorandum specifying the office to whom such delegation should be made and the extent of such delegation. The title of the position held and not the name of the individual officer should be specified. The powers, duties and authorities referred to in paragraph (h) shall not be redelegated by the chiefs of the supply services under the authority to redelegate conferred in § 81.107 (1).

PRICE EEGULATIONS

Section 81.1130 to 81.1135 are added as follows:

§ 81.1130 General—(a) Scope of §§ 31.1130-81.1135. Sections 81.1130 to 81.1135, inclusive, deal with problems arising from or associated with the application of the maximum price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration to purchases made by the War Department. The basic authority for OPA actions is to be found in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 (Public, 421, 77th Congress), as amended by Act of October 2, 1942 (Public, 729, 77th Congress), and in Executive Order 9250, promulgated October 3, 1942. The following discussion of maximum price regulations and various orders issued by

OPA is introductory and is not intended to be complete. Complete details and the text of OPA regulations may be procured from the Federal Register, or may be had from any OPA office. Should these sources fail, inquiries should be sent through the Chief of the Supply Service concerned to the Price Regulation Branch, Purchases Divisions, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, Washington, D. C.

(b) Function of Price Regulation Branch. (1) Because of penalties imposed by the Emergency Price Control Act upon manufacturers who violate price ceilings, manufacturers must proceed with caution in the acceptance of contracts. To accelerate the placing of-contracts, it is important that procurement personnel be familiar with the problems involved and able on occasions to be of assistance or guidance to contractors. It is an important function of the Price Regulation Branch to expedite the solution of specific problems.

(2) Whenever contact or negotiation is necessary between one of the services and the office of Price Administration on any price regulation or rationing problem which involves a general policy or might affect more than one of the services, the negotiations will be conducted through the Chief, Price Regulation Branch, Purchases Division.

§ 81.1131 Applicable OPA regulations-(a) Specific commodity price regulations. Beginning in February, 1941, the OPA began promulgating "maximum price schedules". One hundred and five such schedules were issued prior to February 11, 1942, when the Administrator took office under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. Up to that time, there was no directly applicable statute authorizing price control. However, the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 expressly validated previous schedules and gave the Administrator express power to issue "maximum price regulations". Up to the end of December, 1942, some 289 specific commodity price regulations (or schedules) had been issued. Certain "price schedules" have been re-promulgated as "price regulations"; but whether or not re-promulgated, a "price schedule" is equally effective as a "price regulation" in imposing a maximum price. See § 81.1135 for a list of maximum price regulations and schedules of possible interest to procurement officers.

(b) The General Maximum Price Regulation. On April 28, 1942, the OPA Administrator issued the General Maximum Price Regulation, commonly known and hereafter referred to as the GMPR, placing a price ceiling on practically all commodities and services sold or rendered by manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, if not covered by specific price regulations. (See § 81.1132 for Exemptions.) Except for certain procedural requirements, this regulation, however, does not apply to transactions covered by any other price regulation, either past or future. The OPA is continuing to issue new specific price regulations. With respect to sales or deliveries to or contracts with the War Department or the Navy Department, the effective date of the GMPR is July 1, 1942. In general, ceiling prices on items covered by this regulation are based on the highest prices charged in March, 1942. Reference should be made to the regulation itself for an exact statement of such provisions of the methods for determining maximum prices for articles to which the formula for determining price in accordance with the highest price charged in March 1942 cannot apply. Commodities and services that are included under specific price regulations, past or future, remain or become subject to the specific price ceilings, even though they may be exempt from the GMPR under a supplementary regulation, unless specifically exempted by the terms of the specific price regulation itself. (See § 81.1132 (d)).

(c) War Department; OPA Agreement, September 1942. From the foregoing, it will be noted that items now entirely exempt from regulation may by some future date be brought under regulation by a new specific price regulation. However, by recent agreement between the OPA and the War Department, military items exempt in September 1942, will remain exempt, whether exempted from the GMPR by Supplemental Regulation No. 4 (§ 81.1132 (a)) or from a specific regulation by its terms. Under this agreement, the OPA has reserved the right to resume control over exempt items if it develops that the War Department is unable to control prices effectively through its own procurement policies.

(d) The Service Regulation; MPR 165. As above noted (paragraph (b) all services (along with commodities) were brought under control of OPA by the GMPR. Effective August 19, 1942, Maximum Price Regulation 165 brought under specific control a long list of services, leaving those not specifically listed still covered by the GMPR, subject to exemptions. (See § 81.1132 (e).)

§ 81.1132 Exemptions—(a) Exemptions under Supplementary Regulation No. 4 of the GMPR. (1) Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 4, effective July 1, 1942, provides that the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not apply to sales or deliveries of the following commodities or in the following transactions:

(i) Sales or deliveries to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the government of any country whose de-fense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States," or any agency of such government, of aircraft, ammunition, armored trains, artillery, balloon barrage equipment, bombs, bomb sights, caissons, fire control equipment, gas masks, grenades, gun sights, military bridges, mines, mortars, projectiles, pyrotechnics, small arms, ships and boats and torpedoes; and amphibians, armored vehicles, automobiles, tanks, trailers and trucks for military purposes.

(ii) Component parts and subassemblies of any product set forth under (a) above, regardless of the person to whom sold or delivered. The term "component parts and subassemblies" includes all metallic and non-metallic component parts, adjuncts and accessories which have been machined or fabricated. The term does not include raw or unfinished materials or any other materials which are in such form as to permit their uso in the manufacture of products other than those set forth under (a) above.

(iii) Any manufacturing service performed by a person other than the manufacturer in the production of any product set forth under (a) and (b) above, if all or part of the material on which such service is performed is supplied by the manufacturer.

(iv) Military propellants and explosives.

(v) Developmental contracts or subcontracts, secret contracts, and emergency purchases.

(vi) Sales and deliveries to the United States or any of its agencies of certain canned foods.

(vii) Sales and deliveries to the armed forces of the United States of certain dried fruits and of dehydrated vegetables.

(viii) Sales and deliveries to the armed forces of the United States of beef and veal, or any products made from them, under contracts entered into prior to July 13, 1942.

2. The above is not an exact or complete quotation. In specific cases reference should be made to the text of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 4, which also contains other exceptions. It is to be noted that the exceptions are from the GMPR; articles exempt from the GMPR may be covered by a specific MPR.

(b) Commodities excepted from the GMPR by Supplementary Regulation No. 1. Certain commodities, certain kinds of sales and deliveries (as for example the sale and delivery of used, damaged or waste material by the War Department), and certain services have been excepted from the application of the GMPR by Supplementary Regulation No. 1. Reference is made to said Regulation for a complete list of exceptions, some of which may be of interest to procurement officers.

(c) Exemption of sales by Army stores. By Supplementary Order 27 effective November 14, 1942, all sales and deliveries of any commodity by the War Department through the Department's sales stores, including commissaries, Army canteens, and Post exchanges, were exempted from all price regulation. The OPA retained the right, however, to bring such sales under control by specific provisions inserted in a regulation issued at a later date.

(d) Exemptions contained in specific price regulations. Certain of the specific maximum price regulations contain exemptions of the commodities covered by them of interest to Procurement Officers. These exemptions may be in whole or in part, and are effected by various methods, among which may be enumerated;

·(1) By the incorporation by general reference of all supplementary regula-tions to the GMPR, including Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 4;

(2) By exempting sales to the United States and all agencies thereof;

(3) By incorporating by reference certain of the clauses of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 4;

(4) By clauses specifically excluding secret and developmental contracts or emergency purchases or all three from the coverage of the specific price regulation. (See paragraph (f) of this section.)

(e) Exemptions of services. By Supplementary Regulation No. 11 effective August 19, 1942, a large number of special services were exempted from the provisions of the GMPR. By an amendment effective December 3, 1942, the provisions of MPR 165 were specifically made non-applicable to the services exempted by Supplementary Regulation No. 11, as well-as to those services exempted by Supplementary Regulation No. 4.

(f) Exemption of developmental and secret contracts and emergency purchases. (1) By Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 4, developmental and secret contracts and subcontracts entered into, and emergency purchases made by, the United States or any of its agencies are exempt from the GMPR. In addition, certain of the specific Maximum Price Regulations exempt such contracts and purchases, either specifically or by incorporating by general or specific reference the exemptions of such contracts and purchases contained in-Supplementary Regulation No. 4. Reference must be made in each case to the applicable MPR to ascertain whether or not: these contracts and purchases are excluded therefrom. In the case of both developmental and secret contracts, the exemption applies only during such period as is necessary for development or for the preservation of secrecy. A contract or subcontract is deemed to be "developmental" if the manufacturer or supplier requires a period of time for the accumulation of sufficient production experience to permit him to make a fair estimate of his manufacturing costs, or if the purchaser under such contract or subcontract requires a period of time to select a product, or both. To satisfy the definition of "emergency" for purposes of the exemption.

(i) The subject matter of the purchase must be needed at once, and

(ii) At least a portion of the purchase must be capable of immediate delivery. In any case, the emergency exemption is applicable only to the quantity immediately deliverable. The exemption will not apply to contracts or agreements for future delivery.

2. By the terms of the Service Regulation (MPR 165) sales of services pursuant to developmental and secret contracts and subcontracts entered into, and emergency purchases made by, any war procurement agency were exempted from the application of this Regulation and also the GMPR. In general, the same qualifications apply to developmental contracts and to emergency purchases as described above in this paragraph in connection with Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 4; except that for services the developmental period is limited to ninety days.

§ 81.1133 Procedure for obtaining exemption under developmental and secret contracts and emergency purchases or for relief from a price regulation—(a) Procedure under developmental contracts. To obtain exemption of the sale or delivery of any commodity manufactured or service supplied pursuant to a developmental contract or subcontract it is necessary (1) that the contract or subcontract be certified in writing to the OPA, Washington, D. C. by the United States or its agency as being a developmental contract or subcontract and (2) that the manufacturer of the commodity or supplier of the service file a report with the OPA, Washington, D. C. within ten days after entering into any such contract or subcontract. The form of certification to be used by the purchasing agency is not standardized, but all that need be stated is:

In accordance with the provisions of Maximum Frice Regulation No. ______, Section ______, (or General Maximum) the following contract is hereby certified as "developmental", Contract No. ______, Date of Contract ______, Name and address of the supplier ______, Commodity covered ______,

This certification should be sent in duplicate to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., Attention War Goods Price Coordinator.

(b) Procedure under secret contracts. To obtain exemption of the sale or delivery of any commodity manufactured or service supplied pursuant to a secret contract or subcontract it is necessary that it be certified as such to the OPA by the purchasing agency. Such certification need only set forth the date of the secret contract and its number or other designation, not including the commodity covered or the name or address of the supplier. This certification should be sent to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., attention: War Goods Price Coordinator.

(c) Procedure under emergency purchases. To obtain exemption of the emergency purchase for any commodity for immediate delivery or of services for immediate performance, it is necessary that the purchasing officer, whenever such a purchase is made above maximum prices, file a report with OPA in Washington within five days (ten days in the case of services) after the purchase is made. This report must certify that it was imperative to secure the commodity or service immediately and that it was impossible to secure or unfair to require immediate delivery or performance at the applicable maximum price. The report should set forth (1) the name and address of the seller (2) the date of purchase (3) the date of delivery or performance (4) the description of the commodity purchased or service performed the quantity purchased or performed (6) the price at which purchased or supplied, and (7) a brief statement of the facts giving rise to the emergency situation. This report should be sent in duplicate to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Attention: War Goods Price Coordinator. No report is required in the case of services unless the total price thereof exceeds $500.00 and a similar exemption is extended in some specific MPR's to emergency purchases.

(d) Procedure for obtaining relief. OPA Procedural Regulation No. 6, effective July 3, 1942, sets forth the procedure to be followed in all cases except when otherwise specifically provided to obtain prompt adjustments of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contract or sub-contract. The regulation provides that any person who has entered into or proposes to enter into a Government contract, or subcontract under a Government contract, and who believes that an established maximum price impades of threatens to impade production of a commedity or supply of a service which is essential to the war program, may apply for adjustment of that maximum price. Any Government agency may appear as an interested party under any such application. Upon the filing of an application and pending the issuance of an order by the OPA granting or denying the application, contracts or subcontracts may be entered into, and deliveries made at the price requested in the application, subject to later refunds and price reduction if the application is denied. Applications involving contracts exceeding $5,000,000 in value must be filed with the OPA in Washington, D. C. Other applications (with a few exceptions) may be filed either with the appropriate regional office of the OPA or with the OPA in Washington, D. C.

§ 81.1134 Compliance—(a) Responsibility of contracting officers. (1) Contracting Officers, in executing contracts, unless otherwise specifically directed, are not required to verify the prices charged by any vendor or contractor against the maximum prices fixed in accordance with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in the absence of actual knowledge of violation of price limitations, they may assume that prices charged do not exceed maximum prices. Likewise, in connection with cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, contracting officers in approving items for reimbursement are not responsible for determining whether the costs of materials, supplies, tools, equipment or machinery exceed the maximum prices thus fixed. In the interests of economical purchasing, however, contracting officers are expected to exert reasonable effort to be familiar with the OPA regulations that apply to the commodities and services which they buy.

(2) Where a contracting officer is definitely informed that the price or proposed price of a commodity or service is in excess of the OPA maximum, he should proceed as follows:

(i) Try to negotiate a reduction in the price to conform to the OPA standard:

(ii) If such a reduction proves impossible, endeavor to have the contractor file an application for an adjustment of the established maximum price with OPA under Procedural Regulation 6 (see § 81.1133 (d));

(iii) If necessary, and if immediate deliveries can be made, make emergency purchases for immediate delivery in excess of the OPA maxima, complying with the requirements set forth in § 81.1133 (c);

- (iv) If recourse to the foregoing methods proves unsuccessful and the contracting officer believes an impairment of production of essential war material is threatened, report should be made at once to the Chief of the Supply Service concerned and the services of the Price Regulation Branch enlisted to remove the impediment.
- (v) As a last resort, the statutes provide for the requisition of needed articles already in existence, and for mandatory orders to compel the supply of essential military items. For the conditions and procedures governing the use of these methods, see § 81.246 (a) and §§ 81.1401 to 81.1428.
- (b) Acceptance of contractor's certification. The action of certifying and disbursing officers in connection with such price limitations is governed by Fiscal Directive SPBFA-11A, June 19, 1942, providing as follows:
- 1. The certification now required on Standard Form No. 1034-revised, as used in connection with payments made to vendors or contractors for purchases or services renered other than personal will be continued in use and is a proper and sufficient warranty of compliance by the vendor or contractor with the price ceilings established in accordance with the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, Public Law 421, approved January 30, 1942.
- 2. In the absence of actual knowledge of violation of price limitations, certifying officers may rely upon the certificate of the vendor or contractor as to the correctness of the prices charged and will not be required to verify such prices against maxima established by the Office of Price Administration. Disbursing Officers may rely upon their records and the certificate of the vendor or contractor and will not be required to verify such maxima prices.
- Disbursing officers will make payment in accordance with the above outlined procedure.

The form of certification (Standard Form 1034) is as follows:

I certify that the above bill is correct and just; that payment therefor has not been received; that all statutory requirements as to American production and labor standards, and all conditions of purchase applicable to the transactions have been compiled with; and that State or local sales taxes are not included in the amounts billed.

The words "the above bill is correct and just" and "all conditions of purchase applicable to the transactions have been complied with" constitute a proper and sufficient warranty by the vendors and contractors that the prices billed are within any applicable price ceilings established by the OPA. Accordingly, no additional certificate or statement by the vendors and contractors with respect to maximum prices should be required. Also, no special certificate accompanying quotations, or warranty in the contract with respect to compliance with price regulations will be required.

(c) Exemption from liability of contracting and finance officers. Supplementary Order No. 7, entitled "Removal of Liability of War Procurement Agencies and Governments whose Defense is Vital to the Defense of the United States," effective July 11, 1942, provides that prohibitions contained in maximum price regulations against buying or receiving a commodity or service at a price higher than the permitted maximum shall not apply to (1) any War Procurement Agency of the United States or any contracting or paying finance officer thereof or (2) the Government of any country whose defense is deemed by the President to be vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941. It provides further that any such War Procurement Agencies or contracting or paying fi-nance officers of any such government or agency, shall be relieved of any criminal or civil liability imposed by a maximum price regulation or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The OPA statement of considerations involved in the issuance of Supplementary Order No. 7 states such purchases are typically not purchases "in the course of trade or business" within the meaning of the Act.

(d) Non-exemption of contractors holding War Department contracts. The OPA had advised, however, that this exemption is applicable only to Government contracting officers in connection with Government purchases and does not extend to purchases made by contractors even when operating under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, and even though purchases made by them are reimbursable by the Government. Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors, as well as all other prime contractors, are buyers "in the course of trade or business" within the meaning of section 4 (a) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and are, therefore, subject to the prohibitions of that section.

§ 81.1135 Index of Army purchase items. For convenience of identification of applicable price regulations an index of articles commonly purchased for the Army, taken substantially from Army Purchase Information Bulletin, is incorporated in this section (paragraph (b)) followed by a further list of the price regulations by numerical sequence (paragraph (c)). These lists are subject to revision and must be used with caution, bearing in mind that OPA is constantly issuing changes and revisions, and from time to time is placing articles now under the GMPR under the control of Specific Price Regulations, or shifting them from the coverage of one MPR to another.

(a) OPA revisions of price regulations. Whenever the Office of Price Administration makes an industry-wide revision of ceiling prices on any item purchased by the War Department, or other revision in ceiling prices affecting products purchased by the War Department, the Office of the Chief of the Supply Service involved will notify all contracting officers concerned and the Service's Price Analysis Section. For the information of the Supply Services the Price Regulation Branch will issue bulletins from time to time summarizing all such changes or other actions of OPA affecting Army procurement made or taken during the preceding period. The Chiefs of the Supply Services will designate a suitable officer or employee who shall be charged with the duty of disseminating all such information.

(b) General index of articles purchased and applicable OPA regulations.

STATUTORY RENEGOTIATION

§ 81.1201 Scope of section. (a) Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1942 (Public 528, 77th Congress, approved April 28, 1942) as amended by section 801 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public 753, 77th Congress, approved on October 21, 1942), which provides for renegotiation of certain war contracts and subcontracts, is called "section 403, as amended", and "the Act" in this Regulation, and renegotiation pursuant to its provisions is called "statutory renegotiation".

(b) Sections 81.1201-81.1210 and additional sections now in preparation discuss the various aspects of statutory renegotiation, in three parts. (1) Sections 81.1202-81.1204 deal with the provisions of section 403, as amended, and the exemptions and exclusions therefrom. (2) Sections 81,1204-81,1207 discuss the contract articles for stautory renegotiation and their use. (3) Sections are in preparation which deal generally with the policies and procedure governing statutory renegotiation.

RENEGOTIATION STATUTE · AND EXEMPTIONS

§ 81.1202 Statutory provisions—(a) Renegotiation Act. The full text of subsections (a) to (i) of section 403, as amended, is set forth in paragraphs (a) to (i), inclusive, of § 81.1290.

(b) Section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code referred to in subsection (c) (3) of section 403, as amended, is set out in paragraph (j) of § 81.1290. Under that section the amount of federal income and excess profits taxes paid or payable with respect to any excessive profits must be credited against the amount of such profits in computing the amount to be refunded by the contractor or subcontractor, or otherwise recovered.

§ 81.1203 Effect of Act—(a) Cover-. age. (1) The Act applies to all contracts made by the War. Navy and Treasury Departments and the Maritime Commission (called herein Departments) and subcontracts thereunder, with the exceptions stated under paragraph (d) of this section and § 81.1204. With those exceptions, the Act directs the Secretary of each Department to require any contractor with his Department or subcontractor thereunder to renegotiate the contract price with him whenever in his opinion the profits realized or likely to be realized from the contract or subcontract may be excessive, whether or not the contract or subcontract contains a renegotiation clause.

(2) Subcontracts include purchase orders or agreements to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any article, material, part, assembly, machinery, equipment or other personal property, required for the performance of another war contract or subcontract. Such subcontracts are not limited to those made by the prime contractor but include those made by subcontractors and sub-subcontractors down through the various tiers unless specifically exempt. (Subsections (a) and (c), paragraphs (a) and (c) of § 81.1290) (b) Contract articles. With With certain exceptions discussed under § 81.1204, the Act requires that each prime contract over $100,000 contain a contract article (1) providing for renegotiation of the price and (2) requiring the contractor to insert a similar article in each subcontract over $100,000 made by him. As stated in paragraph (a) of this cection, contracts or subcontracts which do not include a renegotiation article are nevertheless subject to the Act unless they are expressly excluded.

(c) Administration of renegotiation.

Subsections (c) to (f) of the Act provide for its administration. The principal provisions are as follows:

(1) In his discretion, the Secretary may renegotiate with a contractor or subcontractor holding two or more contracts or subcontracts to eliminate excessive profits on some or all of them as a group without separately renegotiating the contract price of each of them (Subs. (c) (1)).

(2) The Act specifies that excessive costs shall not be allowed, but properly applicable exclusions and deductions of the character allowed under Chapters 1 and 2E of the Internal Revenue Code shall be recognized, and credit shall be given for Federal income and excess profits taxes in accordance with section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code (Subs. (c)(3)). Subsections (d) and (e) give extensive powers to obtain information and statements.

(3) The Secretary is directed to eliminate excessive profits (i) by reductions in price and other contract revisions; (ii) by withholding from amounts otherwice due, any amount of such excessive profits; (iii) by directing a contractor to withhold for the account of the United States from amounts otherwise due the subcontractor any amount of such excessive profits; (iv) by recovery by repayment, credit or suit, of any amount of excessive profits actually paid; or (v) by any combination of these (Subs. (c) (2)).

(4) The Secretary is authorized to make final or other agreements for the elimination of excessive profits and for the discharge of any liability under the Act. They may cover past or future periods and are final according to their terms and may not be reopened except for fraud, malfeasance or wilful misrepresentation (Subs. (c) (4)).

(5) The Secretary may delegate his authority and discretion under the Act within his own or another Department (Subs. (f)).

(d) Exclusions. (1) The Act does not apply to any contract or subcontract on which final payment was made before April 28, 1942 (Subsection (c) (6), paragraph (c) of § 81.1290).

(2) A contract or subcontract is not subject to stautory renegotiation where the aggregate sales of the contractor or subcontractor and its affiliates (including all persons controlling, controlled by, or under common control with it) under all such contracts and subcontracts do not or, in the opinion of the Secretary, will not exceed $100,000 during its fiscal year (Subsection (c) (6), paragraph (c) of § 81.1290).

(3) Certain contracts or subcontracts are exempt or may be exempted from the statute under subsections (b) and (i) of the Act (Paragraph (b) and (i) of § 81.1230). These exemptions are discurred under § 81.1204.

(e) Limitations on time for commencing renegotiation. The statute contains the following provisions limiting the time for commencing renegotiation.

(1) Individual contracts. Under subsection (c) (6) of the Act renegotiation of a contract or subcontract must be commenced within one year after the close of the contractor's fiscal year in which the contract is completed or terminated, as determined by the Secretary of the Department.

(2) Fiscal Year. Under subsection (c) (5) of the Act, a contractor or sub-contractor may obtain clearance for a prior fiscal year by filing such financial and cost statements for that year, in such form and detail, as the Secretaries prescribe by joint regulation. Unless the Secretary gives notice to renegotiate within one year from the date of filing, and commences renegotiation within sixty days of such notice, the contractor or subcontractor may not be required to renegotiate for that fiscal year.

(3) Contractual. Under subsection (b) of the Act, in the discretion of the Secretary, the contract may limit the period within which renegotiation may be had.

(4) Expiration of the Act. Subsection (h) of the Act provides that it shall remain in force during the war and for three years thereafter, but that court proceedings do not abate upon its termination.

§ 81.1204 Exemptions from statutory renegotiation - (a) Statutory provisions—(1) Mandatory exemptions. Under subsection (1) of section 403 (i), the Act does not apply (i) to certain governmental contracts and (ii) to contracts and subcontracts for certain raw materials. These exemptions are set out in § 81.1290 (i) and discussed in paragraphs (c) and (d) of §81.1204.

(2) Discretionary exemptions. Under subsections 403 (b) and (i) (2) the Secretary of a Department or his authorized representative may exempt from part or all of the Act any contracts or subcontracts (i) to be performed outside of the United States, or in Alaska, or (ii) under which the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty when the contract price is established, or (iii) to the extent that the provisions of the contract are otherwise adequate to prevent excessive profits. Such exemptions may be made by individual contracts and subcontracts or by general classes or types, and may cover only a part of the contract or subcontract or of the performance thereunder. (See paragraphs (b) and (i) of § 81.1290). These exemptions are discussed in paragraphs (b) and (e) et seq. of this section.

(b) Delegations of discretionary power to exempt. The discretion to grant exemptions under section 403 (b) and 403 (i) (2) is delegated to the supply services only to the extent provided in the following paragraphs. Where these paragraphs authorize the chief of a supply service to make such exemptions then:

- (1) He may personally exempt general classes or types of contracts or subcontracts within the specified categories but each such exemption shall be forwarded to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, for publication in these procurement regulations and shall become effective only after such publication;
- (2) He may personally exempt such contracts or subcontracts individually (See § 81.1208 (d); or
- (3) He may redelegate to officers or civilian officials in his service the discretion to make such exemptions of individual contracts if, but only if, he prescribes standards for the exercise of such discretion, approved by the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.
- (c) Contracts with governmental agencies. (1) In this regulation the term "Department" means the War; Navy and Treasury Departments and the Maritime Commission; and the term "other Government agency" includes (i) any department, bureau, agency or governmental corporation of the United States, except one of the Departments, (ii) any territory, possession or state or any agency thereof, and (iii) any foreign government or any agency thereof.
- (2) Section 403 as amended does not apply to (i) any contract between a Department and any other Government agency; (ii) any contract between a contractor with a Department or a subcontractor thereunder, and any other Government agency; (iii) any contract made by the other Government agency in connection with a contract with one of the Departments, or one of their contractors, or subcontractors, unless the other Government agency is acting merely as an agent for the Department concerned (Subs. (i) (1) (i)).
- (3) Thus no contract between the War Department or one of its contractors or subcontractors and the Defense Supplies Corporation, the Defense Plant Corporation, the Metals Reserve Company, Rubber Reserve Company or similar agencies is subject to statutory renegotiation. Likewise no contract made by such Government corporations or agencies, even though made in connection with 2 War Department contract or subcontract, is subject to statutory renegotiation unless made solely as agent for one of the Departments named in the Act.

- (4) Accordingly, no article for statutory renegotiation under section 403, as amended, will be included in any such contract or subcontract.
- (d) Contracts and subcontracts for raw materials. (1) By subsection 403 (i) (1) (ii), the Act does not apply to
- (ii) any contract or subcontract for the product of a mine, oil or gas well, or other mineral or natural deposit, or timber, which has not been processed, refined, or treated beyond the first form or state suitable for industrial use; and the Secretaries are authorized by joint regulation, to define, interpret and apply this exemption.

Under this authority the Secretaries have issued a joint regulation interpreting the exemption and specifying certain commodities which are within its terms. The text of this regulation is contained in § 81.1291.

(2) This exemption also extends to all contracts made in connection with the performance of any such exempt contract or subcontract for raw materials.

- (3) No article for statutory renegotiation under Section 403 as amended will be included in any contract or subcontract for one of the exempted products. (See: paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 81.1209.)
- (e) Contracts and subcontracts outside of the United States. (1) The chief of a supply service is authorized, in his discretion, to exempt from some or all of the provisions of section 403, as amended, any contract with his supply service, or any subcontract thereunder, which is to be performed outside of the territorial limits of the continental United States, or in Alaska. This authority applies to existing as well as future contracts and subcontracts.
- (2) War Department Circular No. 43, February 9, 1943, delegated to each commanding general outside of the United States or in Alaska, like authority with respect to contracts made or administered under his authority, and subcontracts thereunder.
- (3) When a contract is exempted under this paragraph, Form II (§ 81.342 (b)) will be inserted in it unless all subcontracts thereunder have also been exempted.
- (f) Patent Licenses. The chief of a supply service may exempt from some or all of the provisions of section 403, as amended, any contract granting to the Government a license under a patent or a patent application or transferring a patent or patent application to the Government, if the aggregate royalty payable under the contract for its duration or for any stated period is either (i) a fixed amount determinable at the time of the execution of the contract, or (ii) limited by contract to a maximum amount determinable at the time of the execution of the contract, and if, in his opinion, the fixed amount or maximum amount will not yield excessive profits to the contractor. In all other cases, the renegotiation article will be included in the contract. In such cases subsections (a), (b), (c) and (f) (1), (3) and (4) of Form I (see § 81.342 (a)) will be used. (See also § 81.1112.)

(g) Exemption from renegotiation in connection with periodic adjustment of price. Sections 81.1240-81.1247 authorize the use under certain conditions of contract articles providing for periodic adjustment of price and corresponding exemption from renegotiation. Where these contract articles are used, the contracting officer in charge of the contract is authorized in his discretion to grant exemption from renegotiation in accordance with the contract provisions and the related procurement regulations.

CONTRACT ARTICLES FOR STATUTORY RENEGOTIATION

§ 81.1207 Articles authorized; deviations. Standard forms of contract articles approved for use in accordance with this regulation to satisfy the statutory requirements set forth in § 81.1290 (b) are contained in paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 81.342 of these Regulations. The article set forth in § 81.342 (a) is hereafter called "Form I" and the article in § 81.342 (b) is hereafter called "Form II". Except as expressly authorized in this Regulation or subsequent instructions, deviations from the standard articles will not be used.

§ 81.1208 Use of articles—(a) Fixed price contracts. Subject to § 81.1204 et seq., Form I will be included in all fixed price or lump sum contracts hereafter made for an amount in excess of $100,000.

(b) Fixed fee contracts. Subject to § 81.1204 et seq., Form I will be included in every fixed-fee contract, where the amount of the estimated cost plus the fixed-fee is in excess of $100,000. In using Form I in fixed-fee contracts, the words "fixed fee specified in Article * * " will be substituted for the term "contract price" in paragraphs (a) and (c).

(c) Supplemental agreements. With respect to supplemental agreements (which as used herein include change orders) the following principles will be observed:

(1) Subject to § 81.1204 et seq., every supplemental agreement for an amount in excess of $100,000 will include either Form I or Form II, whichever is appropriate, unless the contract to which the supplemental agreement relates contains an adequate renegotiation article which will apply to the supplemental agreement.

(2) If the chief of the supply service determines that it will be practicable to renegotiate the contract price of the supplemental agreement separately, the renegotiation article may be limited in its application to the supplemental agreement; otherwise, the renegotiation article included in the supplemental agreement will be made to apply to the original contract as well as the supplemental agreement.

(3) When Form I is to be limited to the supplemental agreement, subsection (4) of section (f) will be omitted and the following section will be added to the Article:

(g) This Article applies only to the supplemental agreement by which it was added (as modified from time to time), and shall be construed accordingly: (1) the term "this contract" means that supplemental agreement; (2) the term "the contract price" means the price-provided by that supplemental agreement; and (3) the obligation of the Contractor under section (d) to insert renegotiation provisions in subcontracts applies only to subcontracts made under that supplemental agreement.

- (4) When Form II is to be limited to the supplemental agreement, subsection (4) of section (c) will be omitted, and the following section will be added to the Article:
- (d) This Article applies only to the supplemental agreement by which it was added (as modified from time to time), and shall be construed accordingly: (1) the term "this contract" means that supplemental agreement; and (2) the obligation of the Contractor under section (a) to insert renegotiation provisions in subcontracts applies only to subcontracts made under that supplement agreement.
- (5) When the renegotiation article (Form I or Form II) is to apply to the original contract, as well as to the supplemental agreement, the Article will be added to the original contract by the supplemental agreement and the first sentence of section (d) of Form I or of section (a) of Form II, whichever is used, will be modified to read as follows:
- The Contractor will include in each subcontract for an amount in excess of $100,000 made under this contract after the date of the supplemental agreement which added this Article, the following provisions:

By this change the obligation of the contractor to insert renegotiation provisions in subcontracts will be limited to those made after the date of the supplemental agreement which adds the Article to the original contract.

(6) When the contract to which the supplemental agreement relates contains a renegotiation article, but its inadequacy requires insertion of the article in the supplemental agreement, and that article is limited to the supplemental agreement, the supplemental agreement may provide that in case of any conflict between the article in the original contract and the article in the supplemental agreement, then the article in the supplemental agreement agreement shall govern.

(d) Exempt contracts. When a contract or subcontract is exempt from statutory renegotiation under § 81.1204 (e) or (d), no article for statutory renegotiation pursuant to paragraphs (e) to (g), inclusive, of § 81.1204, Form I will be omitted from the contract, but Form II will be inserted unless all subcontracts under the contract will also be exempt from renegotiation under § 81.1204. When a contract or subcontract is individually exempted from Section 403, as amended, it will contain a statement showing (1) the extent of the exemption, (2) by whom it was granted, and (3) the provision of section 403, as amended, on which the exemption is based.

§ 81.1209 Deviations—(a) Substitution of article for prior form. Where a renegotiation provision pursuant to section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1942, has been included in a contract in a form different from that herein prescribed, the contracting officer is authorized to amend the contract to substitute the form herein prescribed for the earlier form if the contractor so desires.

(b) Fixed fee subcontracts. When the prime contractor makes a fixed-fee subcontract, the subcontract article for renegotiation will be revised by substituting the words "fixed-fee hereunder" for the term "contract price" in sections (1) and (3).

(c) Optional provision in subcontracts. Where a contractor with the War Department or a subcontractor thereunder is required by his contract to insert a renegotiation article in his subcontracts, and there is doubt (1) whether an agreement or order which he proposes to make or place is a subcontract under the Act, or (2) whether it is exempt from renegotiation under subsection (1) of the Act, he should insert the prescribed renegotiation article in the agreement or order, but may add the following additional provision at the end of the article:

(7) This article shall apply to this contract only if it is a "subcontract" subject to renegotiation under section 403 of the Sixth-Supplemental National Defence Appropriation Act, 1942, as amended by section 801 of the Revenue Act, 1942.

The authority to use this additional provision in accordance with this paragraph may be expressly added to the renegotiation article (§ 81.342 (a) or (b)) in any existing or future contract if it is so desired; but this authority may be used whether or not the contract or subcontract so provides.

(d) Contracts for raw material products whose status under section 403 (i) (1) (ii) is uncertain-optional provision. As stated in § 81.1204 (d), contracts for certain raw materials are exempt under subsection 403 (i) (1) (ii), and the Secretaries are authorized by joint regulation to define, interpret, and apply this exemption. Wherever a contract with the War Department covers the product of a mine, oil or gas well, or mineral or natural deposit or timber, and it is uncertain whether or not the product is within this exemption or joint regulation, the contract should include the standard renegotiation article if otherwise required but the following additional provision may be added at the end of the article:

(g) If any joint regulation issued pursuant to subsection (i) (1) (ii) of section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defence Appropriation Act, 1942, as amended, defines, interprets, or applies that subsection (i) (i) (ii) to exempt from the provisions of said section 403, as amended, contracts for any product or products covered by this contract, then the contract price for such product or products, if reparately stated herein, shall not be subject to renegotiation under this article.

§ 81.1210 Use of other articles. Statutory renegotiation under the contract articles discussed in § 81.1201 et seq. is for the purpose of preventing or eliminating excessive profits and is handled by the Price Adjustment Board and Price Adjustment Sections. As authorized by the Act, it is generally conducted on an over-all basis for the contractor's fiscal year rather than by individual contracts. Various other clauses discussed in the following sections designed to provide for adjustment of the price of the specific contract to meet various types of conditions, may be used in addition to the contract articles for statutory renegotiation.

CONTRACT ARTICLES FOR PRICE ADJUSTMENT ON THE BASIS OF PRODUCTION EXPERIENCE

§ 81.1220 Scope. In certain cases the cost of production under a contract cannot be estimated with reasonable accuracy at the time of its execution. For example, the item may be entirely new or the particular contract may lack experience with its production or its design may still be experimental or subject to radical changes or development. This section deals with contract provisions designed to meet these situations by adjusting the price on the basis of production experience after part performance. It includes articles for (a) price redetermination by formula, (b) price revision by negotiation, (c) conversion of fixed-fee contracts to fixed price contracts and (d) incentive adjustments in fixed-fees.

§ 81.1221 Effect of articles. The effect of these various articles and the differences between them are briefly as follows:

(a) Redetermination by formula. Under this article (§ 81.341 (a)) an itemized estimate of costs is stated in the contract. After a specified percentage of the work under the contract is completed the contractor is required to submit similarly itemized statements of the cost of a "preliminary run" and a "test run". Then the original price is reduced, not by negotiation but by formula reflecting the extent to which the total costs as indicated by the preliminary and test runs are less than the original estimate of costs.

(b) Negotiated revision of entire price. Under this article (§ $1.341 (b)) the entire contract price may be revised either upward or downward by negotiation in good faith after a specified part of the contract has been performed. The revised price applies both to past and future performance. It differs from redetermination (1) by relying on negotiation instead of a formula for making the adjustment and (2) by permitting adjustment upward as well as downward.

(c) Conversion of fixed-fee to fixed-price contracts. Two articles apply only to fixed-fee contracts. One of these provides for converting the fixed-fee contract to a fixed price contract by negotiation after part performance.

(d) Fixed-fee incentive provisions. The other article for fixed-fee contracts (§ 81.341 (d)) provides for adjustments in the fee either upward or downward on the basis of efficiency in performance.

§ 81.1222 Relation to other price adjustment articles. (a) The articles discussed in §§ 81.1220-81.1226 are distinct from those for statutory renegotiation under section 403, as amended. While statutory renegotiation is intended to eliminate excessive profits and is generally conducted on an over-all fiscal year basis, the articles in this section contemplate readjusting the price of the individual contract during its performance on the basis of production experience. These articles are for use in addition to statutory renegotiation provisions which must also be included in the contract in accordance with § 81.1208, unless the contract is exempt from renegotiation (see § 81.1204).

(b) Likewise, the articles in §§ 81.1220–81.1226, which assume a general uncertainty as to production costs when the contract is made, differ in purpose and scope from the articles covered by §§ 81.1230–81.1236 which provide for price adjustments to meet specific kinds of contingencies. In appropriate cases, however, both types of article may be included in the same contract.

(c) These articles also differ from those discussed in §§ 81.1240–81,1247. While those provide for exemption from statutory renegotiation, the articles in §§ 81.1220–81.1226 do not so provide and also contemplate only one revision in the price and not its periodic adjustment. Furthermore, the articles for periodic adjustment of price assume reasonable certainty as to costs, while those in §§ 81.1220–81.1226 are for cases of great uncertainty in costs.

§ 81.1223 Price redetermination by formula—(a) Article authorized. The article for price redetermination by formula set out in § 81.341 (a) is authorized for use in accordance with this regulation. Minor deviations may be made in this article but it will never be changed to allow redetermination of the price upward. When upward as well as downward price adjustment is desired, the article discussed in § 81.1224 will be used.

- (b) Use and operation of article. In using and operating this article for price redetermination the following principles will be observed:
- (1) Before agreeing to the use of this article the contracting officer will analyze or examine the cost accounting system of the contractor to satisfy himself that it is sufficiently accurate to permit the effective operation of this article.
- (2) The "preliminary run" is intended to cover the initial performance while production is getting under way and before costs have become stabilized. Accordingly it should include the percentage of the work or period which the contracting officer estimates will be needed before costs level off and become reasonably typical. The "test run" should cover an adequate period after such costs are expected to become reasonably stable. Unless these two periods will be completed before forty per cent of the contract is performed this article will not be used without special permission from the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters Army Service Forces.
- (3) After the contractor submits the itemized statements of costs for the "preliminary run" and for the "test run" the contracting officer should make sufficient check to satisfy himself that they are accurate and reliable. If necessary he may examine the books and records of the contractor for this purpose.

(4) On the basis of the statements submitted and any other data obtained from the books and records of the contractor or otherwise, the contracting officer should determine the total costs for the "preliminary run" and for the "test run" and for the remainder of the contract. This should be done objectively as a factual determination: If the contractor disagrees with the decision of the contracting officer he may appeal under the Disputes Article. The contract price should be reduced by the difference between the total costs as so determined and the original estimated costs.

(5) Upon redetermination of the price, amounts paid for items theretofore delivered in excess of the new price shall be refunded to the Government or applied against subsequent deliveries, as the contracting officer may direct. The new price and provisions for refunds will be evidenced by a supplemental agreement.

§ 81.1224 Negotiated revision of entire contract price-upward or downward-(a) Article authorized. The article for a negotiated price revision set out in § 81.341 (b) is authorized for use in accordance with this regulation. Under this article the contract price for past and future deliveries is revised upward or downward by negotiation after a specified part of the contract has been performed. This will be used only in special cases where the developmental or experimental nature of the item or the lack of previous production experience with it or other causes, prevent reliable estimates of costs when the contract is made and make it essential to provide in the contract for later revision of the initial price in the light of actual production experience. Minor deviations may be made in this article, but it will never be changed to obligate the Government to increase the price on the basis of costs or any other formula, or to do more than negotiate in good faith to revise the price.

(b) Use and operation of article. In using and operating this article (§ 31.-341 (b)) the following principles will be observed:

(1) When the article is to be used the contracting officer will satisfy himself that the cost accounting system of the contractor is sufficiently accurate to provide reasonable information as to costs of production experienced in performing the contract.

(2) The time fixed in the contract for negotiation to revise the price will depend upon the circumstances in each case. The period before revision should be sufficient to allow costs to become reasonably stable and capable of estimation with reasonable accuracy, but it should not be longer than is necessary for this purpose. Generally, performance of about twenty per cent of the contract should be an adequate trial period; in no case will the trial period exceed forty per cent of the contract without special permission from the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

(3) In return for the agreement by the Government to negotiate to revise the price upward the contractor will be required to eliminate from the original prices substantially all allowances for contingencies.

(4) When the contractor submits the statements of costs for the trial period and estimates for the remainder of the contract, the contracting officer will make a sufficient check to satisfy himself that they are reasonably accurate and reliable. If necessary he may examine the books and records of the contractor for this purpose.

- (5) Negotiations to revise the price should be conducted upon much the same basis as an original contract negotiation when like information on costs is available. Consideration will be given to all pertinent factors which have affected the contractor's costs during the trial period or which are likely to affect such costs during the remainder of the contract, and to all pertinent factors bearing upon the profit margin which it is reasonable for the contractor to earn under the circumstances, including the fact that the contract article reduces certain (f the risks of performance. As a standard the contracting officer should estimate costs of producing the item in the contractor's plant by efficient management and operation, plus a reasonable profit. If the contracting officer concludes that the contractor's operations are inefficient and that his costs are high, he will limit the revised price accordingly; on the other hand, if the contractor has reduced his costs by skillful management, careful buying or efficiency of production, the contemplated margin of profit under the contract may be increased in recognition of these facts. The contracting officer should bear in mind that the costs of production during the first part of the contract will almost always be substantially higher than those during the remainder of the contract. Consequently average costs during the trial period are generally not an accurate index of the costs for the remainder of the contract. Allowance should be made for this fact in fixing the revised prices.
- (6) A revised price will be evidenced by a supplemental agreement, which will also provide for making appropriate credits or payments by the contractor or payments to him for the difference between the prices actually paid for items theretofore delivered and the revised price,
- § 81.1225 Article for converting fixedfee contracts to fixed price basis—(a) Use of article. In accordance with § 81.232(c), fixed-fee contracts will include, whenever feasible, the article set out in § 81.341 (c) providing for conversion to a fixed price basis by negotiation after part performance. The time specifled for conversion should be the earliest at which sufficient experience and cost data will be available to fix a fair price.

Where possible, existing contracts will be amended to include this article.

(b) Basis of conversion. Such conversion is simpler if the fixed price basis is substituted for the entire contract, including past as well as future performance, and not merely for the remainder of the contract. When this is done, the price should be negotiated on the basis of the earlier experience, with appropriate allowance for declining costs, and should be fixed to yield approximately the cost plus the proportionate part of the fee for the past performance and a fair profit for the remainder of the contract. All previous payments made to the contractor should be applied against the amount due or to become due under the converted contract, or as advance payments, or partial payments against amounts to become due under it. By this method it will be unnecessary to evaluate the work in process or materials on hand, which will then assume their ordinary status under a fixed price contract, subject to any interest of the Government retained as security for advance or partial payments or for other purposes in accordance with the agreement to § 81.1226 Incentive provisions for fixed-fee contracts—(a) Use of article. Paragraph (d) of § 81.341 sets out an article providing for increasing or reducing the fixed-fee under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts on the basis of efficiency in performance. Under it the fee is adjusted by comparing a target estimate of costs fixed after part performance with actual costs for the same period. This article is designed to provide incentives for reductions in costs and efficient operations under such contracts, and will be used wherever feasible if conversion of the contract to a fixed price basis is not practical.

(b) Operation of article. In the operation of this article § 81.341 (d) the following principles will be observed:

(1) The trial or test period specified in the contract should be sufficient to allow costs of production to become reasonably stable and to provide reliable data on production costs.

(2) In fixing the estimate of costs for the remainder of the contract, the contracting officer will take into account the fact that costs during the first part of the contract will not necessarily be typical for the remainder.

(3) The increase or reduction in the fee will be based on the amount by which costs during the remainder of the contract have been reduced or increased by the efficiency or inefficiency of the contractor. In determining this amount the contracting officer will make allowance for changes in costs resulting from other causes.

(4) The amount of the increase or decrease of the fee shall be evidenced by supplemental agreement.

CONTRACT PROVISIONS FOR PRICE ADJUST-MENT UPON CONTINGENCIES AND SHORT-TERM PRICING

§ 81.1230 Scope. Frequently at the time the contract is negotiated, cost data and experience are sufficient to permit the fixing of a fair price on the basis of existing conditions, but some of the elements of cost which are not under the control of the contractor are expected to change during the life of the contract. Under such circumstances the contractor will seek to include in his price allowances to protect himself against such changes unless the Government agrees to adjust the price to compensate for them if they occur. It is therefore necessary in each case to decide which course is more to the advantage of the Government in the particular instance. Sections 81.1230-81.1236 deal with various types of contract provisions under which the Government assumes certain of the risks of such changes in conditions. When they are used the contractor will be required to eliminate from the price any allowances to cover such contin-

§ 81.1231 Changes article. The standard contract article for changes allows the Government to modify the specifications or shipping and packing instructions by written order and provides for an equitable adjustment if such changes cause increases or decreases in the amount due under the contract or the time required for its performance. Often, however, it is necessary for the Government to increase or decrease the quantity to be delivered under the contract in order to conform to changes in needs, material allotments and other factors. To facilitate such variations a modified form of the "Changes" article has been authorized by § 81.329a, which allows the Government to reduce or enlarge the quantity to be delivered under the contract within prescribed limits and provides for an equitable adjustment in price either up or down depending on the effect of the change.

§ 81.1232 Escalation—(a) Based on indices. During the early stages of the procurement program a standard escalator clause providing for price adjustments on the basis of general indices for various classes of labor and materials was authorized to protect contractors against serious inflationary price and wage rises during performance. With the greater stability of wages and material prices the need for such escalator clauses has decreased. Since the administration of such clauses is complex and requires extensive accounting and auditing, authority for their use has been rescinded and they will therefore not be included in contracts hereafter negotiated.

(b) For Government-fixed prices. In cases where the Government directly fixes the price of a component material required for the performance of a contract, the contract may include a provision for equitable adjustment of the contract price to compensate for changes made by the Government in the price of the component material. (See § 81.351 (a).) This article will not be used where the Government merely fixes a maximum price for the component material, as by the Office of Price Administration. It will be used only where the Government fixes the actual sale price as in the case of rubber sold by the Rubber Reserve Company. Likewise, a provision may be included for adjustment based on increased freight rates fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission (§ 81.339) when such a provision does not violate any maximum price regulation of the Office of Price Administration. Finally § 81.357 contains a provision for price adjustment based on changes in certain taxes paid by the contractor.

(c) Adjustment based on allocations. (1) In the case of certain commodities such as cotton duck and certain classes of lumber, the Government controls the entire supply and allocates production sources among contractors. Where this is the case, the actual price paid by a particular contractor will depend on the source from which he is required to obtain such material. Since this is determined solely by the Government it is preferable to agree to adjust the price to the contractor on the basis of the amount paid by him for the allocated material than to include in the price an allowance against this risk. The article contained in § 81.351 (a) may be used for this purpose but only where the Government actually controls and allocates available sources of supply and requires the contractor to procure from the designated source.

(2) Under the system of priorities and allocations applicable to certain materials, a contractor may be obliged to purchase such materials from sources of supply at greater distances from his plant than normal and pay additional freight costs which may represent a serious burden; in such cases the contract may include the article contained in § 81.351 (b) if the contractor eliminates from his price any allowance for such additional expenses.

(3) The articles authorized in this section will generally be used only where the costs of the materials or freight will constitute an appreciable element in the total cost and inclusion of the article will eliminate the need for substantial allowances in the price. If this is not the case, the benefit from their use will be too slight to justify the time and effort involved in their operation.

§ 81.1233 Interruption of production schedules by Government action. Government allocations, priorities, and other actions may prevent a contractor from maintaining a constant schedule of production and thereby increase his costs of operation substantially, especially in mass production industries. To avoid the inclusion in price of an allowance against such interruptions, a contract article providing for equitable adjustment in the contract price and the time for performance under such circum-stances is contained in § 81.351 (c). Whenever an interruption in the production schedules of a contractor will substantially affect his cost of performance and there is serious risk of such interruption as a result of Government action, this article may be included in the contract if the contractor has eliminated from his price any allowances and reserves for such contingencies.

ciples will be observed:

(1) The contracting officer will determine from information supplied by the contractor and, if necessary, by inspection of its books and records (i) whether the contingency covered by the article has occurred; and (ii) the amount, if any, by which the costs of the contractor have been increased by the change or contingency.

(2) The adjustment in price should be sufficient to compensate the contractor for the net amount by which his costs have been increased by the change or contingency. Care must be taken to eliminate increases due to other factors, and to allow for any offsetting reductions in costs which have also resulted from the change or contingency.

(3) The contracting officer will promptly notify the contractor in writing of the amount of the adjustment which he has determined to be equita-

(b) On initiative of contracting officer. Certain of these articles provide for equitable adjustment of the contract price downward when specified contingencies reduce the costs. When the contract contains such a provision, the following principles will be observed:

(1) The contracting officer should determine before final payment under the contract (i) whether the specified contingency has occurred and the costs of the contractor have thereby been reduced; and (ii) if so, the amount by which the contract price should be adjusted under the contract article.

(2) In making this determination, care must be taken to eliminate reductions in costs resulting from other factors such as the efficiency of the contractor, and to take into account any offsetting increases in cost which may also have resulted from the same change or contingency.

(3) The contracting officer will promptly notify the contractor of any such downward adjustment in the con-

§ 81.1235 Article for short term pricing—(a) Purpose of article. Orderly scheduling of materials, production, subcontracting and deliveries often makes long term contracts necessary or desirable. Cost data and experience may be sufficient for fixing a fair price for part of the performance, but uncertainty of future conditions may prevent this for the remainder of the contract. Thus the contractor may be able to predict conditions for a reasonable period in advance sufficiently to agree to a close price for that period, but may fear that changes in conditions will seriously affect his costs after that time and seek contingency allowances to protect himself. The article for negotiated price revision set out in § 81.361 (a) is designed to meet this situation and is authorized for use in accordance with this regulation.

(b) Nature of article. Under this article (§ 81.361 (a)) the original price is fixed for a specified period and thereafter price is revised upward or downward by negotiation but the revised price applies only to the remainder of the contract and not to deliveries made during the specified period. While this article is similar to § 81.341 (b), they differ basically in purpose. Section 81.311 (b) covers cases where lack of experience and data prevent the fixing of a fair price when the contract is made and allows adjustment of the entire price for past as well as future deliveries. Section 81.361 (a) assumes that the original price can be fairly fixed, but that future conditions cannot be adequately predicted. This article is similar to Form I in § 81.360 of the contract article for periodic adjustment of price, except that it does not provide for exemption from statutory renegotiation and provides for only one revision in the price and not for periodic adjustment.

(c) Use and operation of article. In using this article (§ 81.361 (a)) the following principles will be observed:

(1) The contracting officer should satisfy himself that the contractor can supply reliable data on which to base the price revision at the end of the specified period.

(2) The time fixed in the contract for negotiation to revise the price will depend on the circumstances in each case. The original price should be kept in effect for as long a period as conditions will permit without undue contingency allowances and revision provided for thereafter.

(3) In return for the use of this article, the contractor will be required to eliminate from his original price substantially all allowances for future contingencies.

(4) The negotiations to revise the price should be carried on promptly after the time specified in the contract. The contracting officer should obtain sufficient information from the contractor and other sources to permit the new price to be well negotiated. If necessary, he may examine the books and records of the contractor for this purpose. Negotiations should be conducted upon much the same principles as the original negotiation and in accordance with § 81.1224 (b) (5).

(5) The revised price will be evidenced by supplemental agreement specifically providing that the revised price applies only to performance after the original period.

§ 81.1236 Periodic adjustment of price without provision for exemption from renegotiation—(a) Articles authorized. Sections 81.1240-81.1247 authorize the use of two articles in § 81.360 providing for periodic adjustment of the contract price and for exemption of the contract price from statutory renegotiation under certain conditions. Where a supply service desires to provide in a contract for Such periodic adjustment of the contract price at regular intervals but does not desire to provide for exemption or for the power to exempt the contract price from statutory renegotiation in accordance with §§ 81.1240-81.1247, either Form I or Form II of § 81.360 may be revised to eliminate exemption of the contract price from statutory renegotiation or the power of the contracting officer to exempt it therefrom. Form I of § 81.360 will be so modified by deleting the second and third sentences of subsection (b) (2) and the second sentence of subsection (d) (3). Form II of § 81.360 may be so modified by deleting the second sentence of subsection (d) (3). With these deletions Form I or Form II of § 81.360 may be used in the discretion of the chief of a supply service without special permission from the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

(b) Use and operation of articles. In using § 81.360 modified in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, the following principles will be observed:

(1) The contracting officer should satisfy himself that the contractor can supply reliable data on which to base the price adjustment at the end of each period.

(2) The contract will include the standard form of contract article for statutory renegotiation (§ 81.342 (a)), if required by § 81.1208.

(3) The contract price will be adjusted for each period in the manner described in §§ 81.1240-81.1247 of this regulation, except that no exemption from renegotiation will be granted and the price will remain subject to statutory renegotiation unless otherwise exempt from section 403, as amended.

CONTRACT ARTICLES FOR PERIODIC READJUST-MENT OF PRICE AND EXEMPTION FROM RENEGOTIATION

§ 81.1240 Articles authorized. Alternative contract articles providing for periodic readjustment of the contract price, and for exemption from statutory renegotiation under the Act of April 28, 1942, (sec. 403, Public Law 528—77th Cong.) as amended, under certain conditions, are set forth in § 81.260 (Form I) and (Form II). These articles, which are called Form I and Form II in this Regulation are approved for use in lump sum or fixed price contracts in accordance with §§ 81.1240–81.1247. Except as expressly authorized in §§ 81.1240–81.1247 or subsequent instructions, deviations from the standard articles will not be used.

§ 81.1241 Effect of articles. Both Form I and Form II divide performance under the contract into specified periods for the purpose of adjusting the contract price... Under Form I the original contract price is exempt from statutory renegotiation for the first period of performance, but under Form II the price for the first period will be adjusted at the end of that period and appropriate credit or refund made, and this adjusted price may be exempted from statutory renegotiation by the contracting officer, as hereafter described. Under both forms the contracting officer and contractor will negotiate at the end of each period on the basis of cost experience and other data, and the contracting officer, at his discretion, may exempt the price so fixed from statutory renegotiation, if he believes that the cost data are sufficiently accurate and that the

§ 81.1242 Purpose of articles. These articles are intended to carry out the policy of the War Department to promote efficiency in operation and production, reductions in costs by its contractors, and lower prices to the Government. They are designed to obtain these results as follows:

(a) Since the periods for which prices are fixed are to be relatively short, uncertainty and the risks of future changes in conditions are reduced, and the need for reserves and allowances for contingencies should be correspondingly decreased. At the end of each period, the prices for the next period will be fixed on the basis of recent past experience, current conditions, and more accurate forecasts.

(b) If a firm exempt from statutory renegotiation during the specified period is granted, the contractor is expected to agree in return to a close price with a narrow profit margin and to rely on his managerial skill to increase his profit by improved methods and efficiency:

(c) If costs are reduced in one period through efficiency, then when the prices are adjusted for the succeeding period, the Government and the contractor will share the benefit of the reduced costs in the form of lower prices but with a higher allowed profit margin.

§ 81.1243 Use of articles. In using these articles the following principles will be observed:

(a) Since the operation of these articles requires reliable and accurate data on the actual costs of performance, they will be used only when the contracting officer is convinced that the contractor can and will supply reliable cost information in accordance with the contract provisions. Before using these articles in any contract, the contracting officer will therefore examine and analyze the cost accounting system of the contractor and satisfy himself that it is accurate and adequate for these purposes.

(b) These articles also assume that the costs of performance during a succeeding period can be predicted with reasonable accuracy; otherwise there is no sound basis for predicting the probable profits with assurance, or for exempting them from statutory renegotiation. Accordingly, it will not ordinarily be feasible to use these articles unless the contractor has had previous experience in producing substantially similar articles, or the costs are reasonably standardized or can be accurately determined after a short period of performance.

(c) Form I, which provides for a firm price exempt from statutory renegotiation for the first period of performance, will be used only where accurate data are available at the time the contract is made, on the cost of producing substantially the same articles under substantially the same conditions. In general, it will be used only for repeat orders for materials or equipment previously produced by the same contractor.

(d) Form II, under which the contract price for the first period is readjusted at the end of the period, will be used when the available data on costs of performance are insufficient to allow Form I to be used, but where reasonably accurate costs data will become available toward the end of the first period of performance.

(e) Use of these articles will be limited to contractors who are willing substantially to eliminate allowances in the price for contingencies in view of the short-term pricing and to accept a smaller original profit margin in return for the other benefits of the contract.

(f) The length of the periods of performance to be specified for adjusting the price will depend upon the circumstances of each case. When Form II is used, the first period should be sufficient to allow costs of production to become reasonably stable. The succeeding periods under Form II and all periods under Form II should range from three or four months in most cases up to a maximum of six months where conditions are unusually stable and costs are accurately predictable. Where it will be simpler or more convenient to do so, the contract article may fix the periods by reference to the production or delivery of a prescribed number of articles instead of in terms of days or months, if the length of the periods so fixed will substantially conform to the required duration.

(g) When either Form I or Form II is used, the contract will not include any other provisions for price adjustment (such as escalation, redetermination, upward renegotiation) except (1) the statutory renegotiation article in accordance with § 81.1224, and (2) provisions for equitable adjustment of the price in case of changes in specifications, deliveries, rates of production, or increased expenses resulting from allocations or other Government action (see § 81.351).

(h) Form I or Form II will be used only with the permission of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. Requests for such permission will state (1) the experience of the contractor with similar production, (2) the adequacy of the cost system and cost data of the contractor, (3) the price and profit margin which the contractor will agree to if the article is included, and (4) the reasons for recommending approval of the use of the article in the particular contract.

§ 81.1244 Insertion of statutory renegotiation article. Under both Form I and Form II of the articles for periodic price adjustment, the contract price for any period (except the first period under Form I) will remain subject to statutory renegotiation under the Act of April 28, 1942 (sec. 403, Public Law 528, 77th Cong.), as amended, unless it is exempt under the terms of the statute or is exempted by the contracting officer in the exercise of his discretion under the contract article. Accordingly, any contract which contains an article for periodic adjustment of the contract price will also include the contract article for statutory renegotiation (§ 81.342 (a)), if it is required by the provisions of §§ 81.1207-81.1210 of these regulations, but an additional sentence will be added at the end of section (a) of the statutory renegotiation article (§ 81.342 (a)) in such cases. When Form I is used this added sentence will read as follows:

Sections (a) and (c) of this Article do not apply to the prices fixed for the first period under this contract and exempt from statutory renegotiation by Article * * or to the prices fixed for any other periods thereunder which are exempted from statutory renegotiation by the Contracting Officer in the exercise of his discretion under that Article.

When Form II is used this added sentence will read as follows:

Sections (a) and (c) of this Article do not apply to the prices fixed for any period under Article * * * of this contract which are exempted from statutory renegotation by the Contracting Officer in the exercice of his discretion under that Article.

§ 81.1245 Changes in termination article. When Form I or Form II is used, the contract article entitled "Termination for the Convenience of the Government" (§ 81.324 (a)) will be amended by adding at the end of (d) (3) (A) and of (g) of that article the following additional sentence:

For this purpose the contract price for the uncompleted portion of the contract shall be computed on the basis of (1) the prices agreed upon for the price period in which the notice of termination takes effect, if adjusted prices have been agreed upon for that period, or (2) such estimated prices as the contracting officer deems reasonable under all the circumstances, if adjusted prices have not been agreed upon for that period.

§ 81.1246 Price adjustments under the articles. In the operation of contracts containing Form I or Form II, contracting officers will observe the following principles:

(a) When the contractor submits the cost data, estimates, and proposed prices in accordance with the contract terms, the contracting officer will make such tests or checks of the data submitted, by examining the records of the contractor or otherwise, as he deems necessary to satisfy himself of their accuracy and sufficiency.

(b) Negotiations with the contractor to adjust the price will be begun and completed as expeditiously as possible in order to avoid delay in fixing the adjusted price. If, in the opinion of the contracting officer, the contractor unreasonably prolongs or delays the negotiations or refuses to agree upon a reasonable adjusted price, the contracting officer will promptly report the facts to the chief of the supply service who may then initiate appropriate action to protect the interest of the Government either by termination of the contract, by statutory renegotiation of the contract price for any period not exempt therefrom, by compulsory order, or by other means.

(c) In determining the price for the first period under Form II or for succeeding periods under Form I or Form II, the contracting officer will allow more liberal profit margins where the contractor by skillful management, careful buying, or efficiency has reduced costs, and will demand lower profit margins where performance has been inefficient or below standard.

(d) The contracting officer will exercise his power to exempt from statutory renegotiation the adjusted prices agreed upon for the first period under Form II or for succeeding periods under Form I or Form II, only if he is convinced (1) that the cost data and cost estimates are reliable and provide a sufficient basis for ·fixing fair adjusted prices for the next period, and (2) that the adjusted prices are fair to the Government and, in his opinion based on the cost data and estimates and other available information. will not result in excessive profits. The contracting officer has full responsibility for granting or withholding the exemption. When he is convinced that the foregoing conditions are met, however, he should ordinarily grant the exemption for the period involved. In making this determination he will consult with the Price Adjustment Section of the supply service.

(e) Whenever the contracting officer grants an exemption under a contract containing either Form I or Form II, he will make a report to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, stating the adjusted price agreed upon, and containing copies of the data submitted by the contractor and any other data on which the

(f) After the entire contract is completed, the contracting officer will request from the contractor a statement showing the actual costs of performing the entire contract, and the prices paid during each period, and will send a copy of the statement to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

§ 81.1247 Inserting articles in existing contracts. Where it is practicable and to the advantage of the Government to do so, existing contracts may be amended by supplemental agreement to insert either Form I or Form II upon the conditions prescribed by these regulations, and with the permission of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

PRICE ADJUSTMENTS WITHOUT CONTRACT PROVISIONS

§ 81.1250 Scope. (a) As the preceding sections emphasize, war conditions frequently require adjustment of contract terms to prevent unfairness to the contractor or the Government. While the provisions discussed above make the contract terms sufficiently flexible to meet many kinds of changes, they do not cover all contingencies and many contracts do not contain these provi-Accordingly, contracts must often be amended to adapt them to new or unexpected developments.

(b) Such amendments arise from two main sources: (1) changes in the procurement program arising from changes in war equipment or in the relative needs for various types of equipment or from other causes; (2) unexpected difficulties by the contractor in performing the contract. §§ 81.1250-81.1252 deal with policies and methods governing both classes of amendment.

§ 81.1251 Amendments with consideration-(a) Price adjustment upward. The chief of a supply service may amend contracts to increase or modify the price or other contract terms in order to adjust contracts to new conditions:

(1) Whenever the amendment changes the contract specifications, delivery schedules, conditions of manufacture or similar contract terms.

(2) Whenever the amendment restricts or modifies the right of the contractor to perform the contract as he sees fit or on the basis most advantageous to him. Examples are cases where a contractor. who is not bound to do so by his existing contract, agrees to use particular methods of manufacture, substitute materials, specified or costlier sources of supply or subcontractors, or other specified methods or devices to conform with Government policy. (See, for example, § 81.225 (f) and § 81.222 (a).)

(3) Wherever the amendment modifies the volume or rate of production so as to affect adversely the contractor's costs (See, for example, § 81.227 and

(4) In any other case where the amendment is to the advantage of the Government and is based on legal consideration. The chief of the supply service may make any such amendments in accordance with § 81.306 (c) and following without the approval of higher authority, except as expressly required in those paragraphs.

(b) Price adjustment downward. Not all such amendments will require an increase in the price and some will justify a reduction in the price. For example, where the contract is amended to increase production or the rate of production under the contract, the costs of production may be reduced. Inasmuch as many of the fixed expenses have been provided for by the original volume, they should not be charged at all or to the same extent against the increased or accelerated production, and this saving will often more than offset any added costs involved in the increased volume or accelerated rate of production. Accordingly, the effects of any increase, speedup or other change should be carefully analyzed in each case in order to obtain the proper adjustment.

§ 81.1252 Amendments without consideration—(a) Authority. Under the First War Powers Act, 1941 and Executive Order No. 9001 the War Department has power to amend and modify contracts without consideration whenever such amendments will facilitate the prosecution of the war. (See § 81.204, and Opinion of The Attorney General dated August 29, 1942). The following paragraphs do not delegate to the supply services any authority to make amendments without consideration. Such amendments will be made only in accordance with §§ 81.306 (d), 81.308a, and 81.308b of these regulations or express authority conferred by other provisions of the regulations, such as §§ 81.380 and 81.381.

(b) General policy. The general policy is to amend contracts to meet changed conditions whenever such action will facilitate the prosecution of the war. A liberal policy of granting amendments in appropriate cases will (1) assist in obtaining close prices and reasonable cost estimates without excessive allowances in the price for contingencies against unforeseen risks, and (2) insure maximum cooperation and production by assuring contractors of fair treatment. By this policy it is believed that the costs of War Department procurement as a whole will be materially reduced and that the efficiency of production will be substantially increased. The general principles for carrying out this policy are stated in the following paragraphs.

(c) Basic principle. Any amendment without consideration under authority of the First War Powers Act must be based upon a finding that such action will facilitate the prosecution of the war. Precise rules for deciding whether this finding is justified in a particular case cannot be prescribed, for in each instance the determination is a matter of sound judgment on the basis of all of the facts, but certain guides can be given as to the matters which should be considered and the type of circumstances where

(d) Types of cases. While it is obviously impossible to predict or classify all of the grounds upon which amendments without consideration may be appropriately made, examples of certain types or classes of cases where such relief may be proper are as follows:

(1) Where a contractor has suffered or is threatened with loss or diminished profit on a particular contract as a result of a mutual mistake or a bona fide mistake by the contractor alone as to existing fact (for example, through a clerical error or reasonable misunderstanding as to specifications), the contract price or terms should generally be corrected in accordance with the provisions of § 81.308b of these regulations.

(2) Where a contractor suffers a loss or a diminished profit on a particular contract as a result of Government action, the character of the Government action will generally determine whether any adjustment will be made and its extent.

(i) Where the governmental action is directed primarily at the contractor and is taken by the Government in its capacity as the other contracting party, the price may be equitably adjusted to compensate the contractor for the effect of the action if fairness so requires. Thus where such action by the representatives of the Government, although not creating any liability on its part, increases the cost of performance, or contributes to difficulty encountered by the contractor, considerations of fairness may make appropriate some equitable adjustment of the price or terms.

(ii) Even when the action is not taken by the Government primarily in its capacity as the other contracting party, fairness may sometimes require an equitable adjustment in the contract price or other terms, depending on the nature of the action, the circumstances and tho effect on the contractor. (3) Where special circumstances of the war or enemy action have materially affected the conditions of performance of a contract, and the contractor in fixing his prices has not provided contingency reserves adequate to meet them, appropriate amendment or equitable adjustment of the contract may be justified.

(4) Where an actual or threatened loss on a war contract, however caused, will impair the productive capacity or efficiency of a contractor whose continued operation as an efficient source of supply is, in the judgment of the War Department, important to the war effort, the contract will generally be equitably adjusted to the extent necessary to avoid such impairment of his operations insofar as they are important to the war effort.

(5) Where substitution of new contract procedures or provisions will eliminate administrative difficulties, reduce Government costs, expedite production or auditing, aid accounting, save time and expense or simplify procurement, the contract may be so modified even though the Government in a particular instance may receive no other substantial advantage from the modification

The foregoing types of situations are enumerated as a guide to contracting officers in submitting cases for amendment without consideration. The grounds described are not mutually exclusive. In some instances several of them will exist, and action on one may be justified although the conditions on the other are not met, or the combined effect of all the grounds of relief may be such as to lead to action under the statute. Whether relief-will be granted in a particular case depends, of course, on its special facts and on whether the granting of relief in that case or in the class of cases will facilitate the prosecution of the war. This enumeration is not exhaustive and other types of circumstances may meet the conditions necessary for such relief.

(e) Time of amendments. All applications for contract adjustments under the First War Powers Act should be handled as promptly as possible after the occasion for relief arises. If action is delayed until the contractor has completed performance the relief may be ineffective, if granted, or may be denied as a matter of administrative judgment. As a general rule relief will be granted less readily in the later stages of contracts. Accordingly, whenever a request for such action is made or it appears likely that it will be made, the supply service should immediately make an investigation to obtain the necessary facts and submit the case without delay. Speedy action will often greatly increase the value of the adjustment to the contractor, and the knowledge of contractors that such relief will be granted expeditiously will aid the Government in obtaining closer pricing and achieving the other desired objectives of this policy.

(f) Preparation of cases. In view of the special nature of the power to be exercised, the supply service will develop the facts in each case adequately and prepare a report to be submitted with any request for approval by higher authority and preserved in the records of the supply service. In general, the report should contain information of the following types, so far as relevant to the particular case, and any other pertinent facts likely to assist in considering the proposed relief.

(1) Brief description of the contract involved.

(i) Date and length of contract; items, delivery schedules, and prices.

(ii) Special clauses for price adjustments; for partial or advance payments;

(iii) Government-owned, Emergency Plant, or Defense Plant facilities involved, and methods employed to protect any Government interest in facilities of contractor.

(2) Factors creating need for relief.

(i) Nature of item (standard, new or experimental).

(ii) Previous experience of contractor with similar production.

(iii) Changes in conditions or Government action affecting contractor's costs.

(iv) Cost experience of the contractor under the contract, and relation to original estimates.

(v) Reserves or allowances against such contingencies included in original price.

(3) Extent of relief needed.

- (i) Financial position of contractor, with supporting balance sheets and profit and loss statements.
- (ii) Estimates of future costs under contract.

(iii) Extent of completion, and amounts paid.

(iv) Other war contracts and business of contractor.

(v) Views of contractor on relief appropriate.

(vi) Effect of granting relief on profits of the contractor, and comparison with prices and contracts of other contractors.

(vii) Effect of refusing relief. (4) Importance of contract or contractor to the prosecution of the war.

 Size of contract and need for item. (ii) Other available sources of supply in comparison with contractor.

(iii) Quality of performance by contractor (rate of production, delays, rejec-

(iv) Probable future orders to contractor; or other war work.

(5) A statement showing whether or not any claim relating to the case is pending before the General Accounting

(6) Statement by the chief of supply service himself, or by an officer specially designated by him to review requests for relief of this type and to make recommendations thereon in his behalf, stating:

(i) The exact relief recommended.

(ii) That in his opinion the granting of the relief recommended will facilitate the prosecution of the war (see paragraph (c) of this section).

(iii) The scope of the investigation of the circumstances made by the supply service.

(iv) The extent of his own review of the facts.

(v) The name, address, and telephone number of the person in the War Department with detailed knowledge of the facts of the case.

(g) Approvals by Purchases Division, Headquarters. All necessary approval by higher authority will be obtained in each instance in accordance with §§ 81.306 (d), 81.308a, and 81.308b and other sections of these regulations.

APPENDIX

§81.1290 Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act, 1942 (Public 528, 77th Congress), approved April 28, 1942, as amended by the section 801 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public 753, 77th Congress) approved October 21, 1942—(a) Sec. 403 (a).

Sec. 403 (a). For the purposes of this section:

(1) The term "Department" means the War Department, the Navy Department, the Treadury Department, and the Maritime Commission, respectively.

(2) In the case of the Maritime Commis-cion, the term "Secretary" means the Chairman of such Commission.

(3) The terms "renegotiate" and "renego-tiation" include the refixing by the Secretary of the Department of the contract price.
(4) The term "excessive profits" means any amount of a contract or subcontract price which is found as a result of renegotiation to represent excessive profits.

(4) The term "excessive profits" means any purchase order or agreement to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any article required for the performance of another contract or subcontract. The term "article" includes any material, part, accombly, machinery, equipment, or other personal property.

For the purposes of subsections (d) and (e) of this section the term "contract" includes a subcontract and the term "contractor" includes a subcontractor.

(b) Sec. 403 (b).

SEC. 493 (b). Subject to subsection (i) the Secretary of each Department is authorized and directed to incert in any contract for an amount in excess of $169,000 hereafter made by such Department:

(1) A provision for the renegotiation of the contract price at a period or periods when, in the judgment of the Secretary, the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty;

(2).A provision for the retention by the United States from amounts otherwise due the contractor, or for the repayment by him to the United States, if paid to him, of any executive profits not eliminated through reductions in the contract price, or otherwise, as the Secretary may direct;

(3) A provision requiring the contractor to insert in each subcontract for an amount in excess of 0100,000 made by him under such contract (1) a provision for the rene-gotiation by such Socretary and the subcon-tractor of the contract price of the subcontract at a period or periods when, in the judgment of the Secretary, the profits can be determined with reasonable certainty, (ii) a provision for the retention by the contractor for the United States of the amount of any reduction in the contract price of any sub-contract purcuant to its renegotiation hereunder, or for the repayment by the subcontractor to the United States of any excessive profits from such subcontract paid to him and not eliminated through reductions in the contract price or otherwise, as the Secretary may direct, and (iii) a provision for relieving the contractor from any liability to the subcontractor on account of any amount so retained by the contractor or repaid by the subcontractor to the United States, and (iv) in the discretion of the Secretary, a provision requiring any subcontractor to insert in any subcontract made by him under such subcontract, provisions corresponding to those of subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this sub-

(4) A provision for the retention by the United States from amounts otherwise due the contractor, or for repayment by him to the United States as the Secretary may direct, of the amount of any reduction in the contract price of any subcontract under such contract, which the contractor is directed, pursuant to clause (3) of this subsection, to withhold from payments otherwise due the subcontractor and actually unpaid at the time the contractor receives such direction.

The provision for the renegotiation of the contract price, in the discretion of the Secretary, (i) may fix the period or periods when or within which renegotiation shall be had; and (ii) if in the opinion of the Secretary the provisions of the contract or subcontract are otherwise adequate to prevent excessive profits, may provide that renegotiation shall apply only to a portion of the contract or subcontract or shall not apply to performance during a specified period or periods and may also provide that the contract price in effect during any such period or periods shall not be subject to renegotiation.

(c) Sec. 403 (c).

SEC. 403. (c) (1) Whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of a Department, the profits realized or likely to be realized from any contract with such Department, or from any subcontract thereunder whether or not made by the contractor, may be excessive, the Secretary is authorized and directed to require the contractor or subcontractor to renegotiate the contract price. When the contractor or subcontractor holds two or more contracts or subcontracts the Secretary in his discretion, may renegotiate to eliminate excessive profits on some or all of such contracts and subcontracts as a group without separately renegotiating the contract price of each contract or subcontract.

(2) Upon renegotiation, the Secretary is authorized and directed to eliminate any excessive profits under such contract or subcontract (i) by reductions in the contract price of the contract or subcontract or by other revision in its terms; or (ii) by withholding, from amounts otherwise due to the contrac tor or subcontractor, any amount of such excessive profits; or (iii) by directing a contractor to withhold for the account of the United States, from amounts otherwise due to the subcontractor, any amount of such excessive profits under the subcontract; or (iv) by recovery from the contractor or subcontractor through repayment, credit or suit, of any amount of such excessive profits actually paid to him; or (v) by any com-bination of these methods, as the Secretary deems desirable. The Secretary may bring actions on behalf of the United States in the appropriate courts of the United States to recover from such contractor or subcontractor, any amount of such excessive profits actually paid to him and not withheld or climinated by some other method under this subsection. The surety under a contract or subcontract shall not be liable for the repayment of any excessive profits thereon. All money recovered by way of repayment or suit under this subsection shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(3) In determining the excessiveness of profits realized or likely to be realized from any contract or subcontract, the Secretary shall recognize the properly applicable exclusions and deductions of the character which the contractor or subcontractor is allowed under Chapter I and Chapter 2E of the Internal Revenue Code. In determining the amount of any excessive profits to be eliminated hereunder the Secretary shall allow the contractor or subcontractor credit for Federal income and excess profits taxes as provided in section 3806 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) Upon renegotiation pursuant to this section, the Secretary may make such final or other agreements with a contractor or subcontractor for the elimination of excessive profits and for the discharge of any liability for excessive profits under this section, as the Secretary deems desirable. Such agreements may cover such past and future period or periods, may apply to such contract or contracts of the contractor or subcontractor, and may contain such terms and conditions, as the Secretary deems advisable. Any such agreement shall be final and conclusive according to its terms; and except upon a show-ing of fraud or malfeasance or a wilful misrepresentation of a material fact, (i) such agreement shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon, and shall not be modified by any officer, employee, or agent of the United States; and (ii) such agreement and any determination made in accordance therewith shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded in any suit, action, or proceeding.

(5) Any contractor or subcontractor who holds contracts or subcontracts to which the provisions of this section are applicable, may file with the Secretaries of all the Departments concerned statements of actual costs of production and such other financial statements for any prior fiscal year or years of such contractor or subcontractor, in such form and detail, as the Secretaries shall prescribe by joint regulation. Within one year after the filing of such statements, or within such shorter period as may be prescribed by such joint regulation, the Secretary of a Department may give the contractor or subcontractor written notice, in form and manner to be prescribed in such joint regulation, that the Secretary is of the opinion that the profits realized from some or all of such contracts or subcontracts may be excessive, and fixing a date and place for an initial conference to be held within sixty days thereafter. If such notice is not given and renegotiation commenced by the Secretary within such sixty days the contractor or subcontractor shall not thereafter be required to renegotiate to eliminate excessive profits realized from any such contract or subcontract during such fiscal year or years and any liabilities of the contractor or subcontractor for excessive profits realized during such period shall be thereby discharged.

(6) This subsection (c) shall be applicable to all contracts and subcontracts hereafter made and to all contracts and subcontracts heretofore made, whether or not such contracts or subcontracts contain a renegotiation or recapture clause, unless (i) final payment pursuant to such contract or subcontract was made prior to April 28, 1942, or (ii) the contract or subcontract provides otherwise pursuant to subsection (b) or (i) or is exempted under subsection (i), of this section 403, or (iii) the aggregate sales by the contractor or subcontractor, and by all persons under the control of or controlling or under common control with the contractor or subcontractor, under contracts with the Departments and subcontracts thereunder do not exceed, or in the opinion of the Secretary concerned will not exceed $100,000 for the fiscal year of such contractor or subcontractor.

No renegotiation of the contract price pursuant to any provision therefor, or otherwise. shall be commenced by the Secretary more than one year after the close of the fiscal year of the contractor or subcontractor within which completion or termination of the contract or subcontract, as determined by the Secretary, occurs.

(d) Sec. 403 (d).

SEC. 403 (d). In renegotiating a contract price or determining excessive profits for the purposes of this section, the Secretaries of the respective Departments shall not make any allowance for any salaries, bonuses, or other compensation paid by a contractor to its officers or employees in excess of a reasonable amount nor shall they make allowance for any excessive reserves set up by the contractor or for any cost incurred by the contractor which are excessive and unreasonable. For the purpose of ascertaining whether such unreasonable compensation has been or is being paid, or whether such excessive reserves have been or are being set up, or whether any excessive and unreasonable costs have been or are being incurred, each such Secretary shall have the same powers with respect to any such contractor that an agency designated by the President to exercise the powers conferred by title XIII of the Second War Powers Act, 1942, has with respect to any contractor to whom such title is applicable. In the interest of economy and the avoidance of duplication of inspection and audit, the services of the Bureau of Internal Revenue shall, upon request of each such Sccretary and the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury be, made available to the extent determined by the Secretary of the Tresaury for the purposes of making examinations and determinations with respect to profits under this section.

(e) Sec. 403 (e).

SEC. 403 (e). In addition to the powers conferred by existing law, the Scientary of each Department shall have the right to demand of any contractor who holds con-tracts with respect to which the provisions of this section are applicable in an aggregate amount in excess of $100,000, statements of actual costs of production and such other financial statements, at such times and in such form and detail, as such Sccretary may require. Any person who willfully fails or refuses to furnish any statement required of him under this subsection, or who knowingly furnishes any such statement containing information which is false or misleading in any material respect, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both. The powers conferred by this subsection shall be exercised in the case of any contractor by the Secretary of the Department holding the largest amount of such contracts with such contractor, or by such Secretary as may be mutually agreed to by the Sccretaries con-

SEC. 3806. Mitigation of effect of renego-tiation of war contracts or disallowance of reimbursement—(a) Reduction for prior taxa-ble year.—(1) Excessive profits eliminated for prior taxable year. In the case of a contract with the United States or any agency thereof, or any subcontract thereunder, which is made by the taxpayer, if a renegotiation is made in respect of such contract or subcontract and an amount of excessive profits received or accrued under such contract or subcontract for a taxable year (hereinafter referred to as "prior taxable year") is eliminated and, in a taxable year ending after December 31, 1941, the taxpayer is required to pay or repay to the United States or any agency thereof the amount of excessive profits eliminated or the amount of excessive profits eliminated is applied as an offset against other amounts due the taxpayer, the part of the contract or subcontract price which was received or was accrued for the prior taxable year shall be reduced by the amount of excessive profits eliminated. For the purposes of this section-

(A) The term "renegotiation" includes any transaction which is a renegotiation within the meaning of section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Pub 528, 77th Cong., 2d S223.) or such section, as amended, any medification of one or more contracts with the United States or any agency thereof, and any agreement with the United States or any agency thereof in respect of one or more such contracts or subcontracts thereunder.

(3) Deduction disallowed. The amount of the payment, repayment, or offset described in paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) shall not constitute a deduction for the year in which paid or incurred.

(4) Exception. The foregoing provisions of this subsection shall not apply in respect of any contract if the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that a different method of accounting for the amount of the payment, repayment, or disallowance clearly reflects income, and in such case the payment, repayment, or dicallowance shall be accounted for with respect to the taxable year provided for under such method, which for the purposes of subsections (b) and (c) shall be considered a prior taxable the amount by which the tax for such year under such chapters is decreased by the ap-plication of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of subsection (a) shall be computed under this paragraph. There shall first be ascertained the tax previously determined for the prior taxable year. The amount of the tax previously determined shall be (A) the tax shown by the taxpayer upon his return for such taxable year, increased by the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as deficiencies, and decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax; or (B) if no amount was shown as the tax by such taxpayer upon his return, or if no return was made by such taxpayer, then the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as deficiencies, but such amounts previously assessed, or collected without accessment, shall be decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, re-funded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax. (c) Credit in lieu of other credit or refund. If a credit is allowed under subsection (b) with respect to a prior taxable year no other credit or refund under the internal revenue laws founded on the application of subsection (a) thall be made on account of the amount allowed with respect to such taxable year. If the amount allowable as a credit under subsection (b) exceeds the amount allowed under such subsection, the excess shall, for the purposes of the internal revenue laws relating to credit or refund of tax, be treated as an overpayment for the prior tax-able year which was made at the time pay-ment, repayment, or offset was made.

INTERPRETATION 1

(a) Paragraph (a) of Conservation Order No. I-41, as amended, places in different classes the construction of various structures or projects, and paragraph (b) (2) (ix) provides the limits within which the several classes of construction may be begun without authorization. Any structure shall be classifled in accordance with such provisions unless it constitutes a part of a "project" as defined in paragraph (a) (8), in which event the classification of the project shall control.

(b) In connection with paragraphs (a) (3), (a) (4), (a) (5), (a) (6), and (a) (7), where part of a structure or project falls within one class under said order and other parts within another or other classes, the predominant designed use shall determine the classification of the whole structure or project.

(c) In connection with paragraphs (a) (5) and (a) (7), a structure to be used primarily for the storage of farm products which are produced by a person other than the proprietor of such structure shall be interpreted to be "other restricted construction."

PART 3119—REAGENT CHEMICALS

[Preference Rating Order P-135, as Amended April 20, 1943]

§ 3119.1 Preference Rating Order P-135—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this order the term "reagent chemical" means any chemical prepared and packed for reagent use in laboratories.

(b) Assignment of preference rating. Preference rating AA2X is hereby assigned to deliveries of any reagent chemical for use by any laboratory for analytical, testing, control, educational or research purposes and to deliveries of any material (not including repair, maintenance and operating supplies) which will enter, at any stage, into the production of any such reagent chemical,

Nothing contained in this order shall prevent the use of any other or higher rating to which any person operating a laboratory or any producer of reagent chemicals may be entitled by reason of any other preference rating certificate or

(c) Application and extension of rating. The preference rating assigned by paragraph (b) hereof shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) hereof, be applied or extended only in accordance with the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended from time to time.

(d) Restrictions on applications and extensions of rating. The preference rating hereby assigned shall not be applied:

(1) To obtain deliveries of any reagent chemical or material:

(i) Which will be incorporated in, or which will enter into any chemical reaction directly involved in the manufacture of any product, other than a reagent chemical, manufactured for sale;

(ii) Which will be used in the rendering of any service other than analytical. testing, control, educational or research laboratory services.

(2) To obtain deliveries during any calendar quarter of reagent chemicals, and material (not including maintenance, repair and operating supplies) which will enter, at any stage, into the production of reagent chemicals, greater in dollar value than the sum of the following:

(i) Twenty-five percent (25%) of the total dollar value of reagent chemicals and such material delivered, for analytical, testing, control or research purposes (exclusive of educational purposes) or for the manufacture of such reagent chemicals, to the person applying the rating hereby assigned during the twelve (12) month period ended September 30, 1942, and

(ii) One hundred percent (100%) of the total dollar value of reagent chemicals and such material delivered, for educational purposes or for the manufacture of reagent chemicals for such purposes, to the person applying the rating hereby assigned during such twelve (12) month period: Provided, however, That the dollar value of deliveries of reagent chemicals for educational purposes and of material which will enter into the production of reagent chemicals for educational purposes, to which such preference rating may be applied in any four successive quarters shall not exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the total dollar value of reagent chemicals and such material delivered for such purposes to the person applying the rating during such twelve (12) month period.

(3) If during any calendar quarter or other applicable period the dollar volume of production, services rendered, appropriations for research or number of students enrolled, by the person applying the rating hereby assigned, is greater than for the corresponding quarter or other period of the twelve (12) months ended September 30, 1942, the allowable dollar value to which the rating hereby assigned may be applied in terms of paragraph (d) (2), may be increased in proportion to the increase in production, services rendered, research appropriation or enrollment.

PART 3175-REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[Interpretation No. 5 of CMP Regulation No. 1]

It is provided in § 3175.1 (s) (6) that a delivery order placed by a consumer for controlled materials before he has received his allotment may afterwards bo converted into an authorized controlled material order by furnishing the necessary information and certificate. Such conversion is not retroactive in effect. The order must be treated as an authorized controlled material order as of the date on which the necessary information and certificate (including the allotment number) are furnished to the producer, unless the War Production Board has previously expressly authorized the filling of the particular order, in which case it is to be treated as an authorized controlled material order received on the date of receipt of such authorization by the producer.

It follows from the foregoing that the controlling date for purposes of determining whether an order has been placed sufficiently far in advance to comply with the requirements of paragraph (s) (4) and the accompanying Schedule III is the date on which the order becomes an authorized controlled material order. For example, a manufacturer on May 1 places an order for carbon steel structural shapes to be delivered in July. Ho has not yet received his allotment for the related production schedule. The steel mill may receive and record the order without the allotment number but is not required to do so. In any event, the mill may not then treat it as an authorized controlled material order. The customer furnishes the necessary information and certificate, including the allotment number, on May 20. Since this is later than the advance period of 45 days specified in Schedule III, the mill may refuse to schedule the order, or may in its discretion accept the same as a late authorized controlled material order, provided it does not discriminate in doing so, as further explained in Interpretation No. 1 of CMP Regulation No. 1. If the mill received on May 15th an express direction or other express authorization from the War Production Board to fill the particular order, the mill would treat the order as an authorized controlled material order received on that date and would be required to accept it and schedule it for delivery accordingly.

[Interpretation 2 to CMP Regulation 5]

A person who is permitted to get controlled materials under paragraph (c) (1) of CMP Regulation No. 5 for maintenance, repair and operating supplies is not entitled to use the MRO symbol for purposes of allotting controlled materials to others. For example, a manufacturer of a product listed in Schedule I or Schedule II of the regulation requires a spring as a repair part. He may use the MRO symbol to place an authorized controlled material order for steel which he will fabricate into the spring which he requires, but if he buys the spring from a spring manufacturer, he may not make an allotment with the MRO symbol to the spring manufacturer. The spring manufacturer receives his allotment direct from the War Production Board as provided in paragraph (k-1) of CMP Regulation No. 1.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[Interpretation 1 of CMP Regulation 5A]

Interpretations of the various provisions of CMP Regulation No. 5 are equally applicable to the corresponding provisions of CMP Regulation No. 5A. In most cases, the provisions of the two regulations are similar although there are several important differences and, therefore, care should be exercised to ascertain that the provision of CMP Regulation No. 5 covered by a particular interpretation corresponds in substance to the provision of CMP Regulation No. 5A to which it is sought to be applied.

DEFENSE PUBLIC WORKS

Section 1201.3 of the regulation providing against discrimination in work on defense housing, dated January 6, 1941 (6 F.R. 196), as amended by the regulation providing against discrimination in work on defense public works, dated September 11, 1941 (6 F.R. 4737), and by the regulation providing against discrimination in work on defense public works in and near the District of Columbia, dated January 5, 1943 (8 F.R. 320), is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1201.3 Negro labor and defense public works. In order to ascertain compliance, in respect to Negro labor, with § 1201.1, providing against discrimination in work on defense public works, it is requested that:

(a) Contracting officers in charge of the development of defense public works undertaken, and public and private agencles to which loans or grants are made for defense public works, pursuant to the Act of October 14, 1940 (Public No. 849, 76th Congress), as amended, shall, after the effective date of this section:

(1) Submit to each contractor engaged in constructing any such defence public works, the percentage of Negro skilled and unskilled labor in the locality of the project, as reflected by the Federal census and other relevant data, as determined by the Assistant Federal Works Administrator.

(2) Require each contractor engaged in constructing any such defense public works to indicate by notation (W for non-Negro, N for Negro) on payroll forms required to be submitted to the Government, or to such public or private agencies, the race of each laborer, skilled or unskilled, listed on such payroll forms; and

(3) Ascertain and report to the Bureau of Labor Statistics through appropriate channels at designated intervals during the construction period, the respective amounts paid by each such contractor during such period as wages, for work in the development of defense public works at the sites thereof to (i) non-Negro skilled labor (irrespective of individual trades); (ii) Negro skilled labor (irrespective of individual trades); (iii) non-Negro unskilled labor; and (iv) Negro unskilled labor.

(b) If the percentages of the total amounts so paid for all skilled labor and for all unskilled labor that are paid, respectively, to Negro skilled and unskilled labor approximate the respective percentages of Negro skilled and unshilled laborers in the locality (as submitted to the contractor by the contracting officer or by the public or private agency), there shall be deemed to be prima facie evidence that the contractor is not discriminating against Negro labor. Otherwise, or if any contractor shall fail or refuse to make the payroll notations hereinabove referred to, the contracting officer (as to defense public works constructed pursuant to subparagraph (b) of section 292 of said Act of October 14, 1940, as amended) or the public or private agency (as to defense public works for which loans or grants have been made pursuant to subparagraph (c) of cection 202 of said Act of October 14, 1940, as amended) shall investigate and report the reasons therefor to the Assistant Federal Works Administrator.

(c) Copies of this regulation shall be distributed to all contractors engaged in the development of defense public works under the aforesaid Act of October 14,

(d) As used in this regulation, the term "contractor" includes subcontractors.

(Sec. 303, Pub. Law 849, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 42, 137, 409, 522, and 723, 77th Cong.)

His base for each rationed food shall be recomputed on the basis of the changed registration and his allotments for the second and subsequent allotment periods shall be calculated on the recomputed

(b) The board shall add to his allotments for the second allotment period, the difference between the allotments he would have received for the first period if the recomputed base had been used and the allotments he actually received for that period. However, from this sum there shall be deducted the amount of any ration checks or certificates received by him for food served to military or naval personnel from March 1, 1943 to-April 30, 1943, inclusive, other than those received for service to military or naval personnel during that period pursuant to a written contract with a government agency, where government meal tickets were not used.

MOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION

In the matter of W. W. Bridges, Receiver, Black Diamond Coal Mining Company, Code Member.

Notice of filing of application for disposition of compliance proceeding with out formal hearing pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division.

Notice is hereby given that an application dated March 9, 1943 for disposition of the above entitled matter without formal hearing, was filed with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") on March 12, 1943, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division by W. W. Bridges, Receiver, Black Diamond Coal Mining Company, the above named Code Member (the "Code Member").

Said W. W. Bridges, as Receiver of the Black Diamond Coal Mining Company, was duly authorized and directed by order dated March 16, 1943 entered by the court having jurisdiction thereof to execute and file said application with the Division and to do all things necessary to fully execute and carry out the agreements in said application.

The application was filed with respect to a written complaint dated December 11, 1942 and filed with the Division on December 15, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act") by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 9, complainant, alleging that the above-named Code Member had wilfully violated the Act, the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code") and rules and regulations thereunder, as more fully set forth in the said complaint.

In said application the Code Member:
1. Admits that it is a Code Member operating the Black Diamond No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 6 and the Black Diamond No. 3 Mine, Mine Index No. 7, located in Muehlenburg County, Kentucky in District No. 9.

2. Admits that it wilfully violated section 4 II (e) and section 4 II (i) 6 of the Act, Part II (e) and Part II (i) 6 of the Code and Rule 6 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by celling and delivering during the period October 29, 1940 to April 20, 1942 coal produced by the said Code Member to the Boillin-Harrison Company, Clarksville, Tennessee, a wholecale grocer, for resale and delivery to W. E. Beach Coal Company, Clarksville, Tennessee, a retail coal dealer, a total of 4019.15 tons of various sizes of coal and allowing to the said Boillin-Harrison Company rebates, credits or unearned discounts from the invoice prices of said coal in amounts ranging from 5 cents to 25 cents per ton, thereby reducing the sales prices of said coal below the effective minimum prices therefor.

3. Admits that it wilfully violated section 4 II (e) and section 4 II (i) 6 of the Act, Fart II (e) and Fart II (i) 6 of the Code and Rule 1 (F) of section VII and Rule 6 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by failing to receive payment for the coal referred to in paragraph 2 above in United States currency or funds equivalent thereto, payment for said coal being made to the Code Member in the form of groceries or other staple articles.

4. Admits that it wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code and Rule 1 of section K of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by granting allowances ranging from 20 cents to 35 cents per ton from the invoice prices for alleged substandard preparation or quality on a total tonnage of 254.75 tons of coal of various sizes, sold on or about June 28, 1941, August 13, 1941, and January 3, 1942 without filing the statement required by Rule 1 of section X of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, thereby reducing the actual sales prices below the applicable minimum prices for said coal.

5. Admits that it wilfully violated section 4 II (I) 8 of the Act, Part II (I) 8 of the Code, Bule 8 of section XIII and Rule 2 of section XII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by intentionally misrepresenting on invoices the sizes of a total of approximately 18,842.35 tons of coal produced by the Code Member and sold to various purchasers during the period October 25, 1940 through March 31, 1941 inclusive.

6. Admits that it wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act, Part II (e) of the Code and Rule 1 (e) of section XI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by unlawfully substituting during the period July 26, 1941 to July 30, 1941 both dates inclusive, a total tonnage of 430.7 tons of 6" lump coal produced by the Code Member on orders for 3" lump coal from the Forest Products Chemical Company, with the result that the coal actually delivered to the said purchaser was sold at prices less than the applicable minimum prices therefor.

7. Admits that it wilfully violated Rule 4 (A) and Rule 9 (a) of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by paying to Southwestern Fuel Company, Memphis, Tennessee unauthorized sales agency commissions ranging from 5 cents to 18.31 cents per ton for sales during the period October 12, 1940 to June 23, 1941 inclusive, by Southwestern Fuel Company on behalf of the said Code Member of approximately 7,410.85 tons of coal produced by the Code Member, whereas neither the Code Member nor the Southwestern Fuel Company had filed with the Division a copy of the contract of agency executed on September 13, 1938.

8. Consents with respect to the foregoing admitted violations referred to in paragraph 2 hereof to the entry of an order revolving and cancelling its Code

Membership.

9. Consents with respect to the foregoing admitted violations referred to in paragraphs 3 through 7, inclusive hereof, to the entry of an order directing the Code Member to cease and desix from violations of the Code and regulations thereunder, which order will continue in full force and effect upon any restoration of Code Membership.

10. Agrees with respect to the foregoing admitted violations referred to in paragraph? hereof to pay a tax in the amount of $2,411.09 as a condition precedent to restoration to membership in the Code.

 Agrees to execute any and all documents necessary to dispose of this proceeding in the event this application is granted.

12. Represents that to the best of its knowledge and belief it has not committed any other violations of the Act, the Code, or regulations thereunder, other than the foregoing admitted violations.

13. Represents in extenuation of the foregoing admitted violations that the practices were long established for many years and were not carried on with any intent to violate the minimum price provisions of the Act.

All interested parties may, if they so desire, file with the Division, recommendations or requests for informal conferences with respect to said application within fifteen (15) days from the date of publication of this notice.

[Docket Nos. A-1921 and A-1921-Part II]

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines and for changes in shipping points for the coals of certain other mines in District No. 1.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for permission to mix coals of certain mines in District No 1.

Memorandum opinion and order severing Docket No. A-1921, Part II, from Docket No. A-1921 and granting temporary relief in Docket No. A-1921, Part II

The original petition in the above-entitled matter filed with the Division pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, prays for the establishment of temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1, and for permission to mix coals of certain other mines also located in District No. 1. It appears, however, that no final determination should be made at this time with respect to the request for permission to mix coals produced at Mine Index No. 3960, 1023, 3762, 3763, 224 and 225 for the reason that insufficient facts have been presented upon which to base a final determination.

porarily the request of petitioner to mix coals, produced at the aforementioned mines.

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, It is ordered That the portion of Docket No. A-1921 relating to the request of petitioner to mix coals of Mine Index Nos. 3960, 1023, 3762, 3763, 224 and 225 be, and it hereby is, severed from the remaining part of that docket and designated as A-1921, Part II.

It is further ordered That, pending further order of the Director, temporary relief be, and the same hereby is, granted as follows: Commencing forthwith the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include the price classifications, minimum prices, changes in shipping points and other matter appearing in Supplement R which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

It is further ordered That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

An order scheduling a hearing to adduce facts upon which final relief in this matter may be based will be issued in due course.

[Docket No. A-1912]

DISTRICT BOARD NO. 10

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 10 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals produced for rail shipment at certain mines in District No. 10.

On March 20, 1943, a petition was filed, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by District Board No. 10. The District Board requested that price classifications and minimum prices be established for coals produced for rail shipment at the Bunker Hill Mine, Mine Index No. 1038, of Bunker Hill Coal & Mining Company, Collinsville Mine, Mine Index No. 1040 of Collinsville Coal Corporation, Glenn Carbon Coal Corporation, Glenn Carbon Coal Co. Buck Road Coal Co. Mine, Mine Index No. 1327 of Wm. H. Johnson, Sugar Loaf Mine, Mine Index No. 1049 of Sugar Loaf Coal Corporation, Sunset Hill Mine, Mine Index No. 1051 of Sunset Hill Coal Company, and the Truck Trade Mine. Mine Index No. 1052 of the Truck Trade Coal Company, all located in District No. 10, and also requested that permission be granted these code members to commingle coals produced at the afore-named mines for rail shipment.

The District Board states that the mines herein involved, all located in the southwestern part of Madison County, Illinois, produce comparable coals in the No. 6 Seam. The District Board further states that because of the large demand for coals engendered by the war effort, the code members herein involved have asked the District Board to propose minimum prices for the rail shipment of the comparable coals when loaded into railroad cars on the Illinois Terminal Railroad at Sand Cut near Collinsville, Illinois, and for permission to commingle the coals of their respective mines so as to make possible more efficient use of railroad equipment.

A reasonable showing of necessity has been presented for the granting of temporary relief. Accordingly, I am establishing temporary price classifications and minimum prices for the coals produced at the mines herein involved, as requested by the District Board except that I have provided price exceptions for sales for railroad locomotive fuel in order that these mines shall have the same fair competitive opportunities as other rail shipping mines in the same Freight Origin Group and in the same Price Group; and have provided price adjustments to the f. o. b. mine prices herein established for coals of these mines when shipments are made to Market Area 40, which are the same adjustments as are applicable to rail shipments to Market Area 40 from Mine Index Nos. 139, 153, and 173, which are also located on the Illinois Terminal Railroad and which take the same freight rates for shipment to that Market Area as the mines herein involved. I have also determined to deny the request of the District Board that minimum prices applicable to the coals herein involved when commingled shall be the price of the coal having the highest minimum price because no justification for such method of pricing has been shown. In order, however, that some opportunity may be present for these mines to commingle their coals until such time as this matter may be more thoroughly explored the order herein provides for mixture of certain coals which bear the same minimum prices in their respective size groups.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That until further order temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 for All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include the matters set forth in the schedule marked Supplement R annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That invoices required to be filed under appropriate orders of the Division shall be filed by the shipper of the coals herein involved:

Provided, That if a single carload is made up of coal or two or more mines, the invoice shall be prepared and filed by the person or entity in whose name the coal is shipped and shall indicate that the coals comprising such carload originated at more than one of the mines herein involved.

It is further ordered, That each producer herein concerned shall file with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 10 on or before the tenth (10th) day of each month a statement setting forth the tonnage of each size, kind and quality of coal transported or shipped to the loading ramp at Sand Cut, Illinois during the preceding month.

An order scheduling a hearing to adduce facts upon which final relief in this matter may be based will be issued in due course.

Dated: April 10, 1943.

[Docket Nos. A-1918 and A-1918, Part III] DISTRICT BOARD NO. 9

PARTICULAR PROPERTY OF THE PRO

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 9 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices and for other relief for the coals of certain mines.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 9 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for Size Group 7 coals of Mine Index No. 506 for all shipments except truck.

Memorandum opinion and order severing Docket No. A-1918, part II from Docket No. A-1918 and granting temporary relief in Docket No. A-1910, part

The original petition in the aboveentitled matter, which was filed with this Division by District Board No. 9 pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requests the establishment of temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices and a change of shipping points for the coals of certain mines in District No. 9, and further requests the establishment of a price of $2.85 per net ton for Size Group 7 coals produced by Bell Mine No. 1, Mine Index No. 506, of Mid-Continent Coal & Transportation Company in District No. 9.

The petition describes the Bell No. 1 Mine as located in the Bell seam. In the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9 for Truck Shipments however, this mine is described as located in the Stray Seam and is priced the same as other mines which produce coala in the Stray Scam.

The $2.85 minimum price requested for Size Group 7 coals produced at Mine Index No. 506 for all shipments except truck is approximately $1.00 per ton more than the minimum price established for Stray Seam coals in this size group produced at other mines in the Stray Scam for such shipments.

It appears that although a bearing will be required to adduce sufficient facts to justify the establishment of a minimum price for the coals in Size Group 7 produced at Mine Index No. 508 for all shipments except truck which is substantially higher than the minimum prices established for coals in the same size group produced at other mines in the same seam for the same type of shipments, nevertheless an adequate showing of necessity has been made for the relief hereinafter granted.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1918 relating to the establishment of a minimum price of $2.85 per net ton for the coals in Size Group 7 produced at the Bell Mine No. 1, Mine Index No. 506, of Mid-Continent Coal & Transportation Company in District No. 9 be, and it hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1918 and designated as Docket No. A-1918, Part II.

DISTRICT BOARD No. 10

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

In the matter of the petition District Board No. 10 for establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for Mine Index No. 997.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 19:7, was duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Lete and Son Mine, Mine Index No. 997 of Lete Coal, Inc. Although this petition did not set forth sufficient facts upon which permanent relief may be based, it appears that there is reasonable necessity for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth.

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the aboveentitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 for All Shipments Except Truck is amended to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the schedule marked Supplement R annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

The original petition in this matter requests that no exceptions be allowed with respect to locomotive fuel sold to off-line railroads. Nevertheless, since Railroad Locomotive Fuel Price Exception 1-A on page 45 of Price Schedule No. 1, District No. 10 for All Shipments Except Truck is applicable to the coals of all other mines in Price Groups 14 and 15 of District No. 10 for which minimum prices have been established for all shipments except truck, and since adequate reason has not been advanced for denying the application of this Price Exception to the coals of Mine Index No. 997, the relief granted affords the producer here involved the same competitive opportunity available to all other producers similarly situated by making the said Price Exception applicable to the coals of its mine, Mine Index No. 997.

An order scheduling a hearing to adduce facts upon which final relief in this matter may be based will be issued in due course.

In the matter of the petition of Morrisdale Coal Company for permission to mix coals of certain mines in District

An original petition pursuant to section 4 H (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting permission to mix coals produced from the Sotok & Campbell Mine, operated by Mike Sotok and Alex Campbell, a copartnership doing business as Sotok & Campbell, Mine Index No. 988, for shipment by rail over either the tipple of the Morrisdale No. 4 Mine operated by the Morrisdale Coal Company, Mine Index No. 212, or the tipple of the Maxton Slope Alex Mine, Mine Index No. 722, also operated by the Morrisdale Coal Company, at Hawk Run, Pennsylvania, on the New York Central Railroad.

No petitions of intervention have been filed in this matter.

On the basis of the original petition filed herein, the Director is of the opinion that temporary relief, as hereinafter set forth, may be granted petitioner, pending further order of the Director, but no final determination should be made at this time with respect to the request for permission to mix coals produced at Mine Index Nos. 212, 722 and 988.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That pending further order of the Director, temporary relief be, and the same hereby is, granted, as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 For All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices and other matter appearing in Supplement R which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof.<sup>1</sup>

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

On October 6, 1942, after due notice and hearing Charles S. Mitchell, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, submitted a report in which he found that code members G. H. Ware and C. M. Reese, individually and as copartners doing business under the name and style of R. & W. Coal Company, operating the R. & W. #### DEPARMENT OF LABOR.

Children's Bureau.

CHILD LABOR REGULATION

EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS BETWEEN 14 AND 16

Notice of hearing on proposed amendment to Child Labor Regulation No. 3 issued under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Whereas the employment of minors under the age of 16 years in any occupation constitutes oppressive child labor within the meaning of section 3 (1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, excepting that the Chief of the Children's Bureau may provide by regulation or order that the employment of minors between the ages of 14 and 16 years in occupations other than manufacturing and mining shall not be deemed to constitute oppressive child labor, if and to the extent that he has determined that such employment is confined to periods which will not interfere with their schooling or with their health or wellbeing, and

Whereas the Chief of the Children's Bureau, pursuant to section 3 (1) of the Act, issued Child Labor Regulation No. 3 (4 F.R. 1983, Code of Federal Regulations 1939 Supp., Ti. 29, Ch. IV, Part 441), effective May 24, 1939, providing that the employment of minors between the ages of 14 and 16 years in certain occupations under specified conditions shall not be deemed to constitute oppressive child labor, and

Whereas a petition has been received from operators of fruit and vegetable packing sheds in the State of Mississippi requesting authority to employ minors between 14 and 16 years of age after &lt;sup>1</sup>Code member suggested at the hearing that he had not cold the coal as alleged in the complaint but had given it outright to his son who in turn had disposed of the coal to the purchaser, McCauclen Florists. The Examiner found that in view of the language of section 4 II (e), the cale, delivery or offering for sale of coal at leas than established minimum prices is prohibited and that it was accordingly unnecessary to determine whether code member in fact cold the coal as alleged in the complaint or had violated section 4 II (e) by giving it away. No objection has been made to this disposition of the question and I agree that the Examiner's treatment was proper. Without de-tailing the evidence, however, my own con-sideration of the record leads me to reject the hypothesis that the coal was given to code member's son; in my view there is substantial evidence to support the conclusion that code member himself sold the coal and that at most his con was acting as his agent in such cale.

7 p.m. and for more than 40 but not more than 48 hours in any one week when school is not in session (periods of employment outside the scope of Child Labor Regulation No. 3) during a period of not more than 10 weeks in any one year, and

Whereas the question raised by said petition appears to be a question of interest to the entire fruit and vegetable packing industry, and

Whereas the Chief of the Children's Bureau is of the opinion that it is desirable to hold a public hearing on the question whether Child Labor Regulation No. 3 should be amended to provide that the employment of minors between the ages of 14 and 16 years during periods and under conditions in which such employment now constitutes oppressive child labor shall not be deemed to be oppressive child labor,

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that:

- I. A public hearing will be held at 10 a. m. Monday, May 3, 1943, at Assembly Room 516, United States Customs and Courthouse, Twelfth and Market Streets, St. Louis, Missouri, before Julius Schlezinger or any other presiding officer designated by me for the purpose of taking testimony on the following questions:
- 1. During what periods, if any, and under what conditions is the employment of minors between the ages of 14 and 16 years in the fruit and vegetable packing industry necessary for the war effort, and
- 2. If such employment of minors between the ages of 14 and 16 years is found to be necessary for the war effort, what safeguards should be established to protect their schooling and their health and well-being?
- II. Any interested person may appear at the hearing to offer evidence either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person if, not later than May 1, 1943, he files with Mr. Earl V. Powers, Branch Manager, by mail or otherwise, at the office of the United States Department of Labor, 316 Old Customs House, St. Louis, Missouri, a notice of his intent to appear, which shall contain the following information:

1. The name and address of the person appearing;

2. If such person is appearing in a representative capacity, the name and address of the person or persons he is representing.

III. Any interested person may secure further information concerning the aforesaid hearing by inquiry directed to the Chief of the Children's Bureau, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., or to Mr. Earl V. Powers, Branch Manager, United States Department of Labor, 316 Old Customs House, St. Louis, Missouri.

IV. The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the following rules of procedure subject to such subsequent modification by the Chief of the Children's Bureau or the presiding officer as may be deemed appropriate:

1. The hearing shall be stenographically reported and a transcript made which shall be available at prescribed rates to any person upon request made to the official reporter of the Children's Bureau, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.

2. At the discretion of the presiding officer, the hearing will be continued from day to day or adjourned to a later day or to a different place by announcement thereof at the hearing by the presiding officer or by other appropriate notice.

3. At any stage of the hearing, the presiding officer may call for further evidence upon any matter. After the presiding officer has closed the hearing before him, no further evidence shall be taken except at the request of the Chief of the Children's Bureau unless provision has been made at the hearing for the later receipt of such evidence.

V. On the close of the hearing, the presiding officer shall forthwith file a complete record of the proceedings with the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

RECOMMENDATION OF JOINT ACTION PLAN IN KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI-KANSAS

DELIVERY BY MOTOR VEHICLE OF FLOWERS AND RELATED ARTICLES

Pursuant to a provision of a general order issued by the Office of Defense Transportation for the purpose, among others, of conserving and providently utilizing motor vehicles and vital equipment, materials and supplies (General Order ODT 17, as amended, 7 F.R. 5678, 7694, 9623), C. T. Reinhardt & Son and 48 others, listed in Appendix A hereto, have filed with the Office of Defense Transportation for approval a joint action plan relating to the transportation and delivery by motor vehicle of flowers and related articles in the Kansas City, Missouri-Kansas Commercial Zone, as defined by the Interstate Commerce Commission in Kansas City, Mo.-Kansas City, Kans. Commercial Zone, 31 M. C. C. 5.

The participants in the plan comprise all of the retail florists in the area. Duplicate and parallel transportation services in connection with these establishments at present involve considerable waste. The plan provides that no motor vehicle used in such services will be operated more than six days in any calendar week, except in certain holiday weeks. The participants propose to eliminate wasteful operations and duplication of parallel services and to pool deliveries by transferring orders, joint use of the same truck or trucks and by delivering goods sold by each other. Several groups of the participants in addition have separately agreed to pool their delivery services; and the plan contemplates similar pooling by other groups of participants. It is estimated that operation under the plan will save approximately 150,000 truck-miles a year. Allocation of business or division of territories between or among participants is not contemplated.

It appearing that the proposed joint action plan is in conformity with General Order ODT 17, as amended, and that the effectuation thereof will accomplish substantial conservation and efficient utilization of motor trucks and vital materials and supplies, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution or the war, I have approved the plan and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under section 12 of Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with said joint action plan, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of April 1943.

Joseph B: Eastman, Director, Office of Defense Transportation.

In connection with such sale, Laclede Electric will not exercise the option granted to it pursuant to an agreement entered into in 1926 to purchase from Laclede Gas the properties covered in said agreement, but said agreement will, as a part of the plan, be terminated concurrently with the joint transfer of the said electric properties;

Laclede Gas and Laclede Electric have entered into a contract for division of the proceeds of the sale of electric properties. Under this contract, Laclede Gas is to receive $2,200,000 out of such proceeds;

2. The payment by Union Electric of the aforesaid base purchase price for the said electric properties in the amount of $8,600,000, as adjusted, as follows:

(a) There shall be paid directly to Laclede Electric only such portion of the said purchase price which, when added to the cash of Laclede Electric, will be sufficient to discharge in full all the liabilities of Laclede Electric not assumed by Union Electric, as provided in the contract of sale, and to pay severance compensation to such of the employees of Laclede Electric as may not be taken over by Union Electric.

(b) There shall be paid directly to Laclede Gas all of the balance of the said purchase price, which balance will include not only the portion to which Laclede Gas is entitled ($2,200,000), but also the portion of the said price to which Laclede Electric is entitled which remains after the payment by Union Electric to Laclede Electric of the amount provided to be so paid in sub-paragraph (a) preceding;

The transfer to Laclede Gas by Laclede Electric of all of its assets, except cash, remaining after the consummation of the said contract of sale of the electric properties;

4. The decrease in the par value of the outstanding shares of preferred stock and of the outstanding, as well as the authorized but unissued, shares of common stock of Laclede Gas, from a par value of $100 per share to a par value of $5 per share and a corresponding increase in the number of the outstanding shares of such preferred stock and of the outstanding, as well as the authorized but unissued, shares of such common stock;

(b) The portion of the purchase price of said electric properties paid to Laclede Gas by Union Electric (hereinbefore provided) to which Laclede Electric is entitled, and

(c) The assets transferred by Lacledo Electric to Laclede Gas, as hereinbefore described;

Of the shares so received by it, Ogden Corporation will release for delivery to all stockholders of Laclede Electric, other than Ogden Corporation, such number of shares of such common stock of Laclede Gas as this Commission shall fix as equitable and fair;

6. The cancellation of nine out of the twenty-shares of preferred stock of $5 par value, which each holder of one share of preferred stock is entitled to receive as a result of the decrease in par value of such stock and the corresponding increase in the number of shares, as described hereinbefore in paragraph 4, and the cancellation of all rights and preferences appertaining to the preferred stock, including all rights to accumulated, unpaid dividends. Such shares so cancelled will not be reissued;

The result of the foregoing will be that, upon consummation of the Plan, each holder of preferred stock of $100 par value will receive eleven shares of common stock of $5 par value for each share of preferred stock of $100 par value surrendered by him;

7. The cancellation of nineteen out of the twenty shares of common stock of $5 par value, which each holder of one share of common stock of $100 par value is entitled to receive as a result of the decrease in par value of such stock and the corresponding increase in the number of shares, as provided hereinbefore in paragraph 4. Such shares so cancelled shall not be reissued;

The result of the foregoing will be that upon consummation of the Plan, each holder of common stock of $100 par value will receive one share of common stock of $5 par value for each share of common stock of $100 par value surrendered by him;

8. The payment in cash by Laclede Gas of interest on its outstanding bonds and notes from the respective preceding interest payment dates to the effective date of the Plan;

9. The use of the portion of the said purchase price of the said electric properties which is paid to Laclede Gas by Union Electric (as hereinbefore provided) in addition to such other cash of Laclede Gas as may be necessary to retire $7,868,000 principal amount of Refunding and Extension Mortgage 5% Gold Bonds, dated April 1, 1904, outstanding in the hands of the public;

10. The issuance by Laclede Gas of the following securities:

(a) $20,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 3½% per annum and maturing twenty years from the date of issuance thereof.

(b) $5,000,000 principal amount of Debentures bearing interest at the rate of 5½% per annum and maturing ten years from the date of issuance thereof.

The proceeds from the sale of these securities will be used to discharge the balance of the outstanding funded debt of Laclede Gas by payment of the face amount of such securities to the holders thereof:

11. The result of the cancellation of shares of preferred stock and common stock of $5 par value (as hereinbefore provided) will be to increase capital surplus on the books of Laclede Gas by approximately $11,214,850. The increase in the property account of Laclede Gas as a result of a revaluation effected in 1926, as well as the loss on the books of Laclede Gas resulting from the said sale of the electric properties to Union Electric, will be charged to capital surplus. There will also be charged to capital surplus any other adjustments required to be made on the books of Laclede Gas by any regulatory body having jurisdiction;

12. The offer by Ogden Corporation to residents of the State of Missouri of the $5 par value common stock of Laclede Gas, which it is entitled to receive hereunder, at a price to be subject to the approval at the time by the Securities and Exchange Commission as fair. Said offer shall be made within one year after completion of the reorganization unless such time shall be extended by this

Commission;

The consummation of the Plan is subject to:

(a) The entry of an order by this Commission pursuant to section 11 (e) and to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act approving such Plan.

(b) Such orders of the Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri with respect to the approval of the plan or the carrying out of any or all of the steps contemplated by the plan which may be necessary or desirable;

The plan further provides that at any time after its approval, as provided above, the Board of Directors of Laclede Gas may, if it be deemed necessary or desirable, request the Securities and Exchange Commission, pursuant to section 11 (e), to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to carry out the terms and provisions of the plan.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said plan or the plan as subsequently amended and that such plan should not be approved except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It further appearing to the Commission that the plan filed herein by Laclede Gas, Laclede Electric, Phoenix, and Ogden Corporation (File No. 54-39) and proceedings in respect of the plan filed by Ogden Corporation and subsidiary companies pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Act (File No. 54-69) and the proceedings instituted by the Commission directed to Ogden Corporation and subsidiary companies, respondents, pursuant to sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of the Act (File No. 59-65), involve common questions of law and fact and should be consolidated;

It is further ordered, That Edward C. Johnson, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matters. The officer co designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented in the consolidated proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(a) Whether the proposed issuance by Laclede Gas of $25,000,000 principal amount of debt will result in an excessive amount of debt and whether the issuance of $25,000,000 of debt is reasonably adapted to its assets, earning power, and security structure;

(b) Whether this Commission should also require as a term and condition to its approval of the Plan filed under section 11 (e) by Laclede Gas, Laclede Electric, Phoenix, and Ogden Corporation and to the issuance of the securities proposed in such Plan, the following term and condition imposed by the Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri in its order approving the Plan of Reorganization of Laclede Gas: "That any surplus upon the books of The Laclede Gas Light Company as of the date of issuance of the securities authorized herein shall be unavailable for the payment of dividends. Any earned surplus accruing subsequent to such date to the extent of $3,000,000 shall likewise be unavailable for the payment of such dividends" and what other or additional terms and conditions in regard to restriction of dividends should be imposed:

(c) Whether Laclede Gas should be required to carry its fixed assets on its books at the estimated original cost thereof as determined by the accountants for the Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri, as of August 31, 1942, plus subsequent net additions

(d) Whether the write-downs in the property account of Laclede Gas proposed in the plan, as well as other writedowns which may be required by this Commission or other regulatory bodies having jurisdiction, should be charged, first, to the earned surplus account and any remainder thereof charged to existing capital surplus and capital surplus created by the reduction in the aggregate stated value of capital stock;

(e) Whether the depreciation reserve of Laclede Gas is adequate and whether any remaining balance in capital surplus, after giving effect to all other charges for property adjustments and similar matters, should be required to be transferred to the depreciation reserve;

(f) Whether the proposed base purchase price of $8,600,000 to be received from Union Electric for the electric properties operated by Laclede Electric is reasonable and whether the sale of such properties to Union Electric is in compliance with the provisions of section 12 (d) and other applicable provisions of the Act:

(g) Whether the proposed allocation of the proceeds of the sale of the electric properties operated by Laclede Electric between Laclede Gas and Laclede Elec-

(h) Whether the proposed issuance by Laclede Gas of eleven shares of new $5 per value common stock for each share of $100 par value preferred stock to the present holders thereof and the proposed issuance of one share of new $5 par value common stock for each share of $100 par value common stock to the present holders thereof are fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby:

(i) Whether the securities and cash proposed to be received and retained by Ogden as a result of the reorganization of Laclede Gas, the sale of the electric properties operated by Laclede Electric, and the liquidation and dissolution of Laclede Electric, constitute fair and equitable consideration for Ogden's interests in Laclede Gas and Laclede Electric:

(j) To what extent, if any, the proposed Plan should be modified or amended to render it feasible and fair and equitable to the persons affected and what terms and conditions should be imposed in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers.

Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named applicants and respondents, and to all interested persons; said notice to be given to said applicants and respondents by registered mail, and to all other persons by publication in the Federal Register. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard in this proceeding shall file with the Secretary of this Commission, on or before May 10, 1943, an appropriate request or application to be heard, as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, whether for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions, or matters hereinbefore set forth or which may arise in this proceeding, or to consolidate with these proceedings other filings or matters pertaining to said Plan or to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt, and economical disposition of the matters involved.
